CLERGY SESSION

The Clergy Session was held in the Pontchartrain Center, Kenner, LA.

The Rev. Barbara Murray offered a prelude, and Bishop William Hutchinson called the Clergy Session to order.

Worship began with the singing of “And Are We Yet Alive.” The Rev. Cheryl Nelson offered an opening prayer, and an offering was received benefiting the Central Conference Pension Initiative. The Rev. Mimi McDowell read Romans 10:11-17, and the Rev. Stephen Fife offered a sermon entitled “Remember Your Story.”

Bishop Alfred Norris had intended to be present to offer greetings but was unable to attend. Bishop Hutchinson offered greetings on his behalf.

Bishop Hutchinson informed the Session of the voting powers of various orders of clergy as it pertains to different matters that will be before the Clergy Session and the Annual Conference.

Part II Pertaining to Ordained Ministers and Local Pastors of the Disciplinary Questions was presented by various members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Hutchinson conducted elections and votes as necessary. Rev. John Edd Harper recorded election and voting results. (Note: On question 42, Brownyl Lance Eden has appealed the recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and this matter will be voted on at the 2010 Clergy Session.)

The Clergy Session also considered the following parts of the Disciplinary Questions: Part III Certification in Specialized and Certified Lay Ministry, Part IV Diaconal Ministers, and Part V Appointments and Concluding Business. Votes were conducted as necessary.

The Bishop called for a vote on the approval of the entire report of the Board of Ordained Ministry (Parts II, III, IV, and V of the Disciplinary Questions). The Clergy Session affirmed the entire report.

Rev. Ed Boyd, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented to the Clergy Session for consideration a document entitled “Our Life Together” pertaining to the ethical behavior of clergy in covenantal relationship. Rev. Boyd spoke of the nature of the document and moved for formal adoption. A voice vote was conducted, and the document was approved.

OUR LIFE TOGETHER

We recognize and affirm the covenantal relationship we have with each other as ministers in the Louisiana Annual Conference and the obligations we have to God, to the people we serve, to the world at large, and to each other to exemplify and maintain the highest standards of Christian conduct. Within that covenant, we agree that each of us shall:

- maintain spiritual, intellectual, physical, and emotional fitness.
- maintain the highest moral standard in speech and conduct.
- keep faith with loved ones, giving to them the time and attention needed for a healthy marriage and family.
- take care that attire and grooming do not detract from ministry effectiveness.
- stand beyond reproach in personal business and the stewardship of the resources of the Charge.
- imitate Christ in attitude and conduct toward all people – not setting aside convictions to win popular favor; impartially considering the needs of all people.
- set and maintain appropriate boundaries with all congregants and colleagues so that issues of impropriety, favoritism or sexual misconduct are not called into question.

- maintain a lifestyle that assures the parsonage is kept in presentable condition.
- preach and teach with integrity – give credit for the ideas and words of others.
- diligently care for his/her soul and mind through Biblical study and educational opportunities.
- maintain the highest standards regarding the use of modern technology, strictly avoiding even the perception of inappropriate use of the internet at work or at home, and understanding that email messages are not private and should not be treated as such.

And a MINISTER under appointment to a parish will:

- perform the “Responsibilities and Duties of Elders and Licensed Pastors” as described in ¶340 or “The Ministry of a Deacon” as described in ¶328 in the 2008 Book of Discipline.
- serve as pastor, preacher, teacher, and administrator, observing diligent and healthy work habits.
- honor the confidentiality of all persons, unless otherwise required by law to reveal information.
- adequately share the ministry with other professional or lay persons assigned or employed to do so, seeking just compensation for all persons, to include vacation time and continuing education.
- nurture loyalty and trust among paid staff and volunteers.
- seek no gifts, bequests, or material benefits for self or family members from any organization or individual.
- affirm that “Full-time Service” means the pastor is not substantially supported in non-pastoral work (job or activities that would hinder the appointment to which they are assigned) without the knowledge of the District Superintendent and the Staff-Parish Relations Committee.
- upon leaving the appointment, have the parsonage clean and presentable for the following pastor and family.
- upon leaving the appointment, have all records and membership lists current and well organized.
- upon leaving the appointment, including retirement, sever pastoral relationships with the parish, recognizing that all future weddings, baptisms, communions, counseling, visitation, and funerals should be performed by the new pastor, unless in an unusual circumstance, and then only by the invitation and approval of the new pastor.
- welcome a regular evaluation of the pastor’s effectiveness, being responsive to constructive feedback and humbly committed to improvements.

And, in relationship with other ministers and churches, will:

- live within the covenant community of the Annual Conference in ways that encourage and strengthen its members toward holiness of heart and life.
- make no disparaging remarks about previous pastors or new pastors.
- upon retirement, provide loyal support to pastors.
- treat with high regard and respect clergy of other churches/denominations.

(The term “minister” in this document shall include all those who maintain status of Full Member (Elder or Deacon), Provisional Member, Associate Member, Local Pastor, Diaconal, Ministerial Candidate, and others who are accountable to the Bishop and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.)

Rev. Brady Whitton spoke on behalf of the Order of Elders and Rev. Andy Goff gave information on the Order of Elders retreat scheduled for October, 2009. Rev. Bernadine Johnson spoke on behalf of the Order of Deacons and noted the Bishop’s Day Apart with the Deacons in October, 2009. Rev. Bill Strawbridge spoke on behalf of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members and mentioned the possibility of hosting a national gathering of local church pastors and associate members in 2011 at the Wesley Center.

Closing announcements and notes of concern and thanksgiving were shared.

The business was concluded, and the Clergy Session closed with the singing of “Here I Am, Lord.”

LAITY SESSION

Dr. Sarah Kreutziger, Conference Lay Leader, welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with Prayer.

Mrs. Kay Hutchinson, first lady of the Louisiana Conference, graciously greeted the delegates and shared words from Isaiah “Here I am send me.”

The Board of Laity membership was introduced by Carolyn Dove and the “cheerleaders.” Each District Lay Leader threw Mardi Gras beads to their lay delegation as they stood to be recognized.

Mr. George “Buzzy” Anding presented information on the 32 proposed amendments to be voted on in the Wednesday Session. Buzzy noted that all ballots will be written ballots. He stated that the results of the voting will be reported by the Council of Bishops at their Fall 2009 session.

Mr. Walter Weiss, 1000 Club Director, reported 1000 Club has not been as successful in the past months as we would like it to be. The call is for $150,000.00 to be collected each year and that has not happened for several years. Mr. Weiss reported that the money received from donations for the next two years will go to the new church start, The Well, in Hammond, Louisiana.

Mr. Weiss and Dr. Don Cottrill presented information on possible transfer of 1000 Club money from one church start to another church. They presented a proposed resolution from the Appropriations Committee of the Bob Lay Memorial 1000 Club regarding: the 1000 Club funds raised and held for the building of a new church in Grambling, LA. The resolution was presented as follows:

Therefore, be it resolved that: The Louisiana 1000 Club and the Louisiana Conference Board of Laity approve the use of the funds raised for new church at Grambling, Louisiana to be invested in new church development through the lending of these funds as approved by the Appropriations Committee of the 1000 Club. The funds would be repaid to the Grambling account through a method of repayment approved by the 1000 Club Appropriations Committee at the time of the loan. Dr. Cottrill stated that this resolution has been approved by both the Monroe District 1000 Club and the Conference 1000 Club Appropriations Committee.

It was noted that $129,000.00 is the amount of money presently in the Grambling Fund. Discussion ensued with many questions after which a vote was taken and the proposed resolution was unanimously passed.

The Board of Laity presented the skit, "New Faces, New Places and New Traces."

Mr. Tim Hebert gave a short report on the Certified Lay Speaker program and the Certified Lay Minister program. The Certified Lay Minister program has four modules. The first course was in April, 2009. There were 19 people attending this class to start the process to become a Certified Lay Minister.

Dr. Anita Crump and Dr. Donald Cottrill presented information on the upcoming REHINK: EVANGELISM dynamic gathering to energize and equip all for effective mission. The event will be on November 14, 2009 and held in Alexandria, Louisiana at the Riverfront Center with Dr. Tony Campolo, who will be the presenter that will help us rethink evangelism. There are expected to be at least 1200 people in attendance of this event.

The Sending Forth was led by Dr. Sarah Kreutziger and Ms. Marverne Terrell.

MORNING SESSION

Processional - Second Line - was led by Rev. Monica Monk to convene the thirty-ninth session of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

The Conference stood and joined in the singing of the hymns and the reading of the scripture with the band, led by Aaron Neiquist.

Bishop William W. Hutchinson declared the thirty-ninth session of the Louisiana Annual Conference officially convened.

Bishop Hutchinson asked that any chaplain in the Armed Services stand to be honored. The Conference joined him in honoring them.

Rev. Tim Neustifter, Pastor of Henning Memorial United Methodist Church in Sulphur, began the Conference with a prayer.

Rev. Larry Miller led the Roll Call. He then submitted the following motion to the Conference for approval:

“I nominate Ms. Belinda Denicola, Rev. Bernadine Johnson, Ms. Patti Perkins, Ms. Joyce Robinson and Rev. Darryl Tate as assistant secretaries of the Annual Conference Session. I further nominate Ms. Joyce Robinson and Rev. Darryl Tate as Head Tellers. I also direct the attention of the conference to six matters:

1. All materials for conference members are to be approved by and distributed through the Conference secretary. These materials are to be given to Ms. Joyce Robinson and are to be marked with the time of distribution.
2. Forms for writing amendments and motions that are presented to the Conference should be picked up at the secretary’s desk.
3. Similar forms are available for persons requesting courtesy letters to be sent from the Conference. Forms for special guests to be presented to the Conference are also available.
4. Any changes or corrections that need to be made regarding Pre-Conference Reports should be completed and given to Ms. Patti Perkins.
5. Special sound equipment for the hearing impaired is available through Mr. Claiborne Sharp for plenary sessions.
6. Please be aware of petitions placed on the tables Tuesday morning for review. They will be voted on Wednesday afternoon.

I move that any reports not presented, but before the Annual Conference as a part of the Pre-Conference Report, be received by the Annual Conference and published in the 2009

Louisiana Annual Conference Journal.”

The motion was seconded and approved by the Conference.

Rev. Bob Burgess presented the following motion to the Conference for approval:

“I move that the main floor of Halls A & B of the Pontchartrain Center of Kenner be designated as the Bar of the Conference.

I also move that Tuesday’s order of the day be set at 10:45 A.M. for the retirees to address the Conference and that the printed program be the agenda for the Annual Conference Session and that the Bishop be empowered to make changes in the agenda necessary to complete the business of the Conference. I move that the printed material that is to be distributed to the Annual Conference session be cleared through the secretary prior to distribution.”

The motion was unanimously approved by the Conference.

Dr. David Rowe, the new President of Centenary College, offers greetings to the Conference from the college. He stated that we are here to do the work of the Kingdom of God and stand in the way of the past trends of poverty and death among God’s people and stated that Centenary will be a partner in that effort. He thanked the Conference for its support of Centenary as they endeavor to educate moral leaders to face the challenges of the 21st century. With over 8 billion children of God filling the planet, this will prove to be a daunting task. He asked the Conference to declare in one voice that Centenary College will be the gathering place of the next Annual Conference.

Bishop Hutchinson welcomed a special participant, Ms. Mary O. Fisher, to the Louisiana Annual Conference for her faithful service. She is here in her 106th year and is still a voting member of the Louisiana conference.

The Conference gave Ms. Fisher a standing ovation.

BISHOP HUTCHINSON PRESENTED HIS EPISCOPAL ADDRESS.

“And are we yet alive,
And see each other’s face? Glory and thanks to Jesus give
For his almighty grace!”

What an honor and a privilege to stand here today, having shared one more year in God’s redeeming grace with you. It has been a year unlike any other most of us in this room can remember. We have ascended to the mountaintop in many ways and we have plummeted to the floor of the deepest canyon in other ways. And still we gather here in joy and in confidence that we are servants of the living God and privileged to be able to serve in God's Kingdom.

I began my new quadrennium of life and service among you on September 1, 2008. Do you remember September 1, 2008? It was the day Gustav roared inland and did more than $4 billion in damage to the state. Kay and I were sitting in the Episcopal Residence watching the winds of Gustav topple trees, drive the rain sideways, and waiting for the electricity to go off. And I was saying, "It is my very first day of the new quadrennium and this is how it is starting? What have I done?"

And then just a few days later, Ike ambushed us and did extensive damage along the Texas and Southwest Louisiana coast. The people from UMCOR once again had us on their speed dials and we were newly immersed in the hurricane business. But, fortunately, this time we were ready. A fine tuned response system was in place and we were able to begin attending to needs immediately. We didn't have to organize a response. We didn't have to hire personnel. We just became the living image of the Nike slogan and we "Just Did It!" And we will continue doing it through the end of 2012 at a minimum. Oh, we are getting really good at this!

On May 27, 2009 five of us went to visit with Governor Bobby Jindal and take him good news about the contribution The United Methodists have made to the state of Louisiana through Hurricane Recovery work. We shared that we have now hosted more than 65,000 volunteers who have come from all 50 states and from 26 foreign countries. These same volunteers have contributed a total of 2.8 million volunteer hours, which have in turn been reported to the state in order to calculate in-kind efforts to offset the funds required of the state as repayment to the Federal Government in the amount of $53 million!!!

Thus far The United Methodist Church has contributed a total of $85 million toward the economic development of the state of Louisiana: Volunteer hours of $53 million; $25 million given directly by The United Methodist Church; and $7 million that has come through us by way of grants from various agencies.

And now, here we are gathered in one of the hardest hit areas of our state in celebration of the goodness of God, and in affirmation of the people of the faith community here who have stood strong and steady through it all. We've also come to lend our hands, feet, and dollars to the continued recovery of this place. And we've come to join our voices in praise to our God that "all will be well. All will be well. All manner of things will be well."

We also come to formally close the extensive Mission Zone efforts that have been underway since August of 2005. From the first payroll we met just days following Katrina, and then joined by those in need as a result of Rita, we have spent an additional $6.7 million in salary supplements, payment of apportionments, emergency grants, renewal leaves, Hispanic ministry and the like. As of June 1, 2009 our salary supplements will, for the most part, be completed. There are one or two that will still be funded for new ministries that have emerged. But the funding will be nothing like that of the past.

I give another word of deep thanks to The United Methodist people across the globe. In addition to everything else they have done and the multiple millions of dollars they have shared, it is through second and third-mile giving that we have been able to fund our ministries for so long. They sent these monies directly to my office; they raised them through collections of pennies from the children to hundreds of thousands of dollars from financially strong local churches and Annual Conference budgets. They have been the suppliers of the “manure” of our now-famous “Manure Plan,” and they have been blessings beyond our ability to say “thanks.” Let’s say “thanks” in the best way we know right now!!

So now, we enter into what I am calling “The Mature Manure” plan. That means that the tree that has been fertilized is going to have to stand on its own and is going to have to produce the fruit that it is planted to produce. But as with all manure plans, this doesn’t mean the farmer will walk away and just leave the tree to itself. We will continue to tend, weed, plow, prune and water, and even add more manure when possible. However, God will give the growth and will harvest the fruit of the souls of the women and men who are given birth and nurtured in the graceful limbs of this tree of life.

For one final time, would all those who have served in the Mission Zone as pastors since 2005 please stand and let us recognize you.

Now, would all of you who participated in any way – through extra-mile giving, physical presence to work, prayer ministry at home, or any other way of participating in the recovery efforts – would you please stand.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Now, on to other concerns in our common life. As always our lives have encountered good news and bad news over these past twelve months. So as to end up on the good news end, I’m going to start with the most troubling aspects and then move to the more positive.

When we gathered last, the national and global economy was sluggish, but still in a somewhat productive state. By the end of summer things were looking gloomy. By the end of the year 2008 it was “in the tank.” By the first of March 2009 it was even worse. Fortunately, in the past few weeks we have seen some tenuous glimmers of hope. However, we are being told from every source that it will take a long time before the economy fully recovers and before there is predictable stability again.

Every segment of our society has been touched by this global financial collapse. The church has not been spared. Last year at this time I called for a study of the funding for our Annual Conference. In fact, my exact words were, “As we face the future, we cannot continue to do business as usual. We are a very generous people. But even the most generous well can run dry. We need to assess our resources seriously and spend accordingly.” (2008 Episcopal Address)

In January of 2009 the Conference Council on Finance and Administration held a two-day retreat led by Cliff Christopher of Horizons Stewardship Company. At that time we determined to make a recommendation to the annual meeting of the CF&A that the Annual Conference budget for the calendar year of 2010 be held at the 2009 level. That recommendation was made and will be before you for ratification in the CF&A report. What that means is that all salaries for all Conference Office staff - clergy and laity - and all Conference positions, including District Superintendents will be frozen at the 2009 amounts. Staff benefits will be adjusted as necessary to meet the required contributions. The apportionments from the general church will be passed on at the level they are given to us. That will be an increase in 2010. The increase from the general church requires us as an annual conference to apportion less for our Conference programs in order to balance the budget at the 2009 level. You will see those necessary reductions in the budget presented. All believe this is the prudent and responsible thing to do.

You might be interested to know that the Council of Bishops have responded to this crisis in like manner and have asked that the salaries of the Bishops be rolled back to the 2008 level.

Going forward there are some thoughts I have shared with the CF&A for their consideration:

1. I have recommended a seven-year plan for funding our contribution to Centenary College. This plan would begin in calendar year 2011 and would consist of creating an endowment with the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana while reducing the overall apportioned gift to Centenary. The endowment would be able to produce earnings that could be given to Centenary in addition to the apportioned amount each year. This plan would establish an endowment that could be added to by individuals and/or churches who have a special commitment to Centenary. It would also produce greater stability into the future than that created by relying on an apportionment alone.
2. I have also recommended the CF&A ask the personnel committee of the Annual Conference to assess whether the current Conference staff provides the areas of service needed to meet the stated mission of the Conference. Do we have adequate staff, do we have inadequate staff, or do we have excess staff? Does our staffing need to be rearranged with hours of work being redefined?
3. We must find a way to build some reserve funds for the Conference. It is very unwise for us to operate from year to year without any reserve amounts that will help us in the event of an emergency. We have seen the complications of that with our Hurricane response needs. There are other disasters that could happen that could quickly drive us into an economic disaster that we have no way to handle at this time. We need to determine how much reserves we need to maintain, and then find a method by which to fund such.

4. We desperately need to find a way to underwrite several needs within the Conference.
 - a. Our institutions will always need our financial support. The Wesley Center, The Louisiana United Methodist Children and Family Services, Centenary College, Dillard University, and the Retired Ministers' Homes Board – to name a few.
 - b. We have pledged $1,000,000 to Africa University and an additional amount for mission work in the nation of Senegal. That was approved at the 2005 Annual Conference. With the advent of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, fulfilling this pledge has been put on hold. But there are people in both these places who are patiently waiting for us to fulfill our commitment. We need to come to you at the 2010 Annual Conference with a plan to meet these obligations.

We interviewed firms this spring that would help us do a feasibility study of the Conference to see if now is the time to do a Capital Campaign to address these needs. Following the interviews and taking into account the economic climate of the state, the nation and the world at this time, we decided to postpone such a study. We didn't feel now was the time to introduce these significant needs. But we cannot continue to put this off. We must address it in the very near future.

Now, let me address some major elephants in the room with regard to Conference expense and the economy we now are in. And I remind you of the old adage, "Don't shoot the messenger" on this one!

This spring I was sent a copy of an article that appeared in "Imprimis", a publication of Hillsdale College. The article was written by Joseph B. White, Senior Editor of The Wall Street Journal and is entitled "How Detroit's Automakers Went from Kings of the Road to Roadkill." When I read it I was greatly disturbed. While Mr. White primarily addresses the rise and fall of General Motors, there are so many parallels for The United Methodist Church that I am uncomfortable. The parallels are too many for me to address them all, but let me lay out four:

1. First, we have to find a way to curtail expanding costs. General Motors continued to increase the cost of doing business, while at the same time producing a product that was losing money and market share. Our United Methodist Church is operating in a similar mode.

This year we had a very difficult appointment process. For the first time in my tenure in Louisiana we had more clergy than we had places to put them. Our disciplinary requirement is to appoint all elders and probationary elders first. All other relationships to the Annual Conference receive appointments only after those have been placed. What that required us to do was not desirable. We had to take some appointments currently being served by non-elders and give them to elders. We also had to create new appointments that would support a newly commissioned “Resident in Ministry” or what most know as a Probationary Elder.

To create a position for a new seminary graduate, just being commissioned this year, we needed a round figure of $67,000 minimum to meet all the requirements of such an appointment. Do you know how many churches in Louisiana can support a pastor’s salary and benefits at that figure? Not many! You can’t even put two or three, or even four or five together in many instances and get that much!

In Louisiana we have 84% of our churches with an average worship attendance of 125 or less. We have 13% who have an average attendance of 126-349. And we have only 3% who worship more than 350! That’s the lowest percentage in our Jurisdiction, with the exception of the two missionary conferences of Oklahoma Indian Mission and Rio Grande who have no churches that worship more than 350.

At the same time, those 3% of large churches pay some 33% of our total expenditures and the 84% of the small church pay only 30% of our total expenditures.

(Statistics from the Lewis Center for Church Leadership, Wesley Theological Seminary, <www.churchleadership.com>)

I want our clergy to receive everything they rightfully should. And, in all truthfulness, I don’t know how many of them make it on the amount they receive and I would boost their salaries in a minute if I knew how. But a $67,000 minimum salary for a Resident in Ministry is pricing us out of business when it comes to seminary graduates and those who are entering the probationary process! Either we have to get churches to pay more for salary support, or reduce the salaries we are required to meet or we will slowly become unable to place elders in a great number of our churches.

2. Secondly, we must adapt our methods to today’s world or face the continuing decline of our product consumption.

General Motors ignored the development of the car industry around them, thinking they could continue to decide for the American public what cars they wanted and would buy. When Toyota and Honda were introducing an entirely different line of cars, and the people began to shift to buying them in preference to traditional American cars, General Motors figured this would soon change as their customers grew out of their small car phase of life.

What is happening around us in the world of the church? What are those churches doing that are attracting all the young and new families? Where must we adapt our methods so that we are not “out of date” and merely comfortable for a clientele that has been with us for a long time?

If our church continues to decline year after year because the worship, study, fellowship, and spiritual nourishment is not meeting the need of today's people, and our expenses continue to grow and grow, how long will it be before we don't have the ability to stay afloat? It's a serious question to ponder.

3. And there are two more areas that are of grave concern: Pensions and Health Care.

- a. Pensions

All clergy in the room have seen their pension accounts shrink over the last several months. It is very disturbing to say the least. At the same time your account has been shrinking, the monies the General Board of Pensions has to fund your retirement has been shrinking.

A short synopsis of the dilemma is this. It just may be that many Conferences are under-funded again when it comes to pension liability – and Louisiana may become one of them if the economy doesn't make a significant turn. In other words, there may come a time in the near future when there won't be enough funds in the General Board to pay the pensions for which it is obligated. And the only source of getting those funds is to turn to you, the Annual Conference.

If we have to begin to find ways to fund the liability in our pension accounts once more, only a couple of things can happen – 1. Raise rates or 2. Reduce benefits. Will pension benefits, of necessity, become smaller? Will the Annual Conference have to apportion more money, or require the local churches to raise pension payments, or have another special fund drive in order to fund the liability?

Without enumerating the various consequences of either reducing benefits or raising rates, I think you get the picture. We may be required to address this.

- b. Health Care

The other major elephant in the room is health care. So far our Annual Conference has done very well in securing health care for full time or $\frac{3}{4}$ time clergy and their families. But with the escalating costs involved, how long will that be a possibility?

I found it interesting that General Motors has spent $103 billion during the past 15 years funding its pension and retiree health-care obligations. This is nearly $7 billion a year – more than GM's capital spending budget for new models this year. ("How Detroit's Automakers Went from Kings of the Road to Roadkill")

The Louisiana Annual Conference is currently billing to the churches $3,554,360 for health care. However, that only accounts for 67.5% of the cost of health insurance. We have an additional amount of $1,706,279 that must come from some investments, government subsidies and apportioned amounts, for a total of $5,260,634 for health care in 2008! Where is it headed? I don't know. But you again see the dilemma. How far can we go before it becomes crippling to the church?

Again we are faced with the same dilemma – 1. Raise rates, or 2. Reduce benefits.

I don't raise any of these economic issues to raise alarms – simply to raise awareness. We are in a difficult economy and we must meet it head on and with our eyes open. We don't want The United Methodist Church in general, and certainly not The United Methodist Church in Louisiana, coming to the same threshold as General Motors! But, as we have seen, such a happening isn't too far fetched.

Let me quickly move to Property and Casualty Insurance:

The cancellation of the special called session of the Annual Conference was extremely disappointing to me and to those who worked so hard on the property and casualty insurance proposals this past year. Everyone involved thought we had covered all the bases that would give us thorough information regarding rates, enrollment, coverage and all the related questions that would allow us to make an informed vote. However, in the final days before the special session it became apparent that the quotation of rates were coming in with too much variation and unwarranted spikes or drops. When this was discovered and questions were asked with United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust, it was decided we had a conflict of information and quotations.

There wasn't enough time to get this straightened out before the special session was to convene, so I, along with agreement from the others involved, made the decision to cancel the session. I didn't want us making a confused decision.

As I indicated in a follow-up communication, the fact we cancelled the session did not alleviate the obvious fact that we still need coverage – property, liability, workers compensation, Directors and Officers Insurance, and sexual misconduct - for all our churches at an affordable rate. Every church is required to have this coverage and we need to help make it accessible.

We continue to work with UMPACT toward the end of making a proposal to our Conference. We are taking into consideration other firms and varied ways to structure an insurance plan. As the year progresses you will be given “new and improved” information on this whole subject. It is the plan of our Conference Office and the Conference Board of Trustees to bring a proposal for decision to the Annual Conference session in 2010.

In the meantime, in order to comply with the disciplinary requirements, every church will be asked to provide proof of insurance in these five categories – property, liability, workers compensation, Directors and Officers, and sexual misconduct – at the Charge Conferences this fall. We simply cannot afford the risk of having any church uninsured in any of these areas.

I cannot conclude this address without saying something about the Four Areas of Focus:

You have heard much about these four areas over the last year and you will continue to hear much about them over the remainder of this quadrennium. Our Vision Team has spent much time centering on these areas and has formed four task forces that will direct our attention and programming as an Annual Conference. We will be emphasizing one of them each year, but will be working on all four simultaneously.

For 2008 – 2009 we are emphasizing “Creating New Places for New People by Starting New Congregations and Renewing Existing Ones.” Obviously, that is the theme of this Annual Conference session. We have done much of this work in the city and suburbs where we are currently gathered. That’s why we chose this emphasis this year.

Two years ago we began three new congregations – a bold move for our Conference. I’m proud to announce that all three are doing well and are meeting their benchmarks for growth and stability: NewSong in Prairieville; Faith Crossing in the Walker area; and The Well in Hammond. In fact, just this spring we broke ground for the first unit of The Well! And the other two are close behind. And we need to start more!

It is a proven fact that new churches will attract many people that will not attend an existing congregation. In order for the church to grow and expand in its ability to share the gospel story, we MUST start new churches. There’s one major hindrance to this mandate – lack of adequate finances.

In an attempt to help give these new churches some of the funds they need I have commissioned Betty Backstrom, our Director of Communications to develop a poster of “The Doors of The United Methodist Churches of Louisiana.” It is a partner piece to the new general church emphasis of “Ten Thousand Doors.” It is a beautiful work of art and will look stunning in EVERY church in Louisiana.

I am asking that EVERY church buy this poster at a cost of $100 and have it framed and placed in your church so all can see. It will be the symbol for all of us that we are united in our effort to create “new places for new faces”, believing it is the mandate for all of us to be involved in starting new churches. There are currently 507 United Methodist Churches in Louisiana. When each of us buys this poster we will raise $50,700 to help start new churches. It’s a drop in the bucket of the great need! But it is a start and will symbolically unite us around this great mission.

Of course, it will make a beautiful statement in your office, or in your business, or in your home as well. I even had a woman from Georgia call me to say she wanted three of them to give to some family members and to keep one for her! So stop by the Office of Church Extension booth here at Conference and get yours today!

The other three areas of Focus and their years of special emphasis are:

2009-2010 – Improving Global Health – Elimination of the Killer Diseases of Poverty

2011-2012 – Developing Principled Leaders

Well, that about gives you the sweeping overview of the Louisiana Annual Conference and some of its joys as well as some of its challenges. It's been a marvelous year since we last gathered. In addition to all I have already said, we dedicated the Bishop William B. Oden pavilion; the De Colores meeting building and the inviting trail system at the Wesley Center. We broke ground for a new facility of The Louisiana United Methodist Children and Family Services in Sulphur and construction is to begin in just a couple of months on this beautiful new home where children in the greatest need will be served. We have raised the funds to completely underwrite all the indebtedness of the Wesley Center. We received a 97.7% payout of all apportionments in a very difficult economy. We received 3832 new members, and 1438 of those joined by professing their faith in Christ for the very first time. It's been a wonderful year.

One final invitation – we're going to travel to the Holy Land again in 2010. I invite you to join some 20 ordinands and us as we make this pilgrimage of a lifetime! You will never be the same again once you have walked where Jesus walked. And we also will be going in August to Oberammergau, Germany to see the centuries old Passion Play. This opportunity only comes every ten years, so don't miss out on this moving experience and sign up to travel with us.

And are we yet alive? Oh, yes we are!

And see each other's face? Oh how wonderful it is to see you all again!

Glory and thanks to Jesus give for his almighty grace! Thanks be to God!

Amen and Amen

Rev. Ed Boyd talked about the fund for the Ordained Ministry and then led the Conference in prayer.

Gail Bowman, Chaplain of Dillard University, greeted the conference on behalf of the University. She spoke of the Methodist churches all over the state of Louisiana and the way God worked to allow some of the Dillard University Students to lead them.

Bishop Hutchinson made several announcements.

Mr. Henry Stamper, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration presented the CFA report #1. He addressed pages 1 and 2 of the Pre-Conference report. He noted a correction of the amount of reimbursement for moving expenses from $4,000 to $6,000, and moved for its adoption. It is adopted

Rev. Roger Templeton presented the three petitions to be voted on Wednesday.

Mr. Gordan Dillahunt offered greetings from the Cokesbury Publishing House. He presented the report of the publishing house. He invited everyone to visit their displays. He expressed his regrets for the lack of funds to make a donation this year because of the economic situation. He also presented Bishop Hutchinson with a baseball cap.

Mr. Kenny Beauvais presented the report of the Board of Pensions as printed on pages 13-15 of the Pre-Conference Report. There is one change to Report #3, item #2. He made two changes to the report: to include Paul Wesley's leave of absence years and to include appointment years as years of "vested" service for pre 82 plan. Also, add one year of service to attend school from June, 1993 to June, 1994 for Richard J. Weihing. The report is unanimously adopted.

Rev. Richard Hooton, clergy delegate from Zwolle-Bayou Scie, had a question pertaining to the Board of Pensions' report. Following is the statement presented by Rev. Hooton.

¶247.13 (page 162) of 2008 Discipline states: The charge conference shall set the compensation of the pastor and other appointed staff.

Most Louisiana charge conferences meet to do so in late September thru early November.

We just heard that the Board of Pensions will not meet until October. The Board of Pensions consistently does not publish medical insurance premiums for the coming year until after most charge conferences have met.

Since insurance is a part of compensation, the net effect is that the Board of Pensions is deciding compensation, not the charge conference.

Two questions:

- 1.) Can't the Board of Pensions adjust their schedule so we can set compensation within the guidelines of the Discipline?
- 2.) If not, I would question the Disciplinary legality of our current practice?

Bishop Hutchinson asked Kenny Beauvais, Chair of the Board of Pensions, to respond. Mr. Beauvais stated that the conference health insurance plan is a self-funded plan and that parts of the mechanism in setting the premium rates for self-funded plans depend totally on the experience in the prior year. Therefore, we can't go to our re-insurance carriers until very late in the year to be able to allow them to quote us what the fixed cost of the plan will be. That is the earliest period of time that we can get good firm quotes from them. That is the reason the Board of Pensions can't set the premium rates until then.

Rev. Larry Miller stated that as a pastor for 25 years and a DS for 3 years he also related to the questions asked. He said that he learned the answer from his predecessor, Dr. Carl Rhoads, expect a 10% increase in health insurance premiums for budgeting purposes.

Bishop Hutchinson responded that his interpretation would be, but that he would have to look it up, that the major part that you are setting by charge conference action is the actual salary figures and not the benefit figures. The benefit figures should probably be voted on as an item that would be tailored to whatever the increase or the cost of the benefit would be. If you had to have a charge conference to re-do the salary because of that, then that could be done in January after all of that had been put before you. He stated that he had been a recipient of that process on three different occasions in his ministry, all from the same church in which his salary was set in the fall and a called charge conference in January rescinded the raise that he was given. So setting the insurance benefit could be done that way as well. The Bishop stated that legally they were fine in that this is a benefit that is a fluctuating number and the rest of the salary can be set apart from that fluctuating benefit number giving the church the authority to adopt the benefit number when it is made available to you.

Rev. Hooton asked the Bishop if he could present this to him as a Question of Law and the Bishop responded that he could.

Mrs. Betty Blackman presented the Conference Ministry Team report.

Appreciation was shown to the members of the Conference Ministry Team.

Four areas of Focus were presented by Dr. Donald Cottrill:

2009-New places for new people

2010-Stamping out Killer Diseases
 2011-Engaging in Ministry with the Poor
 2012-Develop Principled Christian Leaders

Appreciation was shown to the members of the task forces.

Mrs. Betty Backstrom recognized the 39 churches that were certified to become more intentional in welcoming all people. She then introduced Greg Cox, UMCCom, to discuss Rethink Church. He showed a video.

Donald Cottrill presented Rethink: Evangelism. He shared a video with the Conference.

Mrs. Betty Blackman recommended the reports of the Conference Ministry be accepted. They were adopted.

Mrs. Betty Blackman recommended the Housing Policy be adopted by the Conference. She recognized all the people who helped to write the policy. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Fred Loy made courtesy announcements and prayer concerns.

Rev. Hadley Edwards led the closing prayer.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 2009

Morning Worship was led by Rev. Rudy Rasmus.

Gathering music was led by Aaron Niequist.

Bishop Hutchinson officially convened the business session.

The opening prayer was given by Rev. Anice Moses.

Mrs. Barbara Wade, representing the Committee on the Journal, reported that she had reviewed the minutes for the Sessions of Annual Conference for Monday, June 8, 2009, and they seemed to be in order. She recommended that they be accepted as they stand. They were accepted by the Conference.

LAITY ADDRESS

Bishop Hutchinson, Dr. Cottrill, Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Board of Laity (BOL) Report begins on page 62 in the Pre-Conference Journal.

It is indeed an honor to give the first Laity Address of the new quadrennium as your new Conference Lay Leader. I would be remiss if I did not ask our outgoing Board of Laity members to stand so that you can see these hard working individuals once again and give them your thanks. PLEASE STAND.

Sadly, we have to say, “good bye” to a current Board member, the Rev. Jared Williams since he was ordained last night, and thus is no longer a layman.

This Board was under the able service of the former Conference Lay Leader, Mr. George “Buzzy” Anding, who continues to work with us as our parliamentarian and legal council. Buzzy is a great spiritual leader, Wesleyan to the core, and leaves a tremendous legacy for others to follow. His older sister, Corre, provided some insight into the roots of Buzzy’s religiosity, which I would like to share with you now.

Buzzy is the youngest child and only son of an extremely adoring mother. So much so that he was clearly her favorite in the family. His two older sisters, both aspiring United Methodist women and therefore acutely aware of the social justice implications of such favoritism, sought to rectify the inequality with direct action. They took the young toddler, tied him up carefully, and threw him into a trash can – in a magnificent effort to solve their dilemma. Alas, their well crafted plans were for naught. Buzzy’s mother rescued him...and she had to do it more than once, according to Buzzy.

I can only surmise that the young Buzzy learned many great spiritual lessons from these experiences. Being saved was certainly important, but he also learned first hand Wesley’s admonition to his followers: that it is very important to “flee from the wrath to come!!”Thank you, Buzzy.

I have yet to learn the histories of the current Board, well except for my husband Keith’s, but I do want you to meet our new Board and hear a tiny bit of what we are doing. Our BOL already had a rousing introduction earlier during the Laity Session led by our Head Cheerleader, Mrs. Carolyn Dove and her youth team. Carolyn reported yesterday at our Laity Session that the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship Fund has awarded 18 scholarships to our fine Methodist students thanks to the hard work of our Bishop, District Superintendents and District Lay Leaders.

We have to give thanks, as well, to our Conference presidents Mrs. Edna Hickman of the United Methodist Women, Mr. Gard Wayt of the United Methodist Men, and Miss Hannah Grantham of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship for creatively promoting participation through their mission and discipleship outreach.

Mr. Tim Hebert is wearing two hats as the head of our Lay Speaking Schools and as the point person on our Certified Lay Minister program, which you will hear more about later.

The 1000 Club, under Mr. Walter Weiss’s direction, has been very busy. After going through a very thorough process, their Executive Committee made a proposal yesterday to the laity of the Conference that was voted upon and accepted. The proposal asked that funds held for a new church start in Grambling, which has been put on hold for the time being, be used instead as a loan for Lafayette's Emanuel UMC's purchase of land and for another new church start elsewhere in the Conference. The money is to be repaid into the Grambling fund as soon as possible.

Board Secretary Mrs. Marverne Terrell and Board Treasurer Mrs. Glennell Cottrill provide the organizational structure for our Board, while the Members at Large and the former Conference Lay leaders keep us on track. Dr. Anita Crump does that for me and I am grateful. Our ex-officio members, Rev. Roger Lathan, Dr. Donald Cottrill, and Ms Rhonda Whitley make sure we stay connected and the District Lay Leaders drive the action of our outreach.

Mrs. Joyce Robinson, our Associate Lay Leader, is a major part of this great team and was hostess to our Laity Breakfast this morning. Saints football player, Mr. Jon Stinchcomb, did a great job as speaker to a packed crowd. We are very grateful that he stepped up to the plate or should I say, "took the ball and ran with it?" In short, you have a fine Board worthy of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

This Board, in partnership with the clergy, is asked this year to seek out new faces in new places as part of a four-year long campaign to discover what sparks the attention of the unchurched. We are to "Rethink Church" and the way we do things. The symbol chosen for this evangelistic thrust is the door or the doors. Everywhere in our church you can see all kinds of doors: here on the internet, in the media, and in multiple discussions of the church's future. Even our Public Service Announcements proclaim that we are the church of "Open Minds, Open Hearts, and Open Doors." Did you notice that President Obama's speech at Notre Dame used our theme as he told his audience that Catholics believed in Open Hearts and Open Minds? So the word, praise God, is going forth.

But as I look at the images and hear our wonderful, effective message, a nagging thought surfaces through my persnickety mind. What if some of our doors are not open? It reminds me of a story that Bishop Richard Looney tells about his Sunday school class in my home church in Waynesville, North Carolina. The name of the Sunday school class, he says, is "the Open Door." During the summer the church's air conditioning does not keep the classroom cool, so the members have a sign on the door that says, "The Open Door Sunday School Class. Please keep the door closed at all times."

The story illustrates one of the challenges of this campaign;...what do we do when the doors are not open;...or when the doors are open, but no one wants to come in;...or for that matter, when the doors are open, but the members refuse to go out?

Denominational leaders are certainly aware of these concerns and doing what they can to meet the challenge. Many are urging us to lead beyond the walls; restructure our boards and agencies; start new churches; add Contemporary Services; use more technology; become more orthodox; become more progressive; recapture the Great Narrative; stop accommodating cultural mores; make the main thing, the main thing; and return to core Wesleyan rules: Do no harm, Do good, and Stay in Love with God.

We are reminded that we have one mission statement, two major aims, three forms of grace, four foci, the quadrilateral, five practices of faithful congregations, seven – or more – means of grace (depending on whom is counting), power in the Connection, and a theology – my belief too – that is the best in Christendom. Methodism is a virtual cornucopia of programs, plans and promises. If left brain dominance opens doors, then by golly, we're there.

But what if it takes more than creative planning and effective outreach to win others to Christ? What if all of our good plans and actions, as Buzzy's older sisters learned, isn't enough? What if some of the doors, despite heroic efforts, stay shut? What then do we do?

Well...nothing...Sometimes we just have to do our best and leave the rest to God. In other words, Trust in the Lord, wait patiently for his voice, stand ready, and then let the Holy Spirit lead the way. Maybe, just maybe, God has something else to teach us about evangelism beyond our plans and programs.

Both our faith and historical evidence verify this. A Jewish saying proclaims that "life happens when you are making other plans." Just as we settle happily...or unhappily into our familiar ruts, accommodating to the planned course of our lives; God, moving in the Karios of eternity, surprises us with his serendipitous grace and shows us a different future; a different path. Just as we sing in our Conference song, "Who can explore His strange design?"

And if it plays out in our lives this way, how much more apparent is "His Strange Design" played out in history? How often have contemporary chroniclers closed the door on an era, only to discover subsequently that in the margins of that era's grand design, God is writing his own story in a much larger narrative? Think about it....

---The symbol of extreme cruelty and death used by the Romans for centuries to terrify their enemies and warn people away, now, sanctified by Ultimate Sacrifice, invites millions into a life of sanctuary and grace. OR ---Roman roads built to connect military outposts throughout their conquered lands were used more productively by Paul and the Disciples to spread the Message to the world that peace in Christ Jesus was at hand. OR

---The quiet, repetitive, tedious work of obedient monks copying manuscripts in isolated monasteries throughout the Dark Ages spawned the birth of the Renaissance and the Protestant Reformation. OR ---Two brothers growing up in a small, chilly outpost of outcasts strangely warmed the hearts of their country by preaching outside the closed doors of their moribund churches, thereby saving England from the violent revolutions that destroyed other parts of Europe...and later Russia.

---And today, thousands of Louisiana United Methodists are offered new life by a lay movement begun in another country, in another language, under the auspices of another religion that sneaked past our church during the peak of Methodism's influence in numbers and resources and returned at the very moment that we needed to unleash the bonds of the Spirit. That Movement of course, is Cursillo, the Mother of the Three Day Weekends Renewals.

“Who can explore his strange design?”

So, you can see why I'm excited about what God might be doing under the cover of His will while we make our plans, chart our course, and pray. I can't wait to experience the tipping point for spectacular renewal and look forward to its coming soon. I may have some evidence, in fact, that God may be just about ready. It comes from Jon Meachan's article in Newsweek over Easter. Mr. Meachan, Newsweek's Senior Editor, believes that Christianity is on the decline in America. He quotes notable figures and dismal statistics to prove his point that we are entering a post-Christian period just as Europe and other Western countries have done earlier. His report is just the latest in a myriad of pessimistic utterances that tout our demise.

With such doom and gloom in the world, I can't help but believe that God is about to surprise us again because I know that just when the world declares that the party is over, our Creator brings out the covered dish feast and starts the music all over again!!!

In other words, God is God...The Spirit moves where it will...The Deity we worship is the same person who appeared in the midst of the frightened disciples in the upper room WHEN THE DOOR WAS CLOSED AND LOCKED. If the door isn't open, then He comes in anyway, finding whatever portal that is available and using whomever's willing heart says, “yes.”

Sometimes the portal is a window.

One of my favorite historical accounts in Women's History is the “Ladies of Seneca Falls, NY.” The women gathered at a Methodist Church in 1848 to write up a declaration of voting rights for their sisters...just as they had done earlier in the push for voting rights for Blacks and other oppressed populations. Although they had been assured that they could meet at the chapel, when the women gathered they found the door firmly locked because of the opposition to their cause. The women, undeterred, simply found an open window, climbed in, replete in gloves, hats, gown, and petticoats;...opened the door and held the meeting that would lead to the granting of women's suffrage 72 years later.

Well, that's what the Board of Laity is doing;...seeking open doors when possible or open windows when not...and praying for guidance all the way.

One new initiative from the Board of Laity that has looked for an opening for awhile is the Certified Lay Minister program approved by the 2004 General Conference. Were it not for the dogged perseverance of Mr. Tim Hebert and offer of help by the Rev. John Edd Harper to anchor the training and guidelines in our Conference, this new opportunity to claim and honor the work of our laity might have died on the vine. While the General Church has structured the training to strengthen the role of supply pastor for small, poorly resourced pulpits, our task force has chosen to widen the mission and scope of the office by stressing training that enhances the gifts and talents of the laos; lay people called out into ministries that strengthen the community and church. In other words, a Certified Lay Minister is someone who brings his or her expertise, vocational experience, love of God, and passion to serve, places it under the loving arm of the church and works in partnership with the ordained clergy to fill gaps and strengthen service in all areas of Kingdom Building and not just in the important work of filling small church pulpits.

The office is already being used productively in other conferences. One District Superintendent in Pennsylvania uses 17 Certified Lay Ministers in her District, only one of whom works as a supply pastor.

Additionally, the General Board of Discipleship received a $50,000 grant from the Foundation for Evangelism for a proposal to use this lay ministry to train evangelists, especially in Hispanic and other ethnic churches where lay pastors and their lay leaders are building congregations. (I'm tempted to remind us here that this is how the American Methodist church was built, but I won't.)

Tim and John Edd, with the help of Mrs. Carolyn Dove and Mr. Bryan Core, who is our Conference's first Certified Lay Minister, held an all day workshop on April 25th, to introduce this position and begin the first training. Twenty adventurous individuals showed up to pioneer this effort and begin a journey that has the potential to enrich our Conference life beyond measure. If we can just begin to think beyond the narrow confines of our appointed institutional rounds and yoke the talents of lay people who want to use their gifts for outreach and mission but are not called to ordained ministry.

Tim can give you information on this and has already contacted the graduates of Lay Speaking Schools since that is the first step in the process. You can also access the Conference website for information. As you can see, I am very excited about the potential for such a ministry if we will open our hearts and creative minds to such an opportunity.

The other new Board of Laity initiative that can open many doors is one that has already been lifted up by Dr. Don Cottrill yesterday.

RETHINK:EVANGELISM provides a way for those of us who talk the talk to walk the walk. All you have to do is get yourself and your friends to the Alexandria Riverfront Center on Saturday, November 14, pay $20 or $30 each (depending on how much you procrastinate) and listen to one of the best preachers in America, Dr. Tony Campolo, teach us how to reach out to others. Then, during the next year, you simply invite an unchurched person into discipleship. How easy is that?

I urge you, beg you, and am counting on all of you as leaders in our churches, to go back, motivate your congregations, pray diligently and participate fully in the PRIMARY MISSION OF OUR CHURCH, which is, TO MAKE DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST FOR THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE WORLD.

My hope is that these initiatives and the ongoing work of our Board will give impetus for us to build a much needed laity infrastructure for rapid communication. We can do it with today's technology if we have the will and do a much better job of connecting the dots. If you are a local church lay leader, please, please make sure that your District Lay Leader has your e-mail address and/or phone number. I suspect we have a vast network of individuals just waiting for the invitation to do more for the Kingdom if they knew what to do.

And if God has already put an idea in your head and a mission in your heart, then please, please contact us with your idea or hound your pastor about it. We want people with passion in our work. I pray that the day of putting a person's name in a space just to have the space filled or telling an individual that the church job you are asking them to do won't take much time, is over. We have too much talent in our congregations to do less than what God is challenging us to do.

Whenever I think of what little we are asked to do in these times, I think of a different period when life was much harder and the challenges so much more compelling. On Christmas Eve, 1784, 63 lay preachers, with an average age of 30, gathered together from all over the Northeast in a small meeting house appropriately called Lovely Lane in Baltimore, Maryland. They had ridden miles through bad weather to organize their societies into a conference and elect their first American Bishop, Frances Asbury. The meeting was short. As Luccock and Garrison reported in Endless Line of Splendor (1992), "The appointments were made; the final prayer offered; and it was almost as though some of the men leaped through the windows of the chapel (italics mine) onto their horses to be on their way. The King's business required haste and got it. The day after the Conference, Asbury rode 30 miles, through frost and snow, to Fairfax, Virginia. Thomas Coke started a six month preaching tour of the South." (P. 40)

So, I ask you, are we called to do any less today for the "King's business"?

Please...Please...Find a door and if one isn't open, look for a window and wait for God to bless the rest. Amen.

The Conference thanked Mrs. Kreutziger with a standing ovation.

Mr. Hap Martin, representing the Conference Board of Trustees, presented seven resolutions. The resolutions were: Resolution One to ratify the acceptance of the donation from First United Methodist Church of Shreveport of the Shreveport condominium property; Resolution Two to ratify the grant of an oil, gas and mineral lease on the Tooke Cemetery Property, Bienville Parish; Resolution Three to discontinue and abandon Indian Village United Methodist Church, Monroe District; Resolution Four to discontinue and abandon Oak Park United Methodist Church, Lake Charles District; Resolution Five to discontinue and abandon Faith United Methodist Church, Shreveport District; Resolution Six to authorize the donation of the Mitchell Cemetery, Shreveport District; Resolution Seven to ratify the donation of the Bonne Idee Cemetery, Monroe

District. One verbal report was added, stating that the final payment in the crude oil fund distribution being made from the United Methodist Church to all of the conferences, done on an equal share to each conference. This distribution is the amount $735.72. The financial administration of the Board of Trustees voted that this money be used and transferred to the Central Conference Pension Initiative to help fund that initiative. The resolutions, including the verbal report added, were received and approved. Bishop Hutchinson thanked Mr. Hap Martin for his work on the Board.

Rev. Steve Stephens presented New Places for New Faces. He then recognized representatives from the following new churches who made commitments as planters to reach new people for Christ: Faith Crossing United Methodist Church, The Well United Methodist Church, and NewSong United Methodist Church. A short video was shown from each church. He asked that each church in the Conference do their part in sharing the harvesting work of God.

Bishop Hutchinson thanked Kathy Moore, his Executive Administrator, for all the time she devoted to the Conference altar and her hard work. The Conference gave her a standing ovation.

Bishop Hutchinson made announcements.

The opening hymn "Sweet, Sweet Spirit" was led by Rev. Darryl A. Tate to start the Service of Recognition of the Retirees.

Rev. Tate introduced the retirees: Kenneth McLaurin Fisher, Freddie Charles Henderson, Willie Lee Henry, Lawrence Wayne Howington, James Thomas Logan, Robert Gene Rowland, Doris Riley Sheppard, and Inez Daggs Williams. There was one retiree from last year who was unable to attend the Conference last year, Carl Rhoads. Each retiree gave a short speech. Also retiring but not present: Mary Sloan Baugh, Charles Robert Cosentino, Robert Eldred Hollis, Jr., and Joor Penn Morgan.

The Conference stood and gave thanks to the retirees.

In the Service of the Passing of the Mantle, the mantle was passed from Rev. Freddie Henderson, representing the retiring class, to Rev. Jacqueline E. C. King, representing the new full member class.

The Service of the Recognition of the Retirees was closed with the hymn "We are Marching."

Rev. Tate made announcements about the recovery work to be done at the dismissal of the Conference and thanked Rev. Yvonne Dayries for all her help in getting ready for this day.

Mr. Fred Loy gave the Courtesy Committee Report. He shared concerns and prayer requests.

Bishop Hutchinson welcomed Arleeta Terrell to speak to the Conference on behalf of the City of Kenner. She welcomed the Conference to Kenner and gave thanks on behalf of the mayor for being here. She also gave her appreciation to the Conference for the work they are doing in New Orleans.

Rev. Larry Miller made announcements.

Closing prayer was led by Dr. Carl Rhoads.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 2009 MORNING SESSION

Bishop Hutchinson made announcements concerning voting on the 32 Amendments.

Ms. Hannah Grantham, President of the Conference Council of Youth Ministry, gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Barbara Wade, representing the Committee on the Journal, reported that she had reviewed the minutes for the Sessions of Annual Conference up to this point, and they seemed to be in order. She made a motion that they be accepted as they stand. The motion carried.

Mr. Henry Stamper, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration, presented report #2 of the Council on Finance and Administration and referenced pages 3-7 of the Pre-Conference Report. He noted that there would be no increase in the 2010 Conference General Budget Apportionments. He pointed out the following areas being recommended for a decrease in the budget in order to make that possible: Centenary College, Dillard University, Church Extensions, Conference Ministry Team Initiatives, Conference Transformation Consultants, and Global Ministry. He also noted that the CPA report was not in the journal but will be available on the Web. Mr. Stamper moved for the approval of the report. The motion passed.

Rev. Larry Miller presented the Statistician's Report and referenced pages 8-11 of the Pre-Conference Report. He apologized for the discrepancy between the 2007 ending number of total professing members and the 2008 beginning number. He noted that $8 million more was spent in 2008 and that less members were taken in. He stated that he hoped next year we will be reaching more people for Christ.

Rev. Larry Miller presented the Nominations Report as presented on pages 130-131 of the Pre-Conference Report. He asked that any typographical corrections be written down and given to the secretary's office. The following changes were made: Board of Discipleship – remove Darlene A. Moore, BR CO4 At-Large. The amended report, along with the yet to be amended portions, was approved.

The constitutional amendments were presented by George Anding. Summary information on the constitutional amendments was presented on pages 132-155 of the Pre-Conference Report. Bishop Hutchinson asked that the Conference refrain from applause.

A motion was made for the process by which the voting would take place. A slide show was shown to present the process: (1) that all amendments be voted on by written ballot; (2) that only individuals eligible and qualified to vote would be seated in the bar of the Conference; (3) the 5 amendments that deal with the global nature of the church would be debated as a group but voted on separately and the 18 amendments that deal with the name change from Central Conference to Regional Conference would be debated as a group but voted on separately; and (4) the remaining amendments be debated and voted on individually. The motion was seconded and adopted. A motion was made by Dr. Andrews that proposed that there be two speeches for and two speeches against and that each speech be given a two minute time limit. The block of 18 amendments would together only have two for and two against. An amendment to the motion was made that each of the 18 amendments in the block be debated separately, each being allowed two speeches for and two speeches against. This motion failed and the original motion was put back on the floor. The original motion was seconded and it carried.

The 5 proposed amendments dealing with substantive issues (IV, X, XIII, XXIII, and XXVI) were the first amendments to be voted on. Next, the 18 amendments that talked about the name change from Central Conference to Regional Conference (III, V, VII, XI, XII, XIV, XVI, XVIII, XX, XXI, XXIV, XXV, XXVII, XXVIII, XXIX, XXX, XXXI, XXXII) were voted on.

Bishop Hutchinson addressed the Question of Law that was posed regarding the way the Louisiana Conference functions in relationship to the Discipline as it deal with salaries being set by charge conferences. He stated that he had 30 days to make a response to that question and his response would be forwarded to the Judicial Council for their affirmation or non-affirmation of the ruling that he will make. Once it is done the response will be printed in the Journal. After the ruling by the Judicial Council the decision will be published and made public knowledge.

Decision of Law Rendered by Bishop William W. Hutchinson
Louisiana Annual Conference
June 8, 2009

The decision rendered was that the current practice of setting clergy compensation in Charge Conferences before the actual amount of the health insurance premium is known does not contradict or violate Paragraph 247.13 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

Rationale Given:

1. The health insurance premium is not a compensation amount to be determined by the local church. It is payment for a benefit provided by the Louisiana Annual Conference. The health insurance premium for the self-funded program of the Louisiana Annual Conference is determined by the Conference Board of Pensions and is assessed to every local church. This is not an amount over which a local church has jurisdiction, and thus is not to be determined by a Charge Conference. (cf. Paragraph 1507, Book of Discipline, 2008)
2. The Conference Board of Pensions cannot determine the health insurance premium until late in the fall because of the necessity of having information from the insurance underwriters that will determine the following year's premium. That information is not available to the Conference Board of Pensions until late in the fall.
3. The Conference Board of Pensions has consistently asked churches to anticipate a 10% increase in the health insurance premium annually. This anticipated amount can be applied to a proposed compensation package in the event there is an increase. If an increase occurs and is less than 10% then the church will have extra funds than those for which they have budgeted.

If an increase exceeds 10%, then the local church has one of two options:

- a. The Church Council may increase the total budget required to meet the increase in health insurance premiums, or
- b. The Church Council or other appropriate body may request a special Charge Conference at which they can adjust the compensation package according to the over-all amount set by the previous Charge Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

William W. Hutchinson

Background Information:

The Louisiana Annual Conference health insurance program is a self-funded program administered through the Conference Board of Pensions. The Board of Pensions receives the insurance information necessary to their setting of premiums late in the fall, after many of the Charge Conferences have been held. In order for the District Superintendents to cover the many Charge Conferences, they must begin earlier than the information is available regarding health insurance premiums.

The Insurance underwriters must have as much loss data as possible from the current calendar year in order to set the premiums for the following year. Ideally, the underwriters would like to wait until November 30 of each year to acquire information and make the premium projection. A minimum amount of time the underwriters will give is through September of each year so that they have a full $\frac{3}{4}$ of a year represented.

Every full-time charge in the Louisiana Annual Conference currently is assessed an equal amount for the health insurance premium. The program covers the clergy family.

The concern from the one who raised the question of law is that those who are serving minimum salary appointments often experience the increase in health insurance premiums to substitute for any other monetary raise. When the increase is not known until after the compensation package has been set by the Charge Conference, it often leads to a rescinding of any compensation that would add to the “spendable” salary compensation.

Respectfully submitted,

William W. Hutchinson

Bishop Hutchinson thanked Buzzy Anding for the great way he organized and presented the amendments. He then thanked Ben Mount, the Conference Chancellor, for his help with the Parliamentary procedures.

The session took a short recess.

Bishop Hutchinson led the Conference in prayer.

Rev. Roger Templeton presented the 3 Petitions.

Rev. Larry Norman presented Petition #1 on the subject of UMVIM Recognition and Awareness Day. Because the UMVIM is such a growing force in promoting the church, Christianity, and personal Christian Service, Petition #1 requested that the Annual Conference recommend to all local churches in the Conference:

1. That the 3rd Sunday in September is recommended to be set aside and declared Volunteers in Mission Awareness Day; and

2. That each local church with assistance of the conference UMVIM leadership, provide for UMVIM displays, information resources, solicit individual or group testimonies and/or develop other ways to celebrate the UMVIM movement in whatever fashion that best suits the local congregation; and
3. That local churches draw upon the available resources of the Conference UMVIM coordinator to help make the day memorable, one of faith in action; and
4. That an offering be taken on the designated UMVIM Awareness Sunday to support the Conference and Jurisdictional UMVIM offices and programs.

A motion to amend the amendment is made to Petition #1 item 4 that the word optional be added in front of offering and tithe be deleted. The maker of the amendment accepted the changes. Speeches were made for and against the petition. The petition was voted on and carried.

Petition #2 presented by William Catchings, Jr. was on the subject of Building Better United Methodist Buildings. Because of the harsh climate The United Methodist churches in Louisiana face and because of the need to spend more money on missions and ministry and less on maintenance costs, Petition #2 requests that the Louisiana Conference: In order to provide guidance for future construction, the presiding bishop and appointive cabinet shall form a working group whose function shall be to research and make recommendations regarding building materials, construction technology and practices, with the aid of the Louisiana State Fire Marshal's Office. Upon approval of the working group's recommendations, all United Methodist building and remodeling projects within the Louisiana Annual Conference shall be required to comply with these recommendations.

The maker of the petition offered the following changes be made so the last paragraph reads, "Be it also resolved that upon approval of the working groups' recommendations by the Louisiana Annual Conference, all United Methodist building and remodeling projects within the Louisiana Annual Conference shall use these recommendations on all such projects starting from the date the recommendations are approved." Speeches were made for and against the petition. The petition was voted on and failed.

Petition #3 presented by Rev. Richard C. Hooton proposed a re-evaluation of medical insurance assessments for churches served by full-time pastors because there is a huge discrepancy between the percent of salary required to provide medical insurance for the highest paid pastors and the lowest paid pastors and because that discrepancy is in direct contradiction to providing equitable compensation.

No changes were made to Petition #3. It was voted on and carried.

Bishop Hutchinson made announcements.

Dr. Terrel DeVille gave the report of the Children's Home. He referred the Conference to the brochure entitled "Pathways". He stated that the new home in Southwest Louisiana would open within a year. He stated that the Oak Park congregation, under the leadership of Rev. Shawn Hornsby and Rev. Steve Spurlock, District Superintendent of the Lake Charles district, established the Oak Park Memorial Endowment Fund that has been placed with the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation. The amount of that grant starts at $70,000. It is an open fund and anyone can add to it. The interest income will support the ministry of care to be offered at the Methodist Children's Home in southwest Louisiana. He also stated that the Children's Home in Pennsylvania started their capital campaign to raise between $9 and $12 million to rebuild their home. They committed ten percent to the New Orleans entity so they can find a permanent location and start the process of permanently relocating.

Dr. Robert Potter gave the report of the Retired Minister's Homes Board. He referenced page 17 of the Pre-Conference Report. He noted one correction to the report. The bottom of the second paragraph lists the vacant homes. The home in Ponchatoula is no longer vacant. He mentioned that there was an offering to be taken.

Bennie Vaughn thanked those who planned the 2009 New Orleans Annual Conference and reminded the Annual Conference of the invitation to bring the 2010 Annual Conference back to Shreveport to Centenary College. The Conference accepted that invitation.

Bishop Hutchinson stated, "Next year when we gather, I pray there will be accounting that says we gained membership in the Louisiana Annual Conference. I pray that even if we aren't able to say we gained in membership we certainly gained in worship attendance. Then at least we're getting them in the door so they are able to be touched by the Christ."

Bishop Hutchinson fixed the appointments as listed in the "Louisiana Right Now."

The Service of Sending Forth and Deconsecrating of Space, led by Rev. Cory Sparks, adjourned the 2009 Louisiana Annual Conference.

Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. An "aye" or "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by signed ballot. RULE 13. VOTE BY ORDER:

The ministerial and lay members shall deliberate as one body; but upon a call, by motion of any member, seconded by another member of the same order and supported by one-third (1/3) of the members of that order voting, the ministerial and lay members shall vote separately. But when the Conference votes by orders, no measure shall be passed without the concurrence of a majority of both classes of members. In cases of such a vote the order calling it shall vote first; provided, however, that the Conference may not vote by orders on a proposed amendment to the Constitution. (2008 Book of Discipline ¶ 59-61)

RULE 14. MOTION FOR ADOPTION OF REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS, UNNECESSARY:

Whenever a report of a committee, signed by the chairperson and secretary thereof, and otherwise in compliance with the General Rules of this Annual Conference shall be presented to the Conference for its action, it shall be deemed in proper order for consideration by the Conference without the formality of a motion to adopt, and a second thereto.

RULE 15. REQUIRED FORMS FOR REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS:

All resolutions and committee reports shall be presented in triplicate; and, when requested by the secretary, motions, including amendments, shall be presented in writing.

RULE 16. ALTERATIONS OF MOTIONS, ETC.:

When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a committee report is read, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Conference, and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.

In order to provide an efficient manner to inform the Annual Conference of any intention to introduce changes, deletions, or additions to the printed CFA recommended budget, such intentions must be provided in writing to CFA no later than two weeks prior to the opening of Annual Conference.

The presenter of the budget amendment shall introduce the amendment during the "Introduction of New Business" on the day of Annual Conference. In addition, the presenter shall provide sufficient copies of the Budget Amendment Form* to distribute to the Annual Conference in accordance with conference rules. All proposed budget amendments shall be presented to the conference for deliberation when CFA presents the printed budget for adoption. At this time, the Chairperson of CFA shall state CFA's response to the budget amendments received. No additional budget amendments will be accepted from the floor without the Annual Conference suspending this conference rule.

* A Budget Amendment Form can be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's office and must be returned to the Chairperson of CFA by the above deadline. The required form shall identify, (1) the person, church, or agency making the proposal; (2) the Report Number in the CFA proposed budget; (3) the line item proposed to be changed, deleted, or added; (4) the proposed dollar amount adjustment to the line item, and (5) the basis for which such proposed adjustment is being made.

RULE 17. UNDEBATABLE MOTIONS:

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally
2. To suspend the rules
3. To lay on the table
4. To take from the table
5. To call for the previous question
6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion
7. To limit or extend the limits of debate
8. To call for the orders of the day
9. To alter voting procedure
10. To divide the question (if objection by a delegate is made).

RULE 18. RIGHTS OF THE MAIN QUESTION:

The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit or refer, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider. No new motion, resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of. The foregoing does not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

RULE 19. PRECEDENCE OF SECONDARY MOTIONS:

If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
2. To adjourn
3. To take recess
4. To order the previous question
5. To lay on the table
6. To limit or extend the limits of debate
7. To postpone to a given time
8. To commit or refer
9. To amend or to substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment)
10. To postpone indefinitely

RULE 20. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS:

No motion, which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

RULE 21. REFERRING REPORTS, ETC.:

It shall be in order for the Conference to refer to a committee a section or a part of a report or resolution, which is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

RULE 22. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF SUBSTITUTES:

When a resolution or committee report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments thereto are pending, a substitute therefore may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report or resolution under consideration. The Conference shall then proceed first to perfect the original report or resolution, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report or resolution; provided, however, that the motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two (2) members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

RULE 23. PREVIOUS QUESTION:

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If he/she does not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and voting for its adoption; and if it is accepted, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate.

RULE 24. MOTION AFTER SPEECH:

It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

RULE 25. EXCEPTIONS TO MAJORITY VOTE:

A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

1. One-third (1/3) of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the chair is doubted. A tie vote sustains the chair.
2. A call for a vote by orders shall prevail if sustained by one-third (1/3) of the members of the order from which the call came, present and voting.
3. A two-thirds (2/3) vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend or amend the rules; to sustain a motion for the previous question; to set aside a special order; to consider a special order before the time set therefor; to sustain the request of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges for the presentation of any person on the final day of the Annual Conference.

RULE 26. RECONSIDERATION:

A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

RULE 27. CALENDARS, REGULAR AND NON-CONCURRENCE:

The Secretary shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day and of reports of committees, which record shall be called the Calendar, and the matter of business placed on it shall be considered as recommended by the Committee on Agenda (the Cabinet) to the Conference, unless by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference an item is taken out of its order.

When a committee presents a report on a given subject, as part of its report, it must also list the numbers of all petitions relating to this subject on which the committee voted non-concurrence.

RULE 28. MOTION TO ADJOURN IN ORDER EXCEPT:

The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except:

1. When a member has the floor.
2. When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
3. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
4. When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened.
5. When the motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending.

The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the Conference.

RULE 29. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST:

When the report of a subject is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer to ascertain, when he/she recognizes a member of the Conference, on which side he/she proposes to speak; and he/she shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.

Except for undebatable motions, no motion shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the said proposal, provided that right is claimed before the chairperson or duly authorized member representing the committee's report or the minority report, if there be such, has been recognized by the presiding officer to close the debate.

When all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairperson and/or duly authorized member or members presenting a committee's report (and a minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right of the chairperson and/or other member or members to close the debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of five minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the report under consideration; provided, that this five minute limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a minority report for a regular (majority) report of a committee.

RULE 30. EFFECTIVE DATE:

All actions of the Annual Conference shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the session of the Annual Conference at which they are enacted, unless otherwise specified, except as provided otherwise in the Discipline.

RULE 31. SUSPENSION OF RULES:

The operation of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference.

RULE 32. ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY:

In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by these Rules of Order, the Annual Conference shall be governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules.

(For previous year's individual Memoirs, you can go to the Louisiana Annual Conference website (www.la-umc.org) and click on Clergy and then click on Memoirs.)

AMMERNEE ARMWOOD BERRY SEPTEMBER 22, 1928 – FEBRUARY 4, 2009

GOD called Ammernee Armwood Berry home on Wednesday afternoon, February 4, 2009 at her home in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

She was the youngest of 7 children, born in Zachary, Louisiana. Her husband, Rev. E. L. Berry, parents Sherman and LouAnn Armwood, five brothers, and one sister preceded her in death.

She was educated in the East Baton Rouge Parish School System. She was a Beautician by trade. She was a devoted wife and mother. She worked diligently side-by-side with her husband in the church. As a minister's wife, she not only worked with the different committees in the church, she played the piano and directed the choir(s) for the churches they served that did not have a musician. Most of all, Ammernee was a woman of God and had no problem telling the world about the Good News of Jesus Christ.

She is survived by a loving daughter, Y. B. Nobles; a grandson, Charles Nobles, III; a son-in-law, Charles Nobles, Jr. and a host of relatives and friends.

She was loved very much by her family and friends. She will be terribly missed.

BURTON FRANKLIN BLAIR FEBRUARY 26, 1943 – NOVEMBER 25, 2008

My father, Burton Franklin Blair, was born February 26, 1943 in Centreville, Mississippi to Jesse Franklin Blair and Ella Mae White Blair. He grew up in Rayne, Louisiana and graduated from Lafayette High School. He answered the call to preach at age 19 and discovered his love of preaching God's word. He obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Religion and Philosophy from the University of Southern Mississippi. After graduating from college, he went to seminary in Atlanta, Georgia and graduated with a Master of Divinity Degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University. He received his Doctorate in Homiletics at St. Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, Missouri. He also served as a Chaplain in the US Army Reserves for 14 years with the rank of Major.

My father was a phenomenal and outstanding man! First and foremost he had a larger than life personality and a great sense of humor. He was an absolute, unique “living character” one of whom you never forgot once you met him.

He was a prankster who always connected and ministered through laughter. He had an infectious laugh and would be so overcome with laughter at times that he would turn red and lose his breath.

Dad was the absolute example of love, sincerity, acceptance, and compassion that each of us aspired to be. For him it was love of God and love of family that was going to sustain you, support you, and carry you through the difficult times. It was not important to him what “things” he left behind, but rather, it was the love he shared. He showed his “boys” the importance of being a loving and caring spouse in how he doted on and loved our mother, Ginger. He adored her and immensely enjoyed “picking” on her. Even though she feigned annoyance, she loved every minute of it! Dad was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, and brother. There was no greater joy than being his grandchildren’s “Poppy” or his children’s “Dad” or “Pop.” He was a wonderful role model for his three sons and his grandchildren.

Dad had a passionate love and respect for all music. Later in life, he focused on the Blues and became an aficionado of the blues. He had an enormous gift of oration and was an exceptional preacher. He deeply cared for his congregations (having served churches in Mississippi, Georgia and Louisiana). He was able to empathetically connect to the people in his congregation by using the experiences, joys, sorrows and struggles in his own life. He was not just a pastor, but he was also a human being with human experiences and frailties. He took seriously his calling of being God’s instrument and to tell the Truth – a Truth that was sometimes difficult and challenging. He was a glass half full kind of preacher, father, husband, brother, and friend. He was a voracious reader and a gifted writer (having written 3 books). He would pull from many sources for his sermons whether it was a book he was reading, a movie, a philosopher or a comic strip. Regardless of the source, he always conveyed the message in a simple, direct, and easily understood way. The message was always a simple one –God loves you!! You are not alone!!

Our father, Burton Blair, died on November 25, 2008, after a valiant battle with cancer. He had lovingly and faithfully served in the United Methodist Church for 43 years. He died a day before my parents’ 43rd wedding anniversary. He is survived by his best friend and soul mate, Ginger Dreher Blair; three sons, Dietrich S. Blair, Eric S. Blair and Christopher Emil Blair and fiancé Carmin Horn; two grandchildren, Ava and Jack Blair; and a sister, Michelle Paudyal.

Rest well, Dad, in God’s loving arms.

Dietrich Blair, Your Loving Son

VERNA LUSK BUELL
JUNE 30, 1923 - DECEMBER 9, 2008

ROBERT CROSSLEY (BOB) CARTER
JUNE 30, 1914 – MARCH 10, 2009

Born in 1914 and raised in New Orleans, Bob Carter was a lifelong learner, a diligent gardener and skilled in the workshop as well as a pastor. He graduated from Tulane University and received his divinity degree from Emory University. He was appointed to circuits of small Methodist churches in rural Georgia and North Carolina in the 1940's. He married Mildred Siceloff in 1945, with whom he was a partner in ministry until her death in 1979. They moved to Louisiana in 1949 and continued in "town and country" ministry in and around Covington and Eunice. His final and only urban appointment was North Baton Rouge UMC in 1969. Bob's congregations knew him for his attentive pastoral care, sound business management, and community involvement. The larger United Methodist community in Louisiana knew him for his quiet integrity, peacemaking, and leadership in social and racial justice.

In 27 years of retirement he continued to live a life of both energetic activity and deep simplicity and frugality in the tradition of John Wesley, going about doing all the good he could in his extended family and through the many causes and ministries he supported with his time, as well as financially. He was a servant leader for many years at St. Mark's UMC in New Orleans. After moving to Austin in 1995, he joined another reconciling congregation, Trinity United Methodist Church. He was also a helper and true neighbor in his apartment community, where he tended a small unofficial garden in his corner of the courtyard. After a fall and serious fractures in 2005, he lived in the homes of his sons Bill and then David, at last accepting the caretaking he had given to so many.

One of his poems has been used as an Easter reading for several years at Trinity UMC:

Love, through light
and water
Prods earth-shrouded roots to send the resurrection power into bare limbs
Shouting out in multi-hued profusion
"Behold! All things made new."

"Brother Bob" closed his retirement address to Louisiana Annual Conference in 1979 with a story from his early ministry in rural Georgia. He was leading a funeral procession toward the graveyard when he noticed he was alone. He looked back and saw that the family had stopped and propped the casket against a tree and were taking a last set of family portraits with the deceased. In retirement, Bob said, he wasn't looking back any more.

Mae Etta Castain was born on June 22, 1902 in Waco, Texas. She died in her sleep on November 11, 2008, at St. John's Retirement Village, Stollwood Convalescent Hospital, in Davis, California at the age of 106. Her husband, Rev. Cammie Eldridge Castain, preceded her in death.

Rev. Castain served churches in Monroe, Houma, Plaquemine, Alexandria, Leesville, Booneville, Natchitoches and Bogalusa, Louisiana. While Mrs. Castain lived in Alexandria, she was active in the Retired Teachers Association. She helped organize Church Women United and was active in United Methodist Women after The United Methodist Church was integrated in 1968. She assisted in the creation of Friendship House for Senior Citizens and she served on the Executive Board of Girl Scouts of America in Alexandria.

Mrs. Castain was an elementary school teacher and active United Methodist Church volunteer. She fought for equal rights with other black teachers in Plaquemine in the NAACP's national "Equal Pay for Work" lawsuit in the mid-1940's with attorney Thurgood Marshall. She was fired for her activism and vowed not to teach again.

The NAACP won the lawsuits for teachers in several states as an important civil rights victory for black teachers across the nation under Marshall's leadership, which inspired Mrs. Castain to start teaching again after her husband was transferred to preach at a church in Alexandria, where he served until his retirement in 1967.

In 1982, she began the second half of her retirement by moving to Davis, California to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Corrine and Joe Singleton. There, she was a member of Davis United Methodist Church, the Worship Commission, the Membership Care Commission and other church committees. She remained active at the Retirement Village, where she resided after her 100th birthday. She enjoyed working out with barbells, enjoyed the many games and social activities, going to barbecues at the Yolo County Fairgrounds, and remaining active in Bible study at the Center.

Mrs. Castain was much loved by family and friends, and she will be missed.

JOHN DAVID CORLEY MARCH 19, 1927 – NOVEMBER 25, 2008

“...I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.”

Dave was born in a Methodist parsonage in Jena, Louisiana, on March 19, 1927, the last of twelve children born to Rev. E.W. Corley and wife Mary Pauline Chevallier Corley.

Dave was raised in Louisiana Methodist parsonages during the depression years and graduated from Walker High School. Immediately following his graduation, Dave enlisted in the United States Army, proudly serving in World War II in the 32nd Infantry Division stationed in Luzon, Phillippines and in occupational duty in Japan. Following the war, Dave held several jobs, one of which was working with his brother Guy at a radio station in Yazoo City, Mississippi. It was providential that a young lady named Beth Chapman came to that station to sing on the “Baptist Hour” radio show, and Dave declared to his brother that she would be the girl he would marry. A year later, this statement became true and he married Beth, whom he called “the love of his life”.

Beth’s musical talent was used in God’s service, as she would serve in numerous musical capacities at each church she and Dave were appointed. Dave received his license to preach and served Canton Northside Methodist Church in Mississippi while attending Milsaps College. He and Beth moved to Louisiana, where he completed his college education at Northeast Louisiana University. Dave received his theological training at SMU, Perkins School of Theology in Dallas. He became a Probationary Member of the Louisiana Methodist Conference in 1959, became a Deacon in 1961, and an Elder in 1963.

During the time in which he worked diligently on the completion of his education, Dave suffered the most painful loss of his lifetime. Johnny David Corley, Jr., Dave and Beth’s five-year-old son, died of leukemia in October of 1961. He later said that it “almost killed him” to leave his wife and gravely ill child alone while he commuted to and from SMU, but he was true to his calling.

Through the years, Dave touched many lives as a Big Brother in Alcoholics Anonymous, a third degree Mason and past Grand Chaplain of the Masonic Lodge of Louisiana, and a Shriner. He loved the outdoors and enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, and watching and feeding hummingbirds. His family was dear to him, and he was able to spend his last days at home surrounded by those whom he loved.

His pastorates include Canton Northside in Mississippi; and in Louisiana, Fairbanks/Bartholomew, Choudrant/Douglas, Farmerville, Trinity (Alexandria), Tallulah, Ponchatoula/Lee's Landing/Wesley Chapel, Coushatta, Winnsboro, and Zachary. Dave retired from the ministry in 1989 after thirty-five years of faithful service.

His life was completed at home on November 25, 2008, following almost a year's struggle with congestive heart failure. A service was held on November 28, 2008, at Zachary United Methodist Church with many friends and former church members in attendance. Clergy members participating in the service included Dr. Pat Ginn, Rev. Bob Lawton, and Rev. Jimmy Parker, all close friends of Dave and Beth.

He is preceded in death by his son, Johnny David Corley, Jr.; six brothers and sisters including Marvin H. Corley, a former Louisiana Methodist pastor; and a granddaughter, Grace Corley Ridenour. Dave is survived by his wife and partner in ministry, Beth Chapman Corley; a sister, Ruby Cloyd of Dallas; a daughter, Betsy Corley Storey and her husband David Storey of Lafayette; a son, Bill Corley and his wife Marla Galster Corley of Denham Springs; and his only grandchild, Elizabeth Miller, who meant the world to him.

"The best of all, God is with us." (John Wesley)

BETTY LOU PERKINS DAVIS JANUARY 8, 1927 – JUNE 2, 2008

Betty Lou Perkins Davis died June 2, 2008 at the age of 81. She was the wife of the late Rev. M.L. Davis, Sr.; Mother of Betty Lounette Verbois, the late M.L. Davis, Jr., and the late Randall Mark Davis; Grandmother of Mark Verbois, Mandy Verbois Plauche, M.L. Davis III (Trey), Sunny Davis and Laura Davis; and Great Grandmother of Jordan Davis. She was stepmother of Katie Lou Davis Farmer.

Bett, as known by all her friends and family, never walked after an automobile accident in 1957. She had 19 surgeries on her knees and legs, but never complained. She would smile and say, "I feel pretty good."

She was a faithful church member and loved to open her home to members of the church, day or night. She loved to cook and was a lover of plants, roses, and butterflies. She kept herself busy by sewing, knitting, coin collecting, and making Christmas ornaments. She believed if she was busy then her mind was off her pain. She would never complain. If she heard family in a heated argument, she would always say, “It’s nice weather we’re having” and that meant to change the subject. Ha!

She was my heart and life. We spent every day together. Now she is my heavenly angel. I loved her dearly.

JOE VERNON GRABER JULY 15, 1935 – JANUARY 21, 2009

Joe Graber was born in Watertown, Tennessee, the middle son of a Southern Baptist preacher. As an itinerate preacher his home was never more than a few years in any one place around the hills of Kentucky and Tennessee. Eventually his family settled for his teenage years in Ashland, Kentucky where his parents would live until they died. The richness of those hills fed his desire for aesthetic beauty, while the caring wisdom and love of God helped shape both his desire to learn a little bit about everything and everyone. In his early years he followed in his father’s footsteps and was ordained in a little Baptist Church as a Youth Evangelist. His questioning heart led him to a relationship first with the world of Theater Arts and later to build a spiritual foundation within the United Methodist Church.

He received his Bachelor from Georgetown College Kentucky; Masters of Fine Arts from Case Western Reserve. His accomplishments in the fine arts include: Managing Director Shreveport Symphony; Organizer (with Tom Chaney) Horse Cave Repertory Company; Professor at Centenary College, Union University; University of W. Virginia; and Simpson College, where he became Chairman of the Theater Department and later chief Fundraiser for the College. This exhausting schedule of pursuits left him eventually burnt out by the hectic schedule. He then returned to Shreveport, studied for and then received his certification in Group Life and Health Insurance, and other certifications leading to his becoming a chartered Financial Consultant, Chartered Life Underwriter and a Vice President of AMI Insurance. In other pursuits Joe never lost his love for the arts and music. In fact this love was central to his meeting and marrying his wife, Cindy. He also chaired the St. Francis Group at the KOALA Club for 20 plus years investing time, money and energy in the recovery process of individuals with addiction issues.

Joe died in Harlingen, Texas and was preceded in death by his parents George G. and Virginia Graber, his granddaughter Rachael Jean Katz and soon afterwards his brother Garnel “Gene” Graber. He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Rev. Cindy M. Graber; Gene’s wife, Judi; his brother Glen Graber and his wife Caroline; his children, Linda M. Graber, John W. Graber and wife Mary, Mandy W. Katz and husband Ray; granddaughter Erika K. McBee and husband James; Grandson William Graber and great-grandson Jakob Mcbee.

BARBARA SCOTT HARES

AUGUST 23, 1929 – MAY 15, 2009

Barbara Scott Hares was born Barbara Ellen McKeivier on August 23, 1929, in Wisner, Louisiana. She is survived by her children Larry Scott, Cynthia Scott Davis and her husband Sid, Carol Scott Elliott and her husband Ron, her grandchildren Anna and Emily Elliott, and Taylor and his wife, Liz, Meredith, and Peyton Davis. Also by four step-children, 4 step-grandchildren, and 1 step-great grandchild.

Leon Scott was a farmer in the Wisner community. One evening he outbid everyone to buy the cake Barbara had brought to the church fundraiser. Walking over to her with the cake in his hands, Leon said "I'll trade you this cake plate for a date." Soon after, Barbara and Leon married. Barbara's future was set. She would be a small-town matron and farmer's wife.

God's plan for Leon included an unexpected mid-life call to ministry. Barbara did not merely tolerate the seven required years of higher education; she thrived in them, making many new friends. Many a person called to ministry in midlife lives with an unhappy spouse. Barbara did not merely tolerate her new role as "the preacher's wife", she loved it, singing in the choir, doing Leon's secretarial work and helping him with pastoral work.

It was while they were serving Leesville that Leon died a sudden and untimely death. Barbara decided to move to Shreveport to live in one of the Retired Minister's Homes. Made confident by her volunteer secretarial work in the churches she and Leon served, Barbara applied for and was hired as the Shreveport District Secretary. She joined Noel UMC where she sang in the choir and was a member of the Couples Class.

In 1992 Barbara moved to Dallas to become the administrative assistant to Ray Branton, the executive officer for the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. One morning at work Barbara told Ray she was going on her first date since Leon had died. Jim Hares, retired minister and widower from the North Texas Conference had called. The two families had known each other previously because Cindy and one of the Hares daughters were roommates at Centenary.

Barbara and Jim were married in May 1993. They traveled the world for 10 years. After the stroke, which later led to Jim's death, Barbara moved back to Shreveport where the support of family, church, and friends meant everything to her.

Barbara's grandchildren saw her from a different perspective. She was "the grandmother who came to everything." When they called, she came. They would also visit the one they called "Nanny". They observed a strict TV schedule at Nanny's: Golden Girls, Designing Women, and Dallas. They were free to play with her makeup - that is until Peyton ate it. When she would visit her family in Houston she would tell them she would arrive at a specific time. Almost without fail, she would stop at their front door at the chosen time. Nanny was an expert wrestler. Not an arm wrestler, a wrestler. They all agreed, "Nanny could take you down. She just knew how to do it." Perhaps her son-in-law Ron Elliott summed it up best. "The longer I knew my mother-in-law, the more I loved her."

Barbara loved working in the Noel Food Pantry, working with the group of ladies who put together the Noel NOW, knitting prayer shawls, and her Sunday school class. She also loved volunteering each year at the Red River Revel.

Barbara's children want to thank Ray Branton for a fabulous eulogy given in celebration of their mother.

SHELA GAMBRELL LEIDIG DECEMBER 29, 1936 – AUGUST 11, 2008

We experience God's grace in many ways in our lives, but so many times we are too caught up in our problems or just life in general to acknowledge when we do. This memoir for Shela is to acknowledge how God graced our lives and her in particular when cancer came calling.

In 2003 she was diagnosed with a cancer which was contained in the lung. The doctor started a vigorous treatment and we started a vigorous prayer time on her behalf. With about two months left in the treatment, the doctor told us that there was no more cancer in the lung, to which Shela replied, "I know." The doctor looked at her and asked how she knew. To which she replied, "You are not the only doctor on this case, and Dr. God already assured me everything was alright." She continued with the treatment protocol as recommended and was eventually released. She remained cancer free for five years, praise God.

Then quietly and silently the cancer returned and slipping under the doctor's radar invaded her whole body. After being unable to successfully treat a diagnosed case of pneumonia, she was admitted to the hospital and after x-rays and other test the cancer was found and a prognosis of six months was given to us. Three days after admittance to the hospital Shela began to experience intense pain in her back. The doctor was unable to help the pain to any degree without the use of morphine which Shela refused because she was allergic to it. On day four of her hospital stay, the doctor talked to me and told me that this cancer was so aggressive Shela had only four days at the most. Shela and I talked over the situation and knew that without God's help two things were a given: one, she was going to be in intense pain or knocked out on drugs, and two, she was not coming home. So, we prayed. We asked God for some relief. If it was His plan for her to stay here, then we just asked God to direct the doctors in her pain management. If it was His will that she leave this earth, we asked for a quick release from this dreaded thing that was ravishing her body. Her doctor came in that evening and said he was going to give her something to help her sleep. He said the medicine was only going to be in her body for six hours and after that time they would re-evaluate what medicines to give. Shela went to sleep and slept for a little over 48 hours until she went home to be with the God of grace on Tuesday morning, August 12, 2008. Our prayer for you is that you may also come to know and experience the God of grace as we have.

SNOWDRY PROTHRO LONDON SEPTEMBER 23, 1926 – JULY 16, 2008

This was quite a woman, Snowdry London. She had a tremendous spirit, resolve and appreciation for all aspects of life. Her story is a wonderful affirmation of the gift of life. “Snow’s” story begins in the small town of Griffin, Georgia. She was born of Mary Westmoreland and Hillard Prothro.

A favorite family pastime was listening to Snow’s tales of growing up with a large family of thirteen brothers and sisters. She talked about being poor, but well off and about her parents being educated and owning their own land. Often, her stories assumed majestic proportions. Sometimes even the most matter of fact details contained an element of the mystical. From her childhood, she was taught to triumph over obstacles and always maintain a joy in living and a determination to share whatever advice, material things or time she had to share. She was “Granny” to everyone on Peniston Street where she lived more than forty years.

Snow had a thirst for learning and a deep love of reading. But her belief in the importance of learning extended even further. Education was a must for children and grandchildren (all of who are college graduates) and even for herself. She was always grateful that she finished college (Southern University, Baton Rouge); and she was proud of achieving her Masters in Education (Loyola University, New Orleans) even though her achievement had to wait until her children had become married adults. Later, she made a career for herself as a beloved student counselor at Delgado Community College in New Orleans where she stayed for many years.

Her Christian faith was always the center of her life. It was no surprise that she chose to marry a minister, William R. London, Jr. (deceased 1986). They shared two daughters, Maxine London Stewart, and Letitia Ann London-Shakir. Letitia died in 2000.

Everyone who met Snow knew that she loved people. It was always apparent. She showered us with an extravagance of warmth that was heartfelt and steadfast. She was quick to dispense advice and wisdom (whether you wanted it at the time or not) with the patient expectation that we might one day grow into beings who demonstrated the strength of character and appreciation for hard work, which she believed so important.

Finally, we'll all remember that Miss Snow loved putting on a show. The family kitchen, a relative's living room, or a friend's back porch, became her stage. If there was a crowd, she had laughter and verve. If there was New Orleans Jazz she had a snap of her fingers and placed her hands on her hips. Above all, there was always kindness. This was the refrain that she danced to the most and where she found the greatest joy.

Snowdry is survived by daughter Maxine London Stewart, son-in-law Perry Stewart and their two daughters, Allisen Berkley Stewart and Ashley Brooke Stewart. Her daughter Letitia Shakir's three children, Najah Shakir, Ahmad Shakir and Khadijah Shakir-Hankton; one remaining sister, Ruby Turnipseed; three great-grandchildren, Serenity, Khayree and Mahasin; and many nieces, nephews and very loyal and faithful friends.

She will be greatly missed and fondly remembered.

MARTHA LAW MORELAND APRIL 15, 1930 – AUGUST 24, 2008

Martha Law Moreland entered life's journey on April 15, 1930 in Mansfield, Louisiana. She completed the journey on August 24, 2008 in Kenosha, Wisconsin. She shared most of that journey with her husband, Rev. Byrl J. Moreland, Jr. Byrl and Martha met as students at Centenary College. They were both members of the Choir. Martha majored in Math Education and received her BS degree from that institution. She was a secondary Math and Art teacher for many years.

Martha had an infectious laugh and you always knew she was in the room. She loved the Lord and she loved serving in His church. She sang in the choir, taught Sunday school, Vacation Bible School and was active in the United Methodist Women. She was exceeded in her story telling ability only by Byrl and it was a joy to be around both of them.

Byrl and Martha raised two sons, Richard J. Moreland of Wild Rose, Louisiana and Robert B. Moreland, Ph.D. of Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin. Martha loved to tell "Ricky" and "Bob" stories to anyone who would sit and listen.

ISAAC ALPHONSO PATTON September 15, 1918 – September 17, 2008

Reverend Isaac Alphonso Patton was born in Pollack, Louisiana, September 15, 1918, the second son of the Reverend Isaac Aaron Patton and Birdie Mae Calk and the Grandson of the Reverend James Pryor Patton. After 90 years and two days God called Isaac home, September 17, 2008. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Velma Mae (June) Patton; son, Tommy Dawson Patton; daughter, Linda Susan Easterling; three grandchildren, Kimberly, Angela and Heather; three great-grandchildren, Caleb, William and Ashley.

In order to experience and treasure Isaac's wonderful Christian heritage, you must understand where it all began. The Patton name came from a Civil War veteran from Texas named James Pryor Patton. He and his two brothers were dismissed from the Southern Army after the war and were told to make their way home as best they could. They started down the Natchez Trace working for food and a place to stay. The brothers got to Vicksburg, Mississippi and crossed the river going back to Nacogdoches, Texas, where they were from.

In Louisiana they got lost and came to Mount Zion, Louisiana. There the brothers stopped at the home of Isaac Russell Strickland, where James asked to work for food and lodging. His brothers went on to Texas leaving him behind. Reverend Strickland's oldest daughter was home taking care of her father and over time he fell in love with Dolly Strickland and got married. James Pryor Patton was converted in the Methodist Protestant Church, was later called to preach, and became a state senator from his area. In time he was elected President of the Methodist Protestant Church of Louisiana.

To the union of James Pryor Patton and Dolly Strickland Patton was born four children: Emma, Elizabeth, Isaac Aaron and James Russell. Isaac Aaron Patton was also called to preach in the Methodist Church. Some of his earliest charges were on circuits which he went to on horseback or just walked, staying with folks in the communities where he preached. Isaac met and married Birdie Mae Calk and to their union were born Russell, Isaac Alphonso, Ruth, Thelma, Hazel, Marie, Lynn, Katheryn and Sarah.

Isaac Alphonso's youth was spent in West Monroe, Louisiana, where he went to Mitchell School and later Ouachita Parish High School. While there he was an all-state Tennis Star for Ouachita. After high school he went to work to help support his father and 2 younger sisters.

World War II came and he enlisted in the Navy in 1942. Sent to Corpus Christi, Texas, he met Velma Mae (June) Lockhart, fell in love and was married in 1943. He was shipped overseas where he served on the tanker, the USS Sea Foam. Isaac left the ship in 1945 at Tokyo Harbor, made his way back to New Orleans where he was discharged. He and June moved to West Monroe and there began life together.

In 1946 at the insistence of his father, Isaac Aaron Patton, he went to a revival and, as he put it, was converted, saved and born again in October 1946, the year son Tommy was born. He began preaching in a tent in 1947 by the Brown Paper Mill. Isaac quit his job at the Post Office and took June and his young son in an old worn out Ford to Asbury College, in Wilmore Kentucky, where he completed College and Seminary in 1952 with honors. During that time their daughter Linda Susan was born, and he called her his miracle child.

Isaac moved his family back to Louisiana where he began his ministry. His charges were Pioneer, 5 churches; Downsville, 3 churches; Stone Avenue, Monroe; Brownsville, West Monroe; and finally Sterlington, 3 churches. He retired in 1982 and moved back to Monroe. After retiring he continued to preach in small churches in the Monroe District. He “retired” again only to begin another 10 years as Minister of Visitation at Lea Joyner Memorial United Methodist Church, where he visited “Old Folks” until his death. In all Isaac preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ for over 63 years. His grandfather, James Pryor, his father Isaac Aaron, and Isaac gave over 150 years of service to God and the Methodist Church.

To quote my dad, “All of my family were believing Christians whom I look forward to seeing in heaven to be with Christ forever. I had a great life as a boy, had a great family. Two great heartaches in life: the death of my mother when I was 17 in 1933, and the death of our son David Wayne, still born in 1955. I have fought the good fight and am looking forward to heaven. Just living one day at a time”.

RICHARD ROBINSON DECEMBER 21, 1939 – NOVEMBER 22, 2008

“Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me: Your rod and Your staff they comfort me.” Psalm 23:4

Mr. Richard Robinson was born on December 21, 1939 in Pinckneyville, Mississippi to Elizabeth Robinson Stewart and Sinclair Gibbs. He received his early formal education in the public schools of Wilkerson County, Mississippi. He was baptized at an early age at the King Solomon Missionary Baptist Church by Rev. Allen Scott. As a young adult, Richard moved to New Orleans, Louisiana. In 2008, Richard placed his membership with Camphor Memorial United Methodist Church under the pastoral leadership of the Rev. Darlene A. Moore.

Richard regarded fatherhood as a blessing and privilege from the Lord. He faithfully nurtured and provided for his three children; Mikel, Mark, and Marcia. CHARLENE TURNER SNELLING NOVEMBER 6, 1929 – JUNE 14, 2008

A memorial service for Charlene Turner Snelling was held at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Monroe, on June 16, 2008. Charlene left this earth on June 14, 2008, after a long journey with Alzheimer's.

Raised in Philadelphia, Mississippi, she lived a life of joy with her family and friends. As a young child, Charlene discovered her gift for music. She began giving back to the community at an early age by playing the piano for the rotary and Kiwanis clubs, along with the church. While attending Ward Belmont College, she was invited to perform with the Nashville Symphony. She graduated from Louisiana State University with a degree in Music, then began a career as a flight attendant with World Airlines based out of New York.

Charlene married the love of her life, Murdock Snelling, in 1953. After having four children, she continued her education by completing a graduate degree in Piano Pedagogy from the Birmingham Southern University. Charlene taught piano for the next thirty years of her life. She will be forever remembered by her many students, young and old, as a wonderful example of God's grace in giving back. Her other interests included tennis. She was a founding member of the Ladies Wednesday Forsythe Tennis league, where she developed many treasured friendships. An active member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, she helped lead the children's music program and assisted in the worship services.

Charlene Turner Snelling was an amazing woman whose greatest gift was loving unconditionally. She ministered to all she touched regardless of their position in life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Reverend Murdock M. Snelling, and her son, Forrest Turner Snelling. Survivors include her children and their spouses: Renee and Bruce Kerr, Denise and Dr. John Hull and Allen and Judy Snelling and her grandchildren, Turner, Nellie and Eli Kerr, Keely Childress, and Aaron, Shea and Addison Snelling.

DR. EDWARD ROSCOE THOMAS
DECEMBER 27, 1916 – DECEMBER 2, 2008

Edward Roscoe Thomas was born December 27, 1916, on Hooper's Island. He was born at home because that was the way they delivered babies on the islands in the Chesapeake Bay. Hooper's Island did not have running water, electricity, or automobiles. The island was home to commercial fishermen, to an ice house, to a crabbing factory, and to a Methodist Church.

Ed had chores. He would keep firewood next to the stove and keep the lamps filled and the wicks trimmed. He loved the lamps, because he could read by the lamps. Ed loved reading. In the one room school house, Ed read all of the books. He even borrowed books from the teacher.

Ed graduated from a High School that had only 8 students, 4 boys and 4 girls. Ed wanted to go to college. Unfortunately he did not have the money to go to school. So Ed worked for 4 years to save up enough money. He was disappointed about the delay, but the delay made a difference in his life. In the freshman class of Western Maryland College was a beautiful young lady, named Louise Young. She had caught Ed's heart. It took Ed 5+ years to convince her to marry him and she finally did. As Ed would say, the 4 years delay in college was well worth the wait. He met his "soul mate". Ed and Louise were married in 1944.

As a young man, Ed wondered about what to do. Should he work with his Dad? Should he become a minister? So he decided to ask God to help. He wound his pocket watch and put it on the fireside mantel. He prayed, "Lord, if you want me to be a minister, stop my watch." He tried it two nights in a row. Strangely the watch did not stop. What went wrong? Why did God not stop his watch? Why? Because Ed realized that he was not testing God, but that God was testing him. Ed opened his heart and his life and dedicated his life to God.

Ed and Louise graduated from Western Maryland. Ed did his seminary work in Boston University of Theology and Louise graduated from Wellesley College in Astronomy.

Ed's first church was called Hillsgrove, near Providence, Rhode Island. Louise was still finishing up her master's degree at Wellesley. Ed was left alone during the week. Ed could not cook and there were no microwave ovens. So for supper Ed would take a can of soup over to a parishioner's house. He would ask, "Would you heat up this soup for me?" Do you know how many times he used the same can of soup? Ed loved people. He "never met a stranger".

Ed was sent a letter from a seminary friend about an assistant job in a church in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Ed and Louise searched their hearts and accepted. Louise's parents were not happy with the move, but Ed and Louise and new son, David, moved to Baton Rouge. Ed and Louise joined the Louisiana Conference. Louise was not a minister. She was the minister's wife and took on that job with love and faith. Together, they served. Ed was appointed to the following churches:

Denham Springs First United Methodist Church
 Hammond First United Methodist Church
 Minden First United Methodist Church
 Lake Vista United Methodist Church
 Natchitoches District as District Superintendent
 Ruston District as District Superintendent
 Broadmoor United Methodist Church

Ed loved his God. Ed loved the ministry, Ed loved Louise. Ed loved his family. Ed loved his church family. Ed and Louise faithfully and lovingly served the United Methodist Conference.

KIRBY A. VINING JULY 19, 1931 – JANUARY 20, 2009

Family and friends gathered January 24, 2009 at Trinity United Methodist Church, Ruston, Louisiana to celebrate the faith, life and ministry of Kirby A. Vining. That Saturday morning at 11:00 a. m., we celebrated Kirby's delightful sense of humor, his love for God and his love for the practice of ministry in the United Methodist tradition. Both laughter and tears are appropriate as we remembered "A Red Headed Faith!"

In the small community of Choudrant, Clarence and Elva Vining give birth to the seventh of their eight children July 19, 1931, naming him Kirby Ardis Vining. While a seminary student at Perkins School of Theology, Kirby served the Simsboro and Antioch congregations, June 1, 1952 through May 1955. There he met the love of his life, Jackie Lewis. Graduating Perkins, Kirby was assigned as Associate at Monroe, First. On August 10, 1955, Billy Pomeroy, Monroe, First Senior Pastor, joined Kirby and Jackie at the Antioch Church as they exchanged vows and entered into the covenant of Christian marriage. Three children will grace the Vining home: Karen, Michael, and Alice.

His ministry journey includes Berwick, 1957 – 1962; Leesville, First 1962 – 1966; Slidell, First 1966 – 1971; Minden, First 1971 – 1975; and Aurora 1975 – 1978; Superintendent of the Baton Rouge – Hammond District 1978 – 1982; back again into pastoral ministry at Monroe, First as Senior Pastor 1982 – 1986. Centenary College honored Kirby with the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1986. Kirby served as Superintendent of our Baton Rouge – Lafayette District 1986 – 1989. Realignment of District lines places Kirby as Superintendent of the Acadiana District 1989 – 1991; back again into pastoral ministry at Blackwater 1991 – 1994, retiring at the 1994 session of the Louisiana Conference with forty-one years of service in the itinerant ministry of the Church.

Yet retirement does not end ministry for Kirby. At the request of the Louisiana Resident Bishop and Cabinet, Kirby serves three interim appointments: Denham Springs, First; Farmerville; and Tallulah. The death of daughter Karen in a tragic automobile accident “saps” his strength and stamina.

A stroke makes his last years difficult but through it all, Jackie provides the very best of care, discovering the full meaning of these words: “for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health... till death do us part!” She keeps the promise witnessed by Billy Pomeroy and others August 10, 1955. For fifty-three plus years, Jackie encourages, prays and cares for this one who so loved ministry in our United Methodist tradition.

Now with Jackie, Michael, Alice and her husband Kenneth Leatherman and their son Wesley, the Louisiana Conference gives thanks for Kirby’s faith, life and witness!

JEFFERSON CARROLL (J.C.) WALLACE FEBRUARY 25, 1923 – JUNE 17, 2008

Jefferson Carroll (J.C.) Wallace was born on February 25, 1923 in Monroe, Louisiana to Carroll and Alice Wallace. He was the third of four children. He received his undergraduate degree from Northeast Louisiana State College, followed by his Master of Theology from Southern Methodist University. He served as Pastor at First Methodist Church in Allen, Texas while obtaining his degree from SMU. During his service to the United Methodist Church, Mr. Wallace was the minister at many Louisiana Conference churches, most notably at First Methodist Church of Berwick, Louisiana (where he oversaw the building of a new church); Christ United Methodist Church in Shreveport; First United Methodist Church, DeRidder, Louisiana and Ingleside United Methodist Church in Baton Rouge. He was loved and respected by those he served during his ministerial tenure. He was forced to leave the ministry due to a chronic voice illness during the late 1970’s. He then returned to his business background and owned his own business in Baton Rouge for approximately 12 years prior to retiring. He died June 17, 2008 following a lengthy illness. He is survived by his wife, Catherine P. Wallace of Monroe, Louisiana; his son, Greg Wallace of Douglasville, Georgia; and his daughter Melanie Wallace Frazier of Columbus, Mississippi.

GRACIE PROTHRO WATSON
MAY 30, 1917 – DECEMBER 7, 2008

Gracie Prothro Watson, 91, passed away in the presence of her family on December 7, 2008, after a long illness. A celebration of her life was held at December 28, 2008, at Grace United Methodist Church in Ruston, Louisiana.

Gracie spent over eighty years living in Louisiana. Born in Bryceland, Louisiana, on May 30, 1917, she was the youngest of eight children. She married Wilson Watson, who became a Methodist minister. While Wilson was in seminary, Gracie attended Southern Methodist University and graduated with straight A's as an English major. Gracie and her husband lived in numerous Louisiana towns, as the Methodist church sent them routinely to different parishes. She taught Sunday school and sang in the choir at each of the churches her husband pastored.

When Wilson died prematurely, Gracie returned to college and became an assistant librarian and was employed at Louisiana Tech University until she retired. Gracie had a perpetually positive outlook on life sprinkled with a vibrant youthfulness and a superb sense of humor. She continued to be active in the Methodist Church until the onset of her illness and sang in the church choir for over 30 years. She spent the final years of her life in Fairbanks, Alaska, where her only daughter and grandson reside.

Gracie touched and graced the lives of countless people. She had a formidable strength of spirit and, especially during her illness, a quiet grace that touched many of her caregivers. Until the end, she remained a beautiful woman inside and out. When she lost the ability to communicate well, her large deep blue eyes spoke for her.

We are all better for having spent time with Gracie. Either as friend or family, she brought out the best in us. She was dearly loved by her family and will be greatly missed.

Gracie is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Diane and Mac McLean of Fairbanks, Alaska; grandson, Thom McLean of Fairbanks, Alaska; granddaughter, Michelle Tvedt of Pasco, Washington; and great granddaughters, Allora and Meaghan Tvedt of Pasco, Washington.

Gracie was preceded in death by her parents, Rhoda Mae and Edward Lawson Prothro, and her seven siblings: E. L. Prothro, Gettis Prothro, Mrs. Glen Kitchens, Mrs. Cora Lee Dreher, Mrs. Edna Greer, Mrs. Sallie Powell, and Miss Alice Prothro.

Gracie was laid to rest in Forest Park Cemetery in Shreveport, Louisiana. The family suggests that donations be made in Gracie's memory to the Denali Center, 1510 19th Avenue, Fairbanks, Alaska 99701.

VIOLA MAE FLICKNER ZERGER
DECEMBER 18, 1925 – AUGUST 11, 2008

Viola Mae (Flickner) Zerger passed away Monday, August 11, at Wesley Towers. She was born to David and Lizzie (Grabber) Flickner on the family farm near Pretty Prairie, Kansas on December 18, 1925, fourth of eight children of that marriage.

Viola graduated from Springvale Elementary School and Pretty Prairie High School. She was christened and baptized in the Pretty Prairie Mennonite Church.

On April 8, 1947, Viola married Melvin D. Zerger of Moundridge, Kansas. The couple spent their early years together in the rural Moundridge area where three children were born to their union. About 1954 they moved to a farm east of Hutchinson and founded the Locust Grove Poultry Farm where they raised and processed turkeys. When fire destroyed the processing plant, the couple moved to South Hutchinson. The family moved many times during the ensuing years, to Arizona and then Florida before Melvin was called to the ministry. Their first charge was the Methodist Church in Trumble, Nebraska, in 1962. Many more moves followed over the next several years as they served churches in Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, and even Louisiana. Through all these travels Viola remained a devoted wife and mother.

After the children reached school age, she generally worked outside the home, often cooking at schools her children attended. Her baked goods, especially cinnamon rolls, were very popular at church sales and among neighborhood youngsters.

Declining health ultimately led Melvin and Viola back to Hutchinson and Wesley Towers where they enjoyed their final years. Despite failing eyesight, Viola struggled to maintain correspondence with widespread family and friends, her most valued possessions.

She is survived by her sister Florence (Flickner) Goering, Hutchinson, three sons, Bryce, Oklahoma City, Terry, Gunnison, Colorado, and David, Kansas City, Missouri, seven grandchildren, Peter, Maggie, Andrew, Robyn, Shelley, Jennifer, and Heather, and five great-grandchildren, Allison, Belah, Sophia, Jonathon, and Zachary.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The CFA and the Treasurer's offices are available to assist local church pastors and officials any way they can. If you wish further explanation of the Conference Budget or any specific apportionment within it, please call or write the Treasurer's office. Because Christ loves us, we reach out to others in His name. Our financial resources not only make possible ministry locally but also help make possible the broader ministry of Christ as we connect with all our United Methodist brothers and sisters to fulfill His Great Commission!

General Church Observances

2. The Council reminds all congregations of the importance of STEWARDSHIP in the life of all Christians. Christ calls His disciples to give as an act of worship of God. We are called to be stewards of all that God has given to us. Paragraph 630.5e of the 2008 Discipline lists among the responsibilities in the area of Stewardship of the Conference Board of Discipleship "To educate the local church that tithing is the minimum goal of giving in the United Methodist Church". CFA calls upon the Conference Ministry Team, the Conference Board of Discipleship, and the District Ministry Teams to consider methods of assisting our congregations in developing a process of education in a theology of stewardship. The intent of this request is to enhance the ministry of our local congregations, our members, and our Conference and world ministries.

3. The Council recommends a continued emphasis by all churches on Advance Specials, both General Advance and Conference specials. All churches are to pay in full their designated apportionments before appropriating funds for second-mile projects.
4. Each pastoral charge is asked to continue support of Mt. Sequoyah, the South Central Jurisdiction Conference and Retreat Center, with a goal of $35 per pastoral charge. Each district is to raise the amount based on the total number of charges in the district and mail it to the Conference Treasurer.
5. It is recommended that the Hancock Bank, Whitney National Bank, and J. P. Morgan Chase Bank be designated as the principal depositories for funds of the Louisiana Annual Conference. Other financial institutions may be used for interest-bearing accounts. Authority to open accounts is given to the Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer and the President of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Louisiana Conference. Authorized signatures on the accounts and deposit boxes are to be: Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer, designated representative(s) of the CFA, and the Senior Pastor of First UMC, Baton Rouge.
6. The Council has contracted with William E. DeLoach, Certified Public Accountant of Baton Rouge, to audit the books of the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer. The auditor's report for the year ending December 31, 2008, is included in the Treasurer's Report found in this report.
7. We recommend that the pastoral charge consider a vouchered amount of $7,200 for Pastor's Travel/Professional Expense and an amount of $7,200 for Utilities/Housing expense for each clergy.
8. We recommend that the local churches pay on the moving expenses of incoming clergy an amount up to $6,000. Churches are asked to budget this amount each year. Money not used for moving should be placed in an escrow account to assure such funds as needed. When the recommended amount is exceeded by the incoming clergy, that clergy should pay the additional costs.
9. We recommend that the Pastoral Charge pay the Travel, Housing and Meal expenses of its Annual Conference Members (Lay and Clergy) to attend the Annual Conference Session.
10. We remind the clergy of the Annual Conference who will move to another charge that they are to accept salary and expense only through the end of the conference year (May 31) from the charge they are presently serving except for Annual Conference expenses. The salary benefits and expenses paid at the new charge begin June 1.
11. The Council recommends that all clergy under appointment be compensated semi-monthly.
12. In order to comply with the federal income tax regulations, we recommend that the utilities and other housing expenses on the Conference Directors' residences and the district parsonages be considered a part of their cash compensation as "Housing Allowance."

2. All remittances for 2009 must be received by the Conference Treasurer's Office not later than January 7, 2010.
3. The Annual Conference grants permission to Centenary College and Dillard University to make an appeal for every church in the Conference to send a "paid student" to the institutions.
4. The Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer is authorized to pay $20,000 from the District Superintendents' Fund for expenses of Cabinet Meetings and up to $1,000 for telephone calls involving appointments. The Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer of the Conference is authorized to pay from the District Superintendent's Fund to the Pension Fund an amount for each District Superintendent to meet the General Board of Pension requirement.

5. We recommend that each district provide at least three-fourth time secretarial help for the District Superintendent from district budget funds. The Annual Conference requires that copies of the annual budget and audit for each district be mailed to the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer for the Council not later than April 15 following the previous fiscal year.
6. The compensation of all the District Superintendents shall be equal throughout the Conference. Since District Superintendents are appointed by the Bishop as officers of the Conference, their salary, travel expense, utilities allowance, housing allowance, professional expenses, and the Conference health insurance premium shall be paid by the Annual Conference. We recommend the following income be paid to the District Superintendents from the District Superintendents' Fund: Base Compensation for 2010, $80,916 (see Conference Rules for the rule concerning salary); utilities/furnishings - $7,200; an amount not to exceed $3,600 to be drawn by voucher and used for professional expenses to cover the expense of Ministers' Week, Bishops' Week, Annual Conference, Continuing Education and other expenses that the District Superintendent incurs in carrying out the responsibilities of the office. The Council shall provide an automobile travel reimbursement expense for each District Superintendent to be drawn by voucher at the current IRS standard mileage reimbursement rate from a total pooled budget of $88,375.
7. Each Council, Board, Commission, Committee, etc. of the Conference receiving funding from the Conference shall designate one person, other than the chairperson, as the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall keep for that board or agency a current record of financial transactions involving the budget receipts and expenditures for that body.

The Finance Officer shall receive all vouchers from members and shall approve and submit them to the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer. Vouchers must be specific, in detail, accompanied by the appropriate receipts, and must bear the signed approval of the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall in turn submit them to the Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer within three weeks. In order to assist the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer to close the books and set up books for a new fiscal year, all Finance Officers shall submit final vouchers of said board and agency by December 11, 2009.

OFFICIAL VOUCHER POLICY FOR CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES:

- Travel – Within the State of Louisiana – Travel Expense for Conference Boards and Agencies is set at a maximum of 25 cents per mile. When three or more members are traveling together, a maximum of 30 cents per mile will be paid. Regardless of the mode of travel used, the maximum of 25 cents per mile will still apply. Beyond the state, the most economical mode of travel must be used with this new provision: That an amount of $500 per year be the normal limit for reimbursable travel expense for members of Louisiana councils, boards, commissions and committees who reside outside the state boundaries to attend regular meetings of their conference agency. This limit applies to funds that come from conference line item budgets. A Conference agency may vote to increase this amount if the members choose to make an exception due to the specific need of participation by a particular member. This limit applies only to travel and not to per diem lodging and meal costs. Air travel must be supported by the air ticket stub.

- Lodging and Meals – Reimbursement for lodging expenses will be made for the actual amount of expenses incurred. Moderately priced hotel or motel accommodations are suggested. An itemized bill must accompany the request for reimbursement. Reimbursement will be made for meals for the actual expense incurred, but not for entertainment or room service. Any meals exceeding $5 must be supported by receipts. The maximum per diem for lodging and meals will be $80. Exceptions to the policy may be made only by the agency chairperson and Finance Officer.
8. All institutions and agencies receiving funds from the Annual Conference are required to submit a financial statement at the end of each calendar year. (See Conference Rules for Rule on Annual Audits.)
 9. A balance at the close of the year in the Conference Benevolence Budget of any conference board or agency will be placed in the Conference Benevolences Reserve for the next year. The Annual Conference shall continue to place in the Contingency Fund of the Annual Conference all interest from the invested funds of the different conference boards and agencies. The Council shall use the Investment Committee of the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation to assist in the investment of conference funds. The Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer and the President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall continue to serve on the Investment Committee of the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation. Local churches and conference institutions shall consider using the Foundation for the investment of their funds.
 10. We recommend that the Louisiana Annual Conference Wesley Foundations be given basic support by a decimal item to be apportioned to the churches of the Conference. Amounts of the funds to be given to each Wesley Foundation will be determined by the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. With approval of the appropriate District Superintendents and District Councils on Finance and Administration, local Wesley Foundations may solicit additional funding from churches within the District(s) nearest their geographic location. Should a local church give additional funds to the Wesley Foundation, they should not be accepted until it is verified that the church has paid 100% to the Wesley Foundation apportionment the previous year. Otherwise, the Wesley Foundation must give those funds to the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry as payment toward that church's apportionment. The Conference Treasurer will send to the campus ministers at the beginning of each New Year data showing each local church's financial record in their district for the previous year. A report must be made by the Wesley Foundation to the District Superintendent and the District Council on Finance and Administration of any churches giving such funds so as to assure 100% payment of the Wesley Foundation apportionments of the local church.

11. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration recommends the following procedure for selecting and continuing with a Conference property/liability insurance broker:

Brokers selection is to be based on accessibility, reputation, selection of carriers, cost of product and knowledge of product including United Methodist General Church Insurance. An Advisory/Search Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration will publicize through the Louisiana NOW when new opportunities or bidding on Conference insurance are available.

After a broker is selected, the broker will normally be retained for a minimum of three years. This term is considered beneficial because of the multi-faceted types of coverage necessary for a variety of persons, property and equipment. If the selected insurance broker's services are considered unsatisfactory or rates are considered excessive during a three-year cycle, the relationship may be terminated and the broker replaced.

The new selection procedure became effective January 1, 1995. This selection is to be utilized for each three-year cycle thereafter. The Advisory/Search Committee members will be the President of CFA; the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer, the Cabinet liaison to CFA; a representative of Conference Board of Trustees; and one other selected by the President of CFA.

12. The Council on Finance and Administration reminds all persons, clergy and lay, handling funds in local churches to adhere to Paragraph 258.16.4(f) of the 2008 The Book of Discipline which states:

“Contributions designated for specific causes and objects shall be promptly forwarded according to the intent of the donor and shall not be used for any other purpose.”

This reminder is made by CFA although local churches and institutions are presently and have always been responsible for the proper use of funds.

13. The Council reports the following special grants were approved for 2008 from the General Contingency Fund:

Independent Auditor's Report

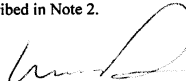

To the Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Louisiana Annual Conference
United Methodist Church
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

I have audited the accompanying statement of assets and net assets - cash basis of the Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2008, and the related statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net assets - cash basis for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

As described in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Louisiana Annual Conference prepares its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. This is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and net assets of the Louisiana Annual Conference as of December 31, 2008, and the changes in net assets for the year then ended in conformity with the basis of accounting as described in Note 2.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Notes to Financial Statements

For the year ended December 31, 2008

NOTE 1. Organization and Purpose

The Louisiana Annual Conference is an unincorporated organization of five hundred ten United Methodist churches located in Louisiana, and is one of sixty-three Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church in the United States. The Conference elects a Council on Finance and Administration whose purpose is to "develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Conference. The Conference and therefore the Council, cannot financially obligate any organizational unit of the United Methodist Church except the Annual Conference itself."

NOTE 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Under the cash basis method of accounting, revenues are recognized when actually received rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. The financial statements are a summary of the cash and investment activity of the organization.

Source of Revenue & Recognition

Churches in the Louisiana Conference are required to remit their apportionments to the Conference to support the programs of the United Methodist Church. The apportionments are then allocated to the categories as required by the General Council on Finance and Administration and in turn remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration. Some cash receipts and disbursements that occur after year end are recorded as transactions of the prior year to which they apply. Consequently, cash balances reported as of year end are adjusted for subsequent receipts and disbursements that are applicable to the prior year.

Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference has adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under SFAS No. 117, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Income Taxes

The Conference is an organization of the United Methodist Church which is exempt from federal and state income tax and is not a private foundation.

NOTE 2. Property, Plant, and Equipment

The Conference's policy is to expense property, plant, and equipment at the date of acquisition which is a departure from generally accepted accounting principles. The property, plant, and equipment acquired by the Conference have not been capitalized and are not presented as a part of these financial statements.

Off Balance Sheet Assets

Non-cash gifts received such as estates and trusts are not recorded as assets until converted into cash.

Cash, Marketable Securities and Other Investments

Investments in marketable securities and other investments are recognized at current market value as determined by the financial markets as of year end. Investments include high grade corporate securities and U.S. Treasury securities with minimal risk and are not held for trading purposes. Investment income, investment expenses, realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded as a component of current revenues and expenses and are not separately reported. The organization considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Contributed Services

The Conference does not recognize any support, revenue or expense from services contributed by volunteers.

NOTE 3. Pension Plan

The Conference contributes to a defined benefit plan for clergy with service prior to 1982. The plan is administered by the General Board of Pensions. Total fair value of pension assets was $23,207,420. Total benefits paid was $2,870,193.

The Conference also contributes to a defined contribution pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions. The contributions for 2008 were as follows:

Conference staff and special ministries clergy	$ 217,578
Equitable compensation pension supplement	675
Conference laity staff pensions	36,767
Total Contributions	$ 255,020

Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 5. Concentration Risk

The Conference depends on support generated by the churches in the Louisiana Conference. Changing economic conditions that affect contributions from church memberships could impact the ministries and operations supported by the Conference.

The Conference maintains account balances in excess of FDIC insurance limits in the following accounts:

Hancock Bank	$375,700
Hancock Bank	488,199
Total	$863,899

The amount in excess of insurance limits is $363,899.

The Conference also maintains funds in a repurchase agreement sweep account maintained by Hancock Bank. Funds in excess of a certain balance in the account are swept into a repurchase account used to purchase United States treasury securities. The securities are held until needed by the Conference at which time Hancock Bank repurchases the securities from the account and places funds and earnings back into the account for use by the Conference. The account is not insured by the FDIC and are not guaranteed by the United States government or any of its agencies.

NOTE 6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 7. Storm Relief

Funds were raised by the Bishop's Appeal to temporarily support ministers and their families after their ministries were interrupted by the hurricanes. Funds were also raised to support the expense of clergy appointed to specific churches in the New Orleans metropolitan area that could not otherwise afford clergy staff.

NOTE 8. Contingent Liability

The Conference is a third party defendant in a lawsuit involving a local ministry. Legal counsel representing the Conference is of the opinion that the probability of a substantial loss to the Conference is very low. The outcome of the case cannot be determined at this time, but if the plaintiff should prevail, the estimated possible loss to the Conference should not be detrimental to the Conference's financial position or results of operations.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

REPORT I

I. PRE-1982 BENEFITS

We recommend:

- A. That the funded annuity rate for 2010 be $598.00 per service year. In 2009 it was $586 per service year. Benefits to surviving spouses of clergy shall be 75% of the annuity rate.
- B. That $450,000 be apportioned to the charges of the Louisiana Annual Conference.
- C. The Conference Board of Pensions is recommending that the "Past Service Rate" for years prior to 1982 be set at .98% for 2010 ($598 per year) due to current economic conditions, and that this rate be reviewed annually. This rate is still above the minimum required rate of .8%.
- D. Payments made to the pension apportionment shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid on the clergy salary or salaries of a given charge, i.e. if the church does not pay the pension apportionment in full, neither should pastor's salary be paid in full. See Paragraph 622, The Book of Discipline.

II. CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PLAN (CRSP)

We recommend:

- A. That Participants shall be all Clergy members of the Louisiana Annual Conference including Deacons and Local Pastors under Episcopal appointment to a charge. The Conference Board of Pensions includes in the Louisiana Conference plan Deacons as a definite and integral segment of the program. All local churches and United Methodist agencies who employ Deacons shall pay for the Retirement Plan in addition to salary.
- B. That Participants' Plan Compensation is the sum of: (1) cash salary (including tax deferred annuities and professional expense allowances) received from church-related sources; (2) utilities; and (3) housing allowance, or when a parsonage is provided, 25% of the Plan Compensation as the approximate value of that parsonage.
- C. That the church's contribution base be set as a percentage of plan compensation according to the following schedule: when plan compensation is $1 - $36,205, 13.6%; $36,206- $61,000, 15%; $61,001 - $68,000, 14%; $68,001 - $75,000, 13%; $75,001 - $84,000, 12%; $84,001 - $96,000, 11%; $96,001 - $111,000, 10%; $111,001 - $128,000, 9%; $128,001 - $152,000, 8%; $152,001 - $180,000, 7%; $180,001 and up, 6%.
- D. Contributions for each participant shall be paid directly by the paying unit to the Louisiana Annual Conference, 527 North Blvd., Baton Rouge, LA 70802-5720.
- E. Participants may contribute to the UMPIP with remittances made directly to the General Board of Pension, P.O. Box 4609, Chicago, IL 60680-4609. Clergy shall have his/her employer make direct deposit into a pre-tax or after-tax account, in accordance with federal government regulations. Further information concerning the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan may be obtained from the General Board of Pension, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201 (1-800-851-2201).

III. THE COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

We recommend:

- A. That participants shall be all clergy in full connection, provisional, associate members or full-time local pastors under Episcopal appointment, who have a plan compensation of not less than 60% of the DAC or CAC whichever is the lesser.
- B. That the churches contribute, on behalf of each participant, an amount equal to 3% of the Plan Compensation as defined in II.B. up to a maximum of 200% of the DAC. Remittances are made directly to the Louisiana Annual Conference in conjunction with CRSP payments.
- C. Based on the Denominational Average 2010 Compensation (DAC) of $60,341:
 1. Minimum Surviving Spouse Annuity Benefits - The surviving spouse of an active participant is eligible to receive a minimum pension of 20% of the DAC. The CPP will supplement pension payments as needed to assure the required 20% minimum benefit.* The GBOPHB will no longer terminate the minimum surviving spouse annuity benefits for surviving spouses who remarry. Surviving spouses whose benefits were terminated due to remarriage may submit a claim to begin their benefits again, but only on a prospective basis (i.e., from the time of the renewal request). GBOPHB will not proactively reinstate these surviving spouses' benefits.
 2. Surviving Child Benefits - Children under the age 18: 10% of the DAC* annually. Children between the ages of 18-25: 10% of the DAC* annually for up to four years, if enrolled in school full time.
 3. Death Benefits - Payable upon the death of an active participant: $50,000. At retirement, the benefit becomes 30% of the DAC ($18,102 for 2010). Payable upon the death of the spouse of a participant: 20% of DAC. Payable upon the death of a surviving spouse of a deceased participant: 15% of DAC. Payable upon the death of a child: 10% of DAC.
 4. Incapacity Benefits - 70% of Plan Compensation capped at 200% of the DAC, reduced, dollar by dollar, by disability benefits received from the Social Security Administration. Minimum benefit is 40% of the DAC.

*The amounts are based on percentages of the DAC in effect on the benefit starting date. Once initiated, these benefits increase 3% annually on the anniversary of the benefit starting date.
- D. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is recommending one of the options available to Conferences through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Article 111, Section 3.02 (a) states that persons "appointed to less than full-time service" not participate in the CPP unless special arrangements are made. Special arrangements for such cases may be found in the "Plan" at Article 111, Section 3.03 (a).

The Conference Board can offer the CPP on an elective basis which allows a clergy serving as a full member, associate member or a provisional member at less than full-time service (75% or more) to elect to participate. In such a case the individual

NOTE: Years of service refer to years of service in an Annual Conference(s) of the United Methodist Church, not years of service in the local church to which the clergy is appointed. These years of service include years under appointment to Seminary or beyond the local church.

Time used for Continuing Education, as defined by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and according to the rules set by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, shall not be considered as vacation time or used in lieu of vacation time. Vacation time is on a conference year basis. Vacation time not used in one year cannot be carried over into the next year.

Days Off Policy:

The Annual Conference's policy is that each local church's Pastor-Parish Relations Committee establish a days off policy with the pastor(s) of the charge. The minimum standard for days off is as follows: 2 days per week and 2 nights per week. Additional time should be set aside each week for prayer and study for the pastor's use.

If an honorarium is given to a guest pastor while the appointed pastor is on vacation, it shall be paid by the local church and not from that pastor's compensation.

Churches should encourage their pastor(s) to participate in physical exercise programs, good nutrition programs, and to get regular checkups with their doctors.

This policy is to be printed each year in the Journal of the Louisiana Annual Conference. The Cabinet of the Louisiana Annual Conference will send a copy of this policy to the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in each District.

BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

All clergy in any relationship - PTLP, FTLF , PE , PD, Full Connection, or retired if serving an appointment – shall be offered at least 30 days for bereavement leave (BL) for the death of a spouse or dependent child as defined by the General Board of Pensions. The District Superintendent shall initiate this process by informing the bereaved clergy of the availability of bereavement leave.

Bereavement leave will be in addition to vacation time, continuing education time and days off. The local church or conference agency to which the clergy is appointed shall continue to provide salary and housing, as well as pension and insurance payments, during the bereavement leave. The clergy will have ninety (90) days, beginning the day after the memorial/funeral service, in which to begin the bereavement leave. Details - pulpit supply, covering hospitals, etc. - will be worked out in conjunction with the District Superintendent and S/PPR chair. The clergy may use the bereavement leave in one block or some smaller blocks of time as he/she wishes, but must complete it within six months of the funeral/memorial service.

In many cases the congregation will have its own resources to secure appropriate pastoral leadership during the bereavement leave, but if the District Superintendent and S/PPR determine that financial assistance is needed to provide a supply pastor, the Annual Conference Board of Pensions will provide a maximum of $400 per week depending on whether the appointment is part or full time, and the responsibilities expected of the supply pastor. The District office will disburse any funds from the Board of Pensions to the supply pastor. Counseling is available at no cost to all clergy by a confidential request to the Director of Care and Nurturing of the Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

REPORT VI

LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE FUNDING PLAN

FOR SUPPLEMENT ONE TO THE CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PLAN

AS OF JANUARY 1, 2009

The 2009 Past Service Rate (PSR) for the Louisiana Annual Conference is $586 or 1.0% of Denomination Average Compensation (DAC). The conference intends to maintain the PSR at or above 1.0% of CAC. For the past ten years, ignoring the one-time compensation corrections, the CAC has increased by an average of 3.5% each year.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has determined that the portion of the pre-82 plan liability attributable to the Louisiana Annual Conference is $35,379,778 with a 3.5% PSR increase assumption, based on a 2009 PSR of $586. Plan funds currently held with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits have a value of $44,487,689 as of January 1, 2007.

The difference between the total plan liability and current plan funding is $9,107,911. This represents an over-funded plan asset.

The funding plan as of January 1, 2009, for the 2009 funding plan is summarized below:

Supplement One Liability Assuming

A PSR Increase of 3.5%.....	$(35,379,778)
Current Plan Funding	44,487,689
Funded Status	$9,107,911

Note: The Pre-82 Plan funded status was based on 2007 values. The decreased market value in 2008 will reflect an unfunded liability in 2011.

CONFERENCE MINISTRY TEAM

Our committee hit the ground running after our first meeting in October 2008. There were 24 members of the committee who attended the Quadrennial Training offered by the General Church from January 28 – February 1, 2009, in Jacksonville, Florida. The workshops were well done with everyone choosing an area of interest to their office. The main 4 areas of focus for the next 4 years are:

1. Developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world.
2. New places for new people and renewing existing congregations.
3. Engaging in ministry with the poor.
4. Stamping out killer diseases of poverty by improving health globally.

We established a “Clergy Housing Task Force” to make necessary changes to provide good housing for our pastors and their families. Those guidelines had not been reviewed since 1992. A new policy handbook will be coming out soon.

The CMT and the Board of Laity are planning to host a “FaithSharing Event” in November 2009 at the Riverfront in Alexandria. Rev. Dr. Tony Campolo will be the guest speaker at this event. We encourage clergy & laity to use this event as a time to recommit to “make disciples of Jesus Christ”.

CMT along with the Finance Mission Team struggled with next year’s budget. We pray as we go into the next 2 years we will be good stewards of our time, our talents and our money.

Following this introduction you will find the reports of the boards/agencies/committees that have been submitted by the chairpersons. We are appreciative of all the ministry of those providing vital leadership to our Conference and encourage you to take advantage of the opportunities for training and ministry.

TASK FORCE ON CLERGY HOUSING

Proposed revisions to the Current Policy

In 2008 the Conference Ministry Team formed a task force to consider revisions to the current Clergy Housing Policy approved in 1993. This action was taken at the request of the Louisiana Cabinet due to questions that had been raised to them regarding our policy.

The following is a proposed revision to our current policy. The revision suggested is primarily based on: 1) elimination of wording related to our transition from fully church owned furnishings to specific clergy owned and church provided furnishings; 2) updating of Book of Discipline references to the 2008 Book of Discipline and; 3) revision of specific procedures and consequences related to the care, maintenance and inspection of church owned parsonages.

RATIONALE FOR CHURCH OWNED PARSONAGES AS THE STANDARD FOR THE LOUISIANA CONFERENCE

1. The United Methodist Church structure is based on an itinerant ministry. This means that all full time United Methodist pastors agree to move as appointed within the system, normally in the Annual Conference. And, even though we are encouraging longer appointments at one church or charge, there is still a need for full time clergy to be available to itinerate when it seems appropriate to the Bishop and Cabinet, in consultation with the pastor and the local church. Home ownership is not a reason for a person to remain in an appointment.
2. The purchase and sale of property is built on a flexible economy. Our current economy provides ample appreciation of the concerns for having to sell at a difficult time. This means that either clergy who own their own home are tethered to their home and present appointment, or the pastor can experience a great loss, depending on the economy. And though other persons experience such changes, there are many professions with similar training required who provide housing assistance when there is such an issue.
3. A pastor may very well move from a parsonage situation to a housing allowance and then to another parsonage. Buying a home requires a down payment and other associated costs. Normally these expenses are accrued over the years, and the sale of one home provides the resources for the purchase of the next home. The experience of moving from a “house provided appointment” to a “housing allowance appointment” can result in both a financial and an emotional burden.
4. The Louisiana Conference has many small membership congregations in non-urban or rural settings. Housing is not always available for rent or purchase. The sale of a home in smaller communities is difficult.

This revised policy is to be voted on at the June, 2009 session of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

Below is the revised Clergy Housing Policy that was approved at the June 2009 Annual Conference Session

Annual Conference Policy Regarding Clergy Housing

1. The Louisiana Annual Conference policy is to encourage churches to provide parsonages, or though in special circumstances a housing allowance may be necessary.
2. “The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor’s family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor’s family.” [2008 Book of Discipline Paragraph 258.2g(16)]
3. Under some circumstances, the needs of a particular clergy family or local church may warrant the choice of a housing allowance rather than a church-owned parsonage. Such a choice may be pursued only under the supervision of the District Superintendent.

4. In some cases, churches provide housing for senior pastors but not associate pastors. It is important in such cases that the housing allowance be sufficient to provide housing similar to the housing of the church membership and community and that also meets the Conferences minimum housing standards. This amount may vary from location to location around the State as housing markets are varied in different locations. Housing allowance should be evaluated yearly. Housing should conform to the Minimum Standards of Parsonages. Churches may choose to rent an apartment or house for clergy housing for a period of time.

The Clergy Housing Task sub-committee felt there should be a standard formula for establishing a housing allowance.

Parsonage Design Standards

Standards for the parsonage should be similar to the housing of the church membership and community being served. When a parsonage falls below these standards, the pastor, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees or the District Superintendent may request that the District Board of Church Location and Building evaluate the parsonage and make recommendations.

Below are recommendations to assist churches and District Boards of Church Location and Building when making decisions on building buying or remodeling/adding on to parsonages. These standards also may assist parsonage committees when assessing the adequacy or planning for upgrade of existing parsonages.

Minimum Standards

- Three bedrooms and preferably four with one bedroom of at least 168 sq. ft and the others of at least 144 sq. ft.
- Two bathrooms of 45 sq. ft., one accessible to visitors (or an added half bath for visitors).
- Formal living room of at least 280 sq. ft. and dining area of at least 150 sq. ft.
- Family room of at least 180 sq. ft.
- Kitchen of at least 120 sq. ft., with an additional informal dining area of 100 sq. ft.
- Laundry room/area of 50 sq. ft.
- Ample closet space in each bedroom. Additional closets should be provided for linens, cleaning supplies, and equipment.
- Substantial bulk storage space provided in a floored attic or in a storage closet accessible from the carport or garage.
- Two-car garage or carport of 400 sq. ft, with storage for equipment and tools
- Central air conditioning (heating and cooling) unit.
- Exterior walls and ceiling insulated; also insulated floors if above ground.
- Adequate attic ventilation.
- Weather-stripping at all exterior doors, including thresholds.
- Carpet adds insulation value.

- Adequate capacity water heater, with a pressure relief valve, over a drain.
- One telephone that stays with the house, with additional phone jacks in appropriate rooms throughout.
- Cable and internet hookup.
- Larger homes may include a study with built-in bookshelves.
- Exterior features should include:
 - Sufficient fencing and shrubbery to provide for the privacy of the parsonage family and safety for children and pets.
 - Yard with adequate play areas for children.
 - Shade trees that do not threaten house foundation, driveway, or walks.
 - Landscape plantings that enhance the attractiveness of the home.
 - Yard that provides drainage away from the home.
 - Freeze proof hose bibs.

Safety Features

These features will provide a safe home for the clergy family and could possibly reduce insurance premiums.

1. Smoke and fire alarms in sleeping, cooking and laundry areas.
2. Fire extinguisher in cooking areas.
3. Dead bolt locks on outside doors.
4. Adequate fire exits from all areas of the home.
5. Adequate, safe play area suitable for small children.
6. Adequate exterior lighting for safety/security.

Accessibility

The entire house should provide complete access to persons in handicapping conditions and shall comply with all applicable portions of The Fair Housing Act, i.e. UFAS accessibility checklist (Revised May 7, 2008)

In the instance of remodeling, purchase of a new home, or when the need arises, the church should be sensitive to making accommodations for persons who are physically disabled. In such cases, the church might also consider other housing options.

For new construction and/or remodeling the construction shall comply with all applicable building codes.

It is strongly suggested that remodeling and/or additions be made with the thought to the latest in energy conservation materials, construction and technology.

Parsonage Location

Building or Purchase of a New Parsonage

Parsonage location is an important consideration. When building or relocating, adhere to the following criteria:

- A safe and stable neighborhood
- Patterns of growth in the area

Also, consider the following factors:

- Convenient to good schools, shopping, and medical care
- Availability of visitor parking
- Convenient to the church(es), but probably not next door to the church (see section on “Building or Purchase of a New Parsonage”)

When existing parsonages fail to conform to the above, churches should consider building/buying another parsonage.

Building or Purchase of a New Parsonage

Since parsonages become out-dated more rapidly than do churches, most churches/charges in time will want to acquire a new parsonage. Parsonages located on a church campus are not easily sold. This often necessitates the demolition of the parsonage. These factors often justify the extra expense of purchasing a separate lot for the parsonage.

When the condition of a parsonage is in question, the pastor of the church in consultation with the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the District Superintendent should be aware of all the issues before requesting the District Board of Church Location and Building to evaluate the parsonage and make recommendations.

The District Board of Church Location and Building shall consult with all parties involved.

Listed below are some references from the 2008 Book of Discipline that may be helpful reminders:

(Para. 257.3g) “The Administrative Board shall review the recommendation of the committee on Pastor-Parish Relations regarding the provision of adequate housing for the pastor (s); and report the same to the Charge Conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration.”

(Para 2521.1. 2544) The parsonage is acquired and maintained by the charge under the authority of the Charge Conference. The District Board of Church Location and Building must approve the location, purchase, and/or building of a parsonage.

Responsibilities of the District Superintendents

- Blank forms for yearly inspection, Moving Inspection, and Move Day Inspection will be kept in each District office for the convenience of Local churches and pastors. All required inspection forms are to be completed by each local church and pastor. All yearly inspection forms shall be included in the Charge Conference packet. Moving Inspection forms and Move Day Inspection forms shall be provided to clergy and churches by the district Superintendent when there is a move.

- Completed copies of Move/Moving Day Inspections shall be kept on file for at least one year from the time of move in each District Office.
- The District Superintendent may need to assist a local church in arranging for a parsonage inspection. If a date for an inspection has not been set with the pastor (and family) for the annual parsonage inspection thirty days prior to the fall charge conference or thirty days prior to the Annual conference session (in case of a move).
- The District Superintendent will comply with all Annual Review and Move/Moving Day Inspection procedures for the district parsonage, utilizing the district Parsonage Committee or the District Board of Trustees.

Decoration and Furnishings

Decorating

A church can avoid faddish styles and extreme approaches in architecture without being overly bland. Neutral colors for walls and hardwood/tile floors can be done very tastefully in order to accommodate the varying color schemes and tastes of parsonage residents. Churches may wish to seek professional assistance in color selection.

The parsonage family should be allowed to paint and wall paper in family areas with the understanding that they will restore these areas to their original color prior to moving. (unless the incoming family desires for them to be left as is).

Furnishings

The following is the policy for parsonages:

- A. Each parsonage shall be furnished with all major appliances, including washer, dryer, stove, and refrigerator. The kitchen must also have hot and cold running water, a sink, built-in cabinets, a storage or supply closet, counter work surfaces, and adequate, properly grounded electrical outlets. It is strongly urged that a built-in garbage disposal and dishwasher be provided where possible and adequate telephone outlets throughout the home are provided.
- B. The parsonage living room and dining room furniture will continue to be provided by the church/charge.
- C. All parsonage wall-to-wall floor coverings or rugs will continue to be furnished by the church/charge. Wood/tile floors are preferred over carpeting.
- D. Window shades or blinds shall be provided in all rooms. Window treatments shall continue to be provided by the church/charge for the living room, dining room. Other window treatments may be provided by the clergy families to accommodate their personal tastes.

- E. Churches that do not provide lawn maintenance services for the parsonage shall furnish lawn care equipment necessary to maintain the yard, including power mower, weed cutter/edger, and hedge trimmers.
- F. Use and placement of church-owned furnishings within the living areas of the parsonage shall be at the discretion of the parsonage occupants.
- G. Storage of excess furnishings shall be the shared responsibility of both clergy family and church/charge.

The Sale of Parsonages

The Task Force on Clergy Housing recommends the following to the 2009 Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference to pass the following guidelines concerning the sale of parsonages.

1. Congregations are strongly urged NOT to divest themselves of their parsonages but are urged to make sure that their parsonages meet the minimum standards of the Annual Conference.
2. Before a church can sell a parsonage, it needs to be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building and the Cabinet.
3. Should a church sell its parsonage, it is recommended to follow the following procedures:
 - a. The selling price of the parsonage (principal amount) realized from any parsonage sale shall be retained in an untouchable escrow account or deposited with the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation for 10 years, for the sole purpose of (1) purchase of another parsonage, or (2) a loan to assist the incoming pastor to make a down payment on the pastor's own home. This loan shall be entirely repaid to the church by the pastor upon reappointment, including the interest amount agreed upon at the time of the loan. The Task Force strongly recommends that any such loan be made under the constraints of a legally binding contract that requires as collateral a second mortgage or some other tangible asset of at least comparable value. This repayment shall again be placed in the escrow account for the remainder of the original 10 year period.
 - b. After the 10 year period, the church should re-evaluate its parsonage needs and may choose to reallocate the use of the funds.
 - c. If the church has sold its parsonage, an incoming pastor has the option of requesting that the church provide a parsonage rather than a housing allowance. If so, it is the church's obligation to do so.

Parsonage Maintenance

Responsibilities of the Church

- Repair or replace items that are property of the parsonage in a timely manner.
- Maintain service contracts for pest control and termite inspection.
- Maintain service contracts for maintenance and repair of provided appliances or a list of preferred repair persons for routine maintenance and emergency repairs.
- Maintain a yearly contract for the maintenance and repair of heating and cooling systems.
- Regular cleaning and painting of exterior surfaces.
- Regular interior painting, at least every four to six years.
- Monitor the condition of the roof, with repairs or replacement as needed.
- Clean carpets and upholstery at least every two years and when parsonage families move, scheduled in consultation with the parsonage family.
- Budget funds for repair and maintenance of house and furnishings (recommended minimum yearly amount: 2% of the replacement value of the parsonage and contents). Surplus funds in the annual budget for repairs shall be kept in escrow for future larger repairs, renovations, or replacement.
- Adequate insurance for parsonage and church-owned contents.
- Conduct an annual on-site evaluation of parsonage.
- Conduct moving inspections when there is to be a move.
- Furnish the district superintendent with an accurate floor plan of each parsonage owned, drawn to a scale of 1/8" = 1', so that he/she may provide this to an incoming pastor soon after the appointment is agreed upon.

Responsibilities of the Clergy Family

- Promptly report needed repairs.
- Make restitution for damage done by pets or beyond normal wear and tear.
- PET POLICY: Pastors are expected to reimburse the church for parsonage damage beyond the normal wear and tear of living, and this certainly includes the responsibility for parsonage pets. A local church may ask the pastor for a pet deposit. If damage exceeds the deposit, the pastor is expected to reimburse the church for actual damage.
- SMOKING GUIDELINES: All parsonages shall be smoke and tobacco free. Any use of tobacco in the parsonage is prohibited, but may be allowed outside.
- Maintain insurance for clergy family's possessions. Verification of insurance is to be given to both the local church and district offices. (This cost is normally the responsibility of the clergy).
- Help schedule and participate in annual on-site evaluation of parsonage and moving inspection.
- Leave parsonage clean for the next family when moving.
- Maintain a neat, orderly appearance on the outside of the home.
- Keep a parsonage book (see "Parsonage Inspection") up-to-date concerning repairs, new appliances, etc.

- Suggestion: The congregation enjoys seeing the parsonage. Therefore, it is suggested that an open house be observed from time to time.

Parsonage Inspection Procedures

The yearly inspection is required for the continued maintenance of the standards set forth in the parsonage maintenance document.

Paragraph 2533.4 in the 2008 Book of Discipline states, “The chairperson of the Board of Trustees, or the Chairperson of the parsonage committee if one exists, the Chairperson on the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.”

This annual review (parsonage inspection) is to be made 30 days prior to the annual fall Charge Conference and reported to the Charge Conference using the form found at the end of this report. (This form should be filed with other conference reports.) The Committee on District Superintendency is asked to be responsible for an annual review of the District parsonage. In addition to annual reviews, where there is to be a change of appointments, inspections are to be made (a) at least four weeks before moving day, using the annual review form, and (b) on moving day, using the moving day form. The date for all parsonage inspections should be scheduled with the parsonage family at least one week in advance.

If a parsonage inspection is denied by the clergy family, the minister’s utility allowance may be withheld (or a comparable amount from the base salary in appointments where churches pay the utilities directly) until such inspection is made.

If a parsonage family has been negligent and abuse of the house is apparent, the pastor will be held financially responsible for any necessary repair or replacement. Damage by pets is considered beyond “normal wear and tear”.

A parsonage book (folder or file) shall be permanent in every parsonage, and regularly updated, containing:

- A complete inventory of all furnishings, furniture, and equipment (a second copy shall be kept on file with parsonage committee and/or board of trustees).
- Warranties and guarantees.
- Instruction manuals.
- List of appliances and equipment including dates of purchase, purchase price, and any repairs/maintenance performed.
- List of preferred service personnel for maintenance and repairs.
- Copy of current applicable insurance policy (s).

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Vision/Goal for the Board of Church and Society

We share the mission of the church to make disciples of Jesus Christ, especially by exemplifying Jesus’ command to love God and neighbor, thus seeking the fulfillment of God’s reign and realm in the world (Discipline #121). As servants of Christ, we are sent into the world to engage in the struggle for justice and reconciliation. (Discipline #124) We are called to relate the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the church and to the world in which we live. We are called to show the members of the church and society that the reconciliation that God affected through Christ involves personal, social and civic righteousness. (Discipline #1001).

Our mission is to send persons into the world to live lovingly and justly as servants of Christ by healing, feeding the hungry, caring for the stranger, freeing the oppressed, being and becoming a compassionate, caring presence and working to develop social structures that are consistent with the Gospel. (Discipline #122).

We celebrate the fact that our church has been called to serve the present age. The United Methodist Church has a long history of concern for Social Justice. Our Social Creed was adopted in 1908 and we updated our Social Principles in 2008 at our General Conference. We are called to speak to the human issues in the contemporary world from a sound biblical and theological foundation. All of our churches are urged to study the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.

The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church; (2008)

Peace with Justice

The Pew Center Report for the States of Study of 2007 U.S. Census data found that Louisiana's incarceration rate has spiked by 272% since 1982. The Pew Group found that it cost the state $39.75 to keep an offender behind bars while it cost $2.70 per day for those on probation or parole. Our Board has established a Task Force on Prison Ministries to help strengthen the connection of prison ministries with churches in the districts. Pat Bates was appointed to head this group and Rev. Christian Thomas was elected to serve on this task force. The Board has also organized a Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Concerns. Rev. Doug Cain and Mrs. Martie Cain will head this Task Force. The members of this Task Force will survey, support and encourage churches in relation to ministries in the area of prevention and treatment of drug and alcohol. Members of this Task Force will come from persons in all of the districts.

The Board of Church and Society will encourage youth to become involved in Social Issues. The General Board of Church and Society help sponsor Seminars in Washington as well as in New York on Social Issues.

A Social Issue that is at the crisis stage in our State is the Aids Crisis. The greatest impact in Louisiana is among African Americans. We need to address this Social Issue in our churches.

A Message to the People of the United Methodist Church was sent out in February of 2009 by the President of the Council of Bishops, Chair of the Table of General Secretaries, and the Chair of the Connectional Table on our Global Economic Crisis. This has affected all segments of our society. This crisis may help open doors between all areas of our society. This document could be used by clusters of persons from local churches to see how we can work closer together to help tear down walls and to build bridges between persons. Let us weave the fabric of humanity together in order to make a better existence for all mankind.

Our Board promotes the various special offerings of the Church that relates to Social Concerns (Human Relations Day in January); Peace With Justice (June 7, 2009). One half of the Peace With Justice offering remains in Louisiana for projects in our state. We promote the United Nations Sunday offering in October (UNICEF or Trick or Treat offering). We promote the December 1, 2009 World Aids Offering; (Twenty-five percent of this offering will remain in our state).

The Board of Church and Society was represented at the Quadrennium Training Event held in Jacksonville, Florida on January 28-February 1, 2009 sponsored by the General Board of Church and Society. Our delegates were Rev. James A. Graham, Board Chairman and Mrs. Laura Sarguero, Peace With Justice Coordinator. Our Board has been witnessing through the four areas of focus - Poverty, Health, People, and Leaders in the Quadrennium of 2008-2012. Through the Peace With Justice offering we have been able to witness in our state. We provided a grant to Dillard University to help expose Dillard University Science students to environmental research investigations germane to solving community problems. They sought to compare the levels of heavy metals in post-Katrina New Orleans flooded and un-flooded neighborhoods. Our Peace With Justice grants were given to support Weekend of the Cross-Northshore. Peace With Justice support was given to the Wesley Foundation at Grambling State University in their community outreach program. A grant was given to Asbury United Methodist Church in Natchitoches to help transfer historical church records for internet access in the 21 century. See the site www.asburyroots.com/index.php.

Applications for Peace With Justice deadlines are May 10, 2009 and September 10, 2009. For applications contact Rev. James A. Graham, Chairman at P.O. Box 288, Natchitoches, La 71457 or jgraham993@aol.com.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship has as its goal ways to foster the development of disciples for Jesus Christ, and we do this in many different ways.

The Board of Discipleship in 2008 held studies on “This Holy Mystery”, and it was well attended in both the north and south of the Conference. The comments received after this event showed that it was inspirational, educational and enjoyed by those attending. This year, in 2009, we had events in both the north and south. On March 21, in Ruston at Trinity UMC, led by Rev. Dawn Young and Rev. Weldon Bares and on April 18, at First UMC in Lafayette, led by Rev. Ann Sutton and Rev. Clifton Conrad. We also hosted a study of “Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations,” by Robert Schnase.

Our board gives $500 to help fund the God and Country Weekend each year. This event was held on March 27-29, 2009, at the Wesley Center. It is an intense weekend of study, worship, service projects and fellowship, for organizations such as, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire girls, Cub Scouts, Big Brothers and Sisters, 4-H and others. They have received some help from the district offices, but they still have a deficit of $1,213 because the number of boys and girls attending has grown greatly.

All of our camps are getting ready for summer camping. Camp Istrouma had a house destroyed by Hurricane Ike, and it is being rebuilt to parsonage standards. April 25th is Istrouma’s Golden Anniversary, and they hope to have the house completed by then. Uskichitto Retreat Center has a special place in the hearts of those who come there, not only for the fun, but because of the lives changed in the name of Jesus Christ. Directors

Dawn and Jason Wright have planned 13 summer camp events over 7 weeks and 4 weekend camps for youth K-12, as well as welcoming 1,500 retreat guests in the course of 30 weeks. They are an accredited camp by the American Camp Association, and have safety as a primary goal.

Every year the Board presents awards to a lay person and a clergy who have made an outstanding effort in Evangelism. In 2008 we honored Rev. Robert Johnson, pastor at Calvary and Magnolia in Thibodaux. Those churches had 25 professions of faith, and gained many new members for both churches through his efforts.

We of the Board of Discipleship are here to serve the members of the churches of the Louisiana Conference, and help you to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

What a busy and exciting year this has been for Christian Education. Many new opportunities were explored and shared throughout the conference. Christian Education plays a part throughout the ministry and life of the local church, and as such the Director of Christian Education has been available to local churches for consultation and facilitation of instruction and resources.

The goals for the year were to:

Establish or reestablish Christian Education connections throughout the conference, further communications through the use of print and electronic options, create a conference wide advisory council for Christian Education, and assist other ministry areas in the development of their educational areas.

The first meeting of the Advisory Council for Christian Education was in April, and that group is formulating ministry ideas for the new quadrennium. The group meets electronically and provides information about current activities in their districts and local churches. In addition, the council has begun the process of becoming educated about the Four areas of Focus, and exploring how to disseminate that information throughout the districts.

Christian Education opportunities throughout the conference were announced in LaNow and on the Louisiana Conference Website. Many articles emphasizing Christian Education and its role within the local church have been published in LaNow.

Confirmation Day with the Bishop continued this year with over 400 young people in attendance. Christian Education also assisted in the annual leadership training for Volunteers in Mission, by assisting with a redesign of their instructional materials for the second year in a row.

Together with the Conference Director of Youth presentations were made throughout the Conference to implement Safe Sanctuaries/Risk Reduction policies. In addition, the Christian Education director for the conference has provided support on demand to local congregations to assist in the development of their policies. The audit of the Monroe district policies was reviewed by myself.

For enrichment and continued advancement of Christian Education the Director of Christian Education attended a number of seminars in the area of Christian Education. This included training in the Four areas of Focus in Jacksonville. Further, the Director has begun taking courses at Perkins School of Theology to complete certification in Christian Education. The Director also attended Christian Educators Fellowship and presented two papers at that gathering. Finally, I have been selected to serve on the Incubator for Christian Education by the General Board of Discipleship for the approaching quadrennium.

This has been a very exciting year for Christian Education, and it is my prayerful hope that it is indicative of the future for Christian Education for the Louisiana Conference.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Board of Global Ministries is planning to continue the emphasis on the revitalization of its programs and ministries and to continue supporting missions locally and around the world. It will closely review all of the programs in view of the uncertainties of our economy.

A new chairperson was elected during the first board meeting. Likewise, a new Secretary and a new Vice-chairperson were also elected during the meeting.

The revitalization of the SAM Grant Program included participation from the District Mission/Outreach Coordinators. It is now more in line with the Conference Cabinet objectives. The Town and Country Ministries and Program were enhanced by rewarding the recipients with materials that further enhance their educational/ministerial skills. The Cuban initiative was expanded to incorporate needed assistance to professors and students of a new theological Methodist seminary and to strengthen links with LAVIM teams. The Cambodia Initiative supported advocacy efforts to provide the growing Cambodian mission, leaders and missionaries with more opportunities for covenant relationships with our churches. The Russian Initiative continued supporting the congregation of the First UMC of Ekaterinburg in their spiritual and construction endeavors. The Revolving Loan Fund Program has trim-lined its process for reviewing and approving loan requests. This program makes low-interest loans, unsecured loans to churches and other institutions for extension needs such as buildings, renovations, purchases of major fixed equipment and purchases of land.

A committee is being formed to reevaluate the financial support to the different programs sponsored by the Board of Global Ministries.

CAMBODIA INITIATIVE

There is nothing like the smell of incense wafting up the staircase of the Golden Gate Hotel in Phnom Penh. Louisiana mission teams share this experience in our base hotel as the Louisiana Annual Conference continues to connect individuals and local churches with the mission and ministry of the Cambodia Methodist Church.

A quick recount of the year in mission to Cambodia

- Esther and Nicholas Gitobu, missionaries from Cambodia, were guests of the 2008 Annual Conference. Following conference, Nicholas, Esther and their three daughters traveled extensively throughout the state, visiting many of those who have been to Cambodia and inviting others to be a part of their ministry.
- Two mission groups made the journey in the last year to be a part of the work in country. Rev. Jack O'Dell led a team of eight in December 2008. They provided staff for a youth retreat, then visited various mission projects and joined in local Christmas festivities, including a party at the orphanage.

- Beverly Dinnel and I led a medical team of thirteen in February 2009. The team returned to two villages visited by the 2008 team in the Kampong Chhannng District. Through the work of in country missionary, Irene Mparutsa, the team visited the Provincial Health Department and a local hospital. This was a major step in connecting our short-term care to their local resources. In five days we saw over 1000 patients.

We look to the next conference year with great anticipation. Nicholas and Esther will return to Louisiana this month. Again they will be visiting in churches around the conference to tell their story, to give thanks for the support that has been received and to invite others to join the work.

Four teams sponsored by La VIM and CBGM are scheduled to return to Cambodia.

- Beverly Dinnel will be leading a medical team in early spring. Under the direction of the local missionaries they will be trekking to a different, more rural district.
- Rev. Andy Durbin and Diane Reich will be leading a youth team in May to staff another youth retreat.
- Archie Corder anticipates leading a group, which will focus on ministry to men in the fall of 2009.
- Rev. Clifton Conrad and I are planning a journey with a team to develop pastoral leadership and offer a retreat in the fall of 2009 or early spring of 2010.

Our conference will host The Cambodia Initiative Consultation at St. Matthews UMC in New Orleans, Sept 17-19. Representatives from across the United States involved or interested in the mission of the church in Cambodia will gather with Cambodian leadership to pray, dream, and plan our shared ministry for the future.

The initiative of the Spirit that has connected lives in our conference with lives in the young and vibrant Methodist Church in Cambodia. We go in mission to offer our gifts to this conference in its infancy. In turn we receive blessing beyond measure.

Ann Sutton, Coordinator

CUBA INITIATIVE

The Cuba Initiative had a very active year since last conference. At the end of May 2008 and for the beginning of Annual Conference, we had a visitor from the Cuba Methodist Conference, Rev. Mario Perez. He was able to visit with several churches in our conference. One of those churches, Lea Joyner Memorial UMC will be establishing a sister church with Rev. Perez's church, Santa Fe Iglesia Metodista, in Havana Province.

October 2008, I led a VIM Mission Team to Havana to help with the remodeling of the New Methodist Biblical Seminary. Students started classes in September. They are now able to have 75 students actively pursuing their seminary education. Friendships were established with many students during our work there. We were also able to bring medicines and vitamins that would be distributed by physicians in the Methodist Churches where they were most needed.

Also in February 2009, Rev. Roger Templeton led another VIM Mission to continue work in the seminary classrooms. This was another successful mission and the first time for many team members to visit Cuba.

Sister church relationships are still being established and strengthened through mutual visits. God is bringing together the Body of Christ through these visits which have proved to be mutually beneficial.

Please keep our Cuban brothers and sisters in Christ in your prayers. The Methodist churches in Cuba continue to grow rapidly as more and more people respond to the Gospel through their ministries.

Mark R. Martin, Coordinator

RUSSIAN INITIATIVE

In 1990 – 1991 Louisiana United Methodists began a journey to Russia. The First United Methodist Church of Ekaterinburg was registered on October 24, 1990. The land was consecrated on September 22nd, 1991 and the church facility was dedicated in 2001. Since that time, many trips to Ekaterinburg have taken place.

This past December, was another memorable trip. Our trip to Ekaterinburg began in Red Square in Moscow in the ice and snow that would be with us for the next 10 days. When we arrived in Ekaterinburg our first objective was to purchase enough food items for 70 food baskets for the elderly of the church. These were given out after church on the following Sunday. As food prices have continued to rise, the elderly have felt the economic squeeze.

Another of our objectives was Bible School for children and adults. Our Bible School for children focused on the birth of Jesus. Children worked with crafts which we had brought from Louisiana, had snacks, played games, and role played the birth of Jesus. Adult's role played first and then the Russian children followed. Our scripture references for our drama production were from Luke, where Gabriel announces Christ's birth, and from Matthew where the angel of the Lord appears to Joseph, the Wise Men followed the star to the manger, and Joseph obeys God.

We expanded on our Bible School for adults and many meaningful questions were asked, which generated much discussion. In addition, our adult Bible Study continued with The Purpose Driven Life from our last trip.

We continued to visit the orphanage for special children as we have so many times before. Even though the director of the orphanage has changed, we have been invited to come back whenever we can. A visit to the area of the orphanage for children with birth defects was quite meaningful and touching.

This is a tenuous time in Russia with conflict in parts of the country between the government and churches. But with difficulties, also comes hope. Our constant prayer is that by staying joined to Christ, what we ask for and what we believe will be granted in the powerful name of Jesus Christ. The faith that we see displayed by the Russian Christians is inspiring and heart warming.

VIETNAMESE MINISTRY

...I was a Stranger and You Invited Me into Your Home (Mathew 25:35)

I thank God for giving me the opportunity to serve Him, and I thank all of you for your continuous prayers and support throughout the past year. I want to share with you some good news that we would praise our Lord.

The Vietnamese Ministry has had a fruitful year. Two students have received their citizenship through our U.S. Citizenship Class.

English as a Second Language is held on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday with an increased enrollment of 51 students. These classes help the students get jobs and also prepare them for higher job performances.

A computer lab with Rosetta Stone software is provided for other levels of training.

We now have 20 students (elementary to middle school ages) participating in tutoring on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The students have shown more interest in school and are making better grades.

Our Vietnamese Children Ministry meets every Friday evening with 20 children gathering for various activities: Bible Stories, Vietnamese Classes, Arts & Crafts, Music, Indoor and Outdoor Games.

Some of the children participate with the Broadmoor United Methodist Church Children's Choir, Sunday school and mission trip.

The Vietnamese Ministry celebrated with the Vietnamese Community Thanksgiving, Christmas, Lunar New Year, and Easter.

We have Worship Service every Sunday from 4 p.m to 5 p.m at Broadmoor's Adult Education building with approximately 15 – 20 people attending the service.

Rev. Tuyet Tran provides medical transportation and translation for the Vietnamese people in her community and for the Vietnamese community in Lafayette, LA.

Rev. Tuyet Tran is also preaching teaching and counseling in New Iberia, LA to the Christian Vietnamese community from Abbeville and Lafayette, LA. There are also other Vietnamese attending, who are not connected to any denomination. It is with much prayer that all who attends will become members of The United Methodist Church.

Vision

- 8 Weeks Vietnamese Summer Day Camp - Baton Rouge June, July 2009
- VBS with Broadmoor United Methodist Church – June, 2009

This ministry has helped to link the Vietnamese Community to others in the local community; building trust and helping them meet some of their needs in the community.

It is with much love, compassion and prayer that the Vietnamese Ministry continues to be a faithful and fruitful ministry in the Baton Rouge Community and surrounding areas (Abbeville, New Iberia, and Lafayette, La).

LOUISIANA DISASTER RESPONSE

Our disaster ministry began in the wake of two hurricanes (Katrina & Rita). In the last twelve months our recovery ministry has begun both the relief work and long-term response for areas of our state that were affected by hurricanes Gustav and Ike. In this response we have had many accomplishments in the name of The United Methodist Church.

On the third anniversary of Hurricane Katrina, our state was visited by Hurricane Gustav. Our Disaster Response Team was ready to respond to the needs of people in South Central Louisiana with ice, water, and cleaning buckets. The cost of these services amounted to $500,000. Since the General Board of Global Ministries (UMCOR) has not received adequate funding to respond to the 2008 storms, UMCOR has asked the conferences of the Gulf Coast to realign their existing funds to respond to the clients of both the 2005 and 2008 storms. The following report represents the closing out of 2005 Hurricanes. We are now working a “new” grant that incorporates our continuing response to Katrina and Rita as we add our response to Gustav and Ike.

After the 2008 Annual Conference, our Disaster Recovery Ministry was incorporated into a 501(c)3 non-profit ministry. We are governed by a Board of Directors and our staff is employed by this new entity. The new name of the corporation is La Conference of the UMC Disaster Response, Inc (LADRM). The LADRM is functioning through 4 stations (Southwest in Lake Charles, Upper River Parishes at Grand River United Methodist Church, Lower River Parishes in Houma, and Southeast in the New Orleans Metro area). From these stations we have served approximately 13,176 families. The following is a brief report of the four stations operating across the Gulf Coast of Louisiana.

- 1) The Southeast Station, located on Read Blvd. in New Orleans, is continuing coverage of more than five parishes and hosting 90% of our volunteers. With the help of Christian Reformed World Relief Committee (CRWRC) long term volunteers, our ministry uses 400-500 volunteers per week. We anticipate completion of our response in this area in the next 2 ½ years.
- 2) The Southwest Station in Lake Charles has seen more volunteers over the last few months. With the help of CRWRC long term volunteers, we have an average of 50 volunteers per week. The storm staff anticipates us finishing our work in the next 24 months.
- 3) On January 2, 2009, we grouped the following communities together to become the Lower River Parishes project to answer the needs of people in Terrebonne and Lafourche Parishes. We have opened an office in the City of Houma. This staff will work in the communities of Thibodeaux, Houma and Dulac. We will be finished with the lower river parishes by December 31, 2009.
- 4) On March 30th, we began to serve the people in Iberville, Assumption and Ascension Parishes. This project office will be known as the Upper River Parishes Station. The congregation and pastor of Grand River United Methodist Church, outside the city of Plaquemine, have opened their church facilities to house our recovery ministry. This includes a gym that can be used for a warehouse and an education building where we have our offices. We will be finished working in the Upper River Parishes at the end of March 2010.

At the end of February, we celebrated the closing of the Abbeville station. We were able to celebrate hosting of 2,463 volunteers since the beginning of that station, representing 236 teams and 84,387 volunteer's hours for a value of service $1,529,772. We would like to thank the congregation at First United Methodist Church of Abbeville and their pastor, the Rev. John Vining, for housing our station so we could respond to the needs of their community.

Our clients represent the "least, last and lost" and no preferential treatment is shown to members of our denomination. We are utilizing the CAN (Coordinated Assistance Network) database to track the progress of each client's recovery. Our case managers and station managers participate on a consistent basis with area Long Term Recovery Committees and roundtables to secure all available assistance for our clients. We have closed approximately 10,000 cases to date and have more than 2,000 cases active and pending. These numbers do not include the work of our new stations begun in the spring of 2009.

Each station provides full case management service and assistance. They are supported by the construction efforts of volunteers overseen by our operations staff. To date we have hosted 4,433 teams with 60,656 volunteers. This unprecedented volunteer response represents more than 2.6 million hours of work. These volunteer hours equate to an in-kind donation of more than $49,074,393. In the past year, we have hosted teams from 50 states and 8 countries. All 63 United Methodist Annual Conferences have deployed teams to Louisiana. Our volunteer numbers have decreased by 40% over the last year. Volunteer assistance reached its peak in June of 2007! We encourage our own Louisiana congregations to continue your excellent response in these recovery efforts.

Accomplishments and celebration of work in the past year.

- ❖ Received Louisiana Family Recovery Corp (LFRC) grant funds in the amount of $1,900,000. These funds were spent on building supplies and unmet needs (completed as of May 31, 2009). These funds were used in the Slidell Area and the Lower River Parishes.
- ❖ Received grants from the following foundations: Rotary International; Greater New Orleans Foundation; Community Foundation and Entergy. These grants totaled $983,000.
- ❖ Responded to the needs created by the Hurricanes of 2008. These two hurricanes caused extensive tree damage, roof damage and flooding. We responded by receiving Emergency Response Teams, arranging housing at local churches, borrowing shower trailers for volunteer facilities, and assessing damage in the storm areas.
- ❖ Deployed the Southeast Disaster Recovery Ministry staff to both Iowa and Texas to provide LTRO Training in response to their disasters.
- ❖ Continued to feed clients in the FEMA Trailer Parks.
- ❖ Completed 589 assessments, 63 gutting, 208 minor reports, 142 major repairs and 154 complete rebuilds during 2008.
- ❖ Hosted and provided work projects for more than 13,216 volunteers.
- ❖ Managed volunteers with the skills and expertise they bring to this ministry.
- ❖ Recruited volunteers.
- ❖ Developed Case Management Standardizations, inclusive of new official documents to insure uniformity of records as well as best practices policies.
- ❖ Provided a presence through Case Management. Satellite sites exist in Buras, Dulac and DeRidder.
- ❖ Case managers have broadened and enhanced service delivery. This initiative has enabled one team to concentrate exclusively on the LFRC funding while the other team has continued to work with clients that do not meet eligibility criteria for LFRC. The merging has also allowed staff the capability to work special projects as well as back up other case managers to insure continuity for the clients.
- ❖ The Administrative Assistant in the Baton Rouge HQ Building works with our Coordinated Assistance Network (CAN) coordinator; this will allow a unified and conclusive data base for better service delivery and assignment. The CM Administrative Assistant will also have the ability to assist the case managers in their CAN management.

- ❖ The case managers at each site have made a concerted effort to work toward reducing the number of clients waiting for assistance.
- ❖ Case Management has obtained in excess of a million dollars in funding for our clients from other entities around the state.
- ❖ Case Management has demonstrated a presence at area Roundtables as well as Long Term Recovery Tables and has secured funding from Southern Mutual, United Way, Red Cross, Salvation Army, and Mennonites, as well as from individual churches and individuals.

Goals that are a priority for the upcoming year.

- ❖ Continue engaging volunteers to make a difference by volunteering. The goal is to keep an average of 400 volunteers per week working across Louisiana.
- ❖ Working with First United Methodist Church of Baton Rouge. Their Youth Group will host teams this coming summer in the Lower River Parishes Recovery Project. This project will host youth for seven weeks in the Houma community.
- ❖ Establish a data base inclusive of all cases in the Louisiana Conference.
- ❖ Continue down sizing our staff, both in the Lake Charles and New Orleans areas.
- ❖ Specialize case managers to better utilize their gifts and talents and select the appropriate case manager to meet the clients' needs.
- ❖ Establish quality assurance/accountability to insure we are truly servicing the "least, last and lost".
- ❖ Access with greater frequency Means to Recovery Funding from the state of Louisiana.
- ❖ Establish principles for self care of our employees.
- ❖ Initiate partnership with a special commission in disaster recovery to assist with recovery for case managers around the state who are victims themselves.
- ❖ Begin quality control and CAN mobilization.
- ❖ Develop a strategic plan which would include an analysis of the greatest "service or need" areas in NOLA.
- ❖ Expand the area of case management with a special emphasis on those most in need, including renters, the aged, people with special needs and children.
- ❖ Establish vulnerability points in determining eligibility and triaging of cases.

Concerns and Challenges

- ❖ Our greatest challenge in the coming year will be maintaining the level of volunteers necessary to complete construction jobs in our files. Currently more than 75% of our teams are returning teams. The relationships they have established with our employees, hosting churches, and clients are evidence of the hospitality we have shown. We are hoping to gather the stories of our volunteers in order to document the life changing experiences we have shared.

- ❖ Secure additional $4.5 million in grants for unmet needs.
- ❖ Merge all pending client files. Rework standardization of forms in order to oversee the compilation of active and pending client files into one main database.
- ❖ Beware of Compassion Fatigue with staff and provide Employee Assistance to counter-act the effects of serving.
- ❖ Reach clients who have fallen through the gaps.
- ❖ Strengthen collaborations within the community to better serve as advocates for the people we serve.
- ❖ Insure that recovery plans do not focus on rebuilding only, but on the overall recovery of clients.
- ❖ Be a presence for the increasing number of people we serve being diagnosed with psychological, physical and mental disabilities.

Acknowledgements and Thanks

We have one warehouse located in Iowa and a new volunteer housing site that was built at Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Slidell. We rely on the hospitality of many churches within the areas affected by both hurricanes of 2005 and 2008. These churches continue to provide housing for our volunteers. In addition, we are working in collaboration with the Women's Division of GBGM at North Rampart Community Center and the Dulac Community Center.

We have down sized the staff from 55 to 45 persons, which includes: 14 Cases Managers, 10 Construction Managers, 4 Stations Managers, 1 Manager of Volunteers, 4 Financial Personnel, 11 Administrative Assistants, and 1 Executive Director/CEO.

We are grateful to the congregations of the Louisiana Conference and to the entire connectional church for the support of volunteers and finances. Hundreds of people are being blessed because of the faithfulness of United Methodism. To you, and to our great United Methodist Churches world-wide, we say "Thank You" for your dedication to be examples of Christ in this present world.

"Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can."

A Financial and Volunteer Update from Katrina and Rita Response September 1, 2005 thru December 31, 2008

It has been almost four years since the hurricanes of 2005 hit the Louisiana coast. Those events have changed the focus of attention in Louisiana generally and in the Louisiana Conference specifically. As you well know, the ministry that has evolved following those storms has greatly affected our work as an Annual Conference. We continue to be grateful to the United Methodist connection for all of the help that has come and continues to come our way. The United Methodist Committee on Relief, individual Annual Conferences, local congregations, and thousands of individuals have given their money, time, and talent to the recovery cause. There are no words to convey our gratitude for this outpouring of the Holy Spirit through the actions of God's children.

This brief article is a way to report on our current progress in the area of Humanitarian response and relief to the victims of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. This is only one aspect of our efforts that reflect the ministry to those in need. The Church Recovery efforts are a separate issue. This additional aspect is funded separately through Katrina Church Recovery.

The relief and recovery ministry identified here tells the story in numbers only. These numbers are only a small snapshot of the "real response" that comes through the stories of lives changed and restored, of volunteers who have received their own untold life-changing experiences, and of the impact on the spiritual renewal of individuals and communities throughout the Gulf Coast. Please read the numbers, but look between the lines for the faces of countless thousands who have been recipients of the love of Christ in action. This will be the closing report for hurricane response for 2005. Since January 1, 2009 we have begun to respond both to the 2005 and 2008 storms.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

If in the area of “questions and answers” your question happens to be; “Just what is a disaster anyway?”

The answer: ...an event beyond the control of the individuals affected resulting in great harm, suffering, destruction and damage. It disrupts personal and community life, involves a significant number of people and causes physical, emotional, economic, social and/or spiritual crises. A disaster damages a community's ability to sustain life without outside assistance.”

In keeping with efforts that have been put into motion some years ago, we continue to promote a culture of preparedness in relations to the known fact that there will be a disaster of some type somewhere in our immediate surroundings at some point in time. In a stroke of irony, four years following the onslaught of Hurricane Katrina, over the Labor Day weekend of 2008, Baton Rouge and the surrounding area were drastically affected by Hurricane Gustav! On the heels of that storm came Hurricane Ike which obliterated Galveston, Texas and severely impacted the Houston area. These are only two instances of events that occurred recently that fit the above definition of a disaster. It should be noted that while the lower half of our state is aware of the strength of hurricanes, these are NOT the only disasters that we should mitigate against and for which we make preparation.

The reason most communities are never prepared to deal with the trauma associated with disasters is because they do not have a plan. Through preparedness and planning, disaster response can be effective and organized. NEVERTHELESS, PLANNING IS PART OF AN ONGOING PROCESS, WHICH SERVES TO REMIND US THAT CARING FOR PERSONS AFFECTED BY A DISASTER IS CONTINUOUS - EVEN WHEN THE IMMEDIATE CRISIS HAS SUBSIDED.

Our Annual Conference is committed to providing planned care to our brothers and sisters during their time of crisis. This means that every local congregation, clergy member, District Superintendents, and the Bishop all have a part to play in bringing relief.

Every crisis is loaded with opportunities for ministry. As United Methodists we are called upon to respond to the serious needs of the community when they experience a disaster. There is a Holistic Disaster Cycle which includes opportunities to:

EDUCATE and build awareness about the different kinds of disasters.

PREVENT the disaster that can be prevented in the first place, such as human caused technological disasters like toxic waste contamination.

MITIGATE or take steps to lessen the danger wherever and whenever possible.

PREPARE for when (NOT “if”) a disaster will happen, including the recovery of survivors and communities - not only physically but spiritually and emotionally as well. It is imperative to deal with the WHOLE PERSON and the WHOLE community.

RESPOND to those affected or stricken by disaster - not just “our own” but anyone - especially those who are most vulnerable; children, the elderly, those with disabilities, the impoverished and anyone else with special needs. Effective response is a key to proper and adequate preparation.

With this in mind, the Disaster Preparedness Director in consultation with the Disaster Preparedness Committee will:

- Continue to develop policies and procedures for disaster preparedness and relief within the bounds of the conference.
- Conduct disaster preparedness training and develop materials.
- Advise the Resident Bishop on the extent of any current disaster.
- Coordinate with UMCOR to provide monetary assistance, training and administrative assistance to local relief initiatives.

Even as we continue to recover from Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, which occurred almost four years ago, we are in the preparation mode. It is literally a matter of “when” the next disaster will take place and of what nature it will be. All of us are encouraged to establish and maintain an ongoing relationship with those in our communities who work with disaster relief. This step is extremely important in order to avoid waiting for a disaster to occur to meet our neighbors!

The current district Response Coordinators are as follows:

Acadiana - Rev. Scott Bullock	Alexandria - Mr. Cliff Kelly
Baton Rouge - Mr. Walter Parker, Sr.	Lake Charles - Rev. Tim Neustifter
Monroe - Rev. Newton “Bo” Horne	New Orleans - Mr. Frank White
Shreveport - Mr. Ron Feaster

In collaboration with the UMCOR staff, training events have been planned for all of our congregations with the following dates and locations:

Dates	Location
May 16th	First Alexandria
May 23rd	Trinity-Ruston
July 18th	The Well in Hammond
July 25th	First Lafayette

It is requested that each congregation will have persons attend one of these trainings. Pastors, local church disaster coordinators, trustee chairs and other interested persons should take the training in order to help mitigate against an unforeseen disaster.

To quote from an UMCOR document ...”unfortunately some United Methodist church leaders don’t recognize potential tragedy within the borders of their annual conferences. These are the ones who dismiss concern by saying ‘we’ve never had any disasters here’. They would rather devote time and energy to more immediate business than plan for the improbable. ‘If something happens, we’ll deal with it then’.”

We now know that the “the improbable” can and quite often will happen. The moral and legal reasons to be prepared are vital issues to bear in mind. When we take seriously our ministry to relieve suffering, then we United Methodists must do all we can to prevent further victimization of already hurting people.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Campus Ministry has had another successful year in which growth and profound ministry has occurred. Dividends from the Conference’s investment in campus ministry will be forthcoming for years to come as the church maintains contact with these young people during a critical time in their lives. We have experienced no change in leadership this past year. We have provided board training to several of our local campus ministry boards.

All four-focus areas that the General Conference chose for these next four years are integrated into the life of our Wesley Foundations. Raising leaders is a must if a campus ministry is to exist since it is always a congregation in transition. All campus ministries have leadership teams to coordinate the everyday functions of that ministry.

Since it is a congregation in flux, it is vital that ways are devised to meet the new students arriving on campus and attract them to the ministry. Our ministries continue to be innovative in attracting new students into the ministry. We have a steady stream of students attending the Discerners’ Academy and then going to seminary.

The last two focus areas of engaging the poor and working to improve global health are targeted through the mission efforts of each campus ministry. Every campus ministry offers mission opportunities to their students. They may be inner city opportunities, which usually engage the homeless or poor of that city. It may involve traveling to India, Russia, Peru, Mexico, or other countries. They may build homes, churches, and personal relationships, or work in an aids clinic.

We thank the conference for its strong financial support. While there is pressure to keep our apportionment as low as possible, limited resources prevent us from reaching more students. We are overwhelmed by the need for vital campus ministries on all of our campuses. We have Wesley Foundation buildings on 9 campuses and have use of buildings on 4 campuses. Because there is no United Methodist presence on several of our campuses, our students are following their friends to other churches. The board has limited grant money available to assist local churches in establishing new ministries.

Even as we encourage our local churches to reach out to those campuses near by that do not have a United Methodist presence, we are very grateful to have many churches that continue to place us in their mission budget, make special donations, prepare meals, or help repair/improve our aging buildings.

As we work with local campus ministry boards and their campus ministers, we know we are accomplishing one of our goals: to develop well-rounded Christians who are equipped to be our leaders. People are coming to Christ and becoming his disciples.

BOARD OF LAITY

This was a year that God has made and we rejoice and are glad in it. Our Conference Board of Laity (CBOL) offers gratitude for the hard work of departing members Ms. Jane Blackwell (Lay Speaking), Mr. Fred Banks (1000 Club and Baton Rouge District Lay Leader), Ms. Harriette Elrod (UMW), Mr. Joe Kelley (UMM), Ms. Amanda Meyer (Youth Ministries), Ms. Clara Scott (Alexandria District Lay Leader), Ms. Evelyn Clark (New Orleans District Lay Leader), and Mr. Eddie Higginbotham (Member at Large) all under the able leadership of Mr. George “Buzzy” Anding. Buzzy is a gracious, humble spiritual leader whose tenure as Conference Lay Leader heralded much change and needed focus. He will continue on the Board as our Parliamentarian. Mr. Jared Williams, our new Member at Large, graduates from seminary this year and thus from our Board.

Our continuing members are Ms. Joyce Robinson, Associate Conference Lay Leader; Ms. Glennell Cottrill, Treasurer; Ms. Carolyn Dove, Daughenbaugh-Matheny (D-M) Scholarships; Mr. Scott Sutton, Acadiana District Lay Leader; Ms. Christie Brammer, Lake Charles District Lay Leader; Mr. Gary Green, Monroe District Lay Leader; the Honorable Robert Adley, Shreveport District Lay Leader; and Mr. Ruben Vaughn, Bylaws. The Rev. Roger Lathan and the Rev. Dr. Don Cottrill continue as ex-officio members. New members are Ms. Marverne Terrell, Secretary; Mr. Walter Weiss, 1000 Club; Ms. Edna Hickman, UMW; Mr. Gard Wayt, UMM; Mr. Tim Hebert, Lay Speaking; Ms. Hannah Grantham, Youth and Happening Ministries; Mr. Grant Schroeck, Baton Rouge District Lay Leader; Dr. Keith Kreutziger, New Orleans District Lay Leader; Ms. Eloise Cox, Alexandria District Lay Leader; Ms. Betty Blackman, Member at Large; and Mr. John Evans, Member at Large. We thank God that these people have answered the call for leadership.

Celebration of Work Completed

Our program area accomplishments will be outlined specifically in reports to follow, but let us highlight the continued success of the D-M Scholarship efforts that gave 20 students attending either Dillard or Centenary $1,200 each; the revitalization of the 1000 Club that furnished money for two of our new church starts; the “sold out” success of our Lay Speaking Schools; and the creative recruitment efforts of UMW and the UMM in several innovative strategies that require members to leave the churches and go into the communities in the name of Christ. Our District Lay Leaders also showed innovation in their outreach and mission. For example, Mr. Gary Green is holding three evangelism events in the Monroe District, Mr. Grant Schroeck held a major training event in Baton Rouge that planned strategically for the future, and Dr. Keith Kreutziger revitalized the New Orleans District Board of Laity and added a Cursillo Representative. We also want to thank Mr. Tim Hebert and Ms. Carolyn Dove who, with your Conference Lay Leader, wrote articles about the CBOL in the new LANow column, "From the Pew".

Goals for the Upcoming Year of the GBOL

Our primary goal for the coming year is to impart the urgency of the mission of the United Methodist Church (UMC) by invoking the Holy Spirit to rekindle the passion and fire of Wesleyan faith in our community. Toward that end, we will:

1. Continue to strengthen the structure and communication networks of the laity through the District Lay Leader's grapevine, the CBOL link on the Conference Website, LANow, and the work of our bylaws task force.
2. Gather the faithful on November 14th at the Riverside Conference Center in Alexandria. We expect a minimum of 1000 laity to attend a FaithSharing training led by noted author and speaker, Dr. Tony Campolo. Each attendee will be expected to bring one other person into Christian discipleship in the following year.
3. Introduce the new Certified Lay Minister training process at a meeting at the Wesley Center on April 25th. Mr. Tim Hebert has worked long and hard to get this tremendous opportunity for advanced service to the church off the ground.
4. Institute Lay Leader training in all the Districts by next year.
5. Create an authentic partnership with the ordained clergy of our Conference to sustain a vibrant, fresh emphasis on making Disciples for Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.

Concerns and Challenges Facing the CBOL

Our lingering challenge is to not allow the fears and lack of resolve to hinder the work that God has called us to do at this critical period. The United Methodist Church has thrived in difficult situations when the faith and passion of its members are strong. Therefore, since we live in uncertain times, some of the great opportunities before us include:

1. A renewed focus on financial stewardship to adequately fund the work we have been called to do.
2. Seeking persons to fill leadership roles who have passion and commitment for ministry with the promise to never again tell anyone that "this job doesn't take much time or effort". Special efforts must be made for reaching new faces and young faces in new spaces.
3. Reading widely in the faith classics and seeking and offering as many opportunities for further training and education as we possibly can; especially to advance the outreach of the church.

4. Striving to adequately utilize and publicize transformative experiences such as the Three Day Weekends to enhance spiritual centering and move more people into servant leadership roles.
5. Working with renewed energy to include all of God's people in discipleship, especially the ones who don't always look or act as we do.
6. Remembering to seek God's will first before undertaking any task and to use Wesley's Means of Grace as we move onto Perfection as a Board.

Items for Action by the Annual Conference

To support the programs and activities of the CBOL by buying tickets to our Laity Breakfast; attending our District Laity fundraisers to help build churches and send students to Centenary and Dillard; developing leaders by registering for our new Certified Lay Ministry training and Lay Speaking Schools; and recruiting people for our UMW, UMM, and youth ministries. Most of all, please support us by gathering your friends and transporting them to Alexandria on November 14th for the FaithSharing Event.

Sarah S. Kreutziger, Conference Lay Leader
Joyce Robinson, Associate Lay Leader

LAY SPEAKING MINISTRIES

The hundreds of people that have gone through lay speaking ministries training are actively involved in churches across the conference. We continue to promote lay speaking ministries courses as a way for laity to receive training in becoming better servants and leaders to the world around us. Beyond taking the basic course, there are over a dozen advanced courses in more specific areas such as worship, preaching, storytelling, evangelism, prayer, caring, missions, etc.

Courses were held across the conference in 2008. Baton Rouge, Shreveport, Lake Charles have held courses in early 2009, with courses planned for later 2009 in the other districts. We hope to be able to offer basic, basic refresher, and advanced courses in every district each year. If the time/location/topic in your district don't work out for you, feel free to take courses in other districts.

Across the conference, we'd like to see the program working in all 7 districts as the Discipline intends. Over the years, we tend to make compromises and allow things to continue because it's 'always' been done that way. We need to follow the proper guidelines for this program to be of optimal service in training up laity leaders in our conference.

It concerns us that some take this program too lightly. Wesley stressed how we are accountable. Even though lay speakers are volunteers without a salary, that doesn't make their work any less important.

Lay speakers, you should be willing to devote the time to turn in a report each year and to take courses (at least one every 3 years). Lay speaking ministries is not a certificate to put on your wall, but a process in which you become a more faithful and devoted servant in Christ's name. In becoming a lay speaker, you are saying that you want to learn more about how to be a better Christian and take leadership in ministering to others. Leadership requires responsibility.

Clergy, PLEASE call upon our lay speakers to serve in the areas of ministry in which they are gifted/called. Too many lay speakers become trained, only to sit by the phone waiting for a call that too rarely comes.

A database of certified lay speakers can be found at our conference website on the main lay speaking ministries page. We will work on keeping it up-to-date and accurate. If you need help outside your own church, please check the database for someone nearby.

Since the Certified Lay Minister program has now gotten underway - and you need to be a certified lay speaker to enter that program - we hope that lay speaking can serve as a launching point for those wanting to be even more involved in the ministry of the church. More information on the CLM program can be found at <www.layministry.org>.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Louisiana Conference Youth had yet another great year! Despite having fewer events due to unforeseen circumstances, we had participation throughout the conference. Normally Fall Convocation is held every September, but Hurricane Gustav caused us to suspend the event in thought of our districts still in turmoil from the storm. Junior High Retreat came next and was a great success. We minimized the event to only one weekend and had a full group of excited junior high youth. They learned more about this year's verse, Genesis 3:8-10, and the theme "Hide and Seek". The Senior High Retreats were both awesome as well. Everyone seemed have fun, meet new people and learn more about Christ. This year's DCYM training will be in June at the Wesley Center. This event is for all of the DCYM to come together and learn from each other. The 09-10 CCYM officers will also be elected at this time. We had a great group of CCYM this year that made these events the best they could be, and it was a pleasure working with them. They showed what kind of leaders they really were and did all they could to make these weekends successful. The YSF raised several thousand dollars thanks to the Louisiana Conference Youth and the CCYM who helped organize everything.

Hannah Grantham, President

LOUISIANA UNITED METHODIST HAPPENING

The Happening is a spiritual retreat which continues to renew youth and adult's spiritual life and provides a great weekend for participants. Each year two Happenings are held and staffed by mostly youth. Happening applications and more information can be found on the Happening website: <http://www.gbmg-umc.org/lahappening/>

Accomplishments and celebration of work completed:

The Happening is in its sixteenth year of offering its gifts to youth with over 1,300 folks attending.

Goals that are a priority for the upcoming year:

Making the Happening experience available to all youth in the Louisiana Conference.

Concerns and challenges facing board or agency:

DAUGHENBAUGH-MATHENY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship Fund had a smooth transition to the 2008-2012 Quadriennium with the help of Glennell Cottrill, previous director; Lynette Viskozki of the Financial Aid Office at Centenary College and Monique King, Financial Aid Counselor at Dillard University. The Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship benefits Louisiana United Methodist students at both Centenary College and Dillard University, our two United Methodist institutions of higher education.

We gave twenty scholarships for the 2008-09 school year of $1200 each. Centenary College had seventeen recipients with the following breakdown: six were first year recipients, five were second year recipients, three were third year recipients and three were fourth year recipients. Dillard University had three recipients with the following breakdown: two first year recipients and one fourth year recipient.

Our goals for 2009-2010 are:

1. Continue to publicize the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship in each district.
2. Continue to pursue the listing of this scholarship on Centenary's and Dillard's web pages.
3. Increase the number of applications and recipients.
4. Increase the amount of each scholarship awarded.

We continue to encourage every Louisiana United Methodist student attending either Centenary or Dillard to apply for the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship. The scholarship can be renewed annually while attending one of these institutions by maintaining a 2.5 GPA and participating in the church.

With the Lord's help we will continue to support Louisiana United Methodist students who seek to receive their higher education while attending Centenary College or Dillard University.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Accomplishments and Celebration

We are constantly seeking to fulfill the purpose of the United Methodist Women. We started the year by celebrating UMW Sunday with the theme: “Go Forward: Resurrection Women”. As we reflected on the theme and the Scripture from Galatians 2:20, which states: “I am crucified with Christ: Nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me,” we continued to live out that theme and Scripture all year.

In June at Annual Conference we recognized one of our UMW dedicated members, Lueburda Myers, past president of United Methodist Women at the Award's Luncheon. She received the United Methodist Women's Award for OUTSTANDING service and tireless devotion to the United Methodist Women and to the work of the Lord.

Living the Sacred was our School of Christian Mission theme and it was led by Dean Evelyn Martin and Assistant Dean Joyce Thibodeaux. Under the capable leadership of Evelyn and Joyce, we had a very successful school. Our mission Studies were: Spiritual Growth, “I Believe in Jesus”, Social Interest, Native American Survival and Geographic Study was Israel/Palestine. These studies strengthened our daily walk with Jesus. I Believe in Jesus study taught us that to believe in Jesus is to love as God loved and live as Christ lived, valuing ALL creation – to believe in Jesus is to live in the way of Christ, freeing the oppressed, healing the sick and wounded, clothing the naked, welcoming all. That is a familiar theme of our church, “Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors, the people of the United Methodist Church.”

To continue with the I Believe in Jesus study from the School of Christian Mission where we are called to value ALL creation, “The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein” (Psalm 24:1) our theme for our Annual Meeting reinforced the creation story with “Resurrection Women: Living Simply to Resurrect the Earth”. Once again, hurricanes caused us to cancel our Annual Meeting in Lake Charles in September and to move it to the Wesley Center in October. We also combined the Annual Meeting with DELT (District Elected Leadership Training). Our scheduled speaker for Annual Meeting in September was the deputy general secretary of the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church, Harriett Olson. She was unable to make the October date but she did send us a DVD with her message to share with us. Taylor Phillips, Lake Charles District President served as chairperson and Myrna Freeman, president of United Methodist Women at First United Methodist Church in Lake Charles, the scheduled host church, served as co-chairperson. These ladies and their task force had worked tirelessly to make our Annual Meeting a grand event and a great success. Although we did not meet in Lake Charles, we sincerely thanked them for their hard work. Dolores Giles, President of the Baton Rouge District was chair of DELT which was combined with Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, election of officers and retirement of officers took place. Also Myrna Freeman was recognized as the recipient of the 2008 Women in Mission Award.

Although at the time of our Annual Meeting in October, many of the women were still without electricity and had suffered loss of property and food. Still almost a hundred women attended the Annual Meeting and brought MISSION SUPPLIES for our agencies. They were overwhelmed with the generosity that was shown by the UMW especially during the crisis that many were facing in their own lives.

The SPIRITUAL RETREAT was held at the Wesley Center and Reverend Janet Wolf, an Elder in the Tennessee Conference was the Bible Study and Retreat Leader. The theme was "Listening with New Ears". The Retreat was indeed Spirit-filled and very successful and when we left the Retreat, we felt that we are better able to hear when God is speaking to us and we are able to better listen to God in a new way.

Vision and Goal

There are several initiatives that we are undertaking. They are:

1. MEMBERSHIP COUNTS – Every district in the Louisiana Conference is requested to visit each church at least once during the year. Also, we are asking each member to bring another member with them when they come to our events.
2. SURVEY FORM – each member is asked to fill out the survey form to let us know what they want and how we can better serve them.
3. CHARTER FOR RACIAL JUSTICE – a committee will be formed as a part of the LA Conference United Methodist Women. This committee will highlight and emphasize a social issue in our state and will work diligently to make a difference.

God again blessed the United Methodist Women with an excellent year and we give Him all the HONOR, PRAISE and GLORY and we look forward to another successful year.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES & HISTORY

The maintenance of an Archives & History website <www.iscuo.org> is an ongoing process. Numerous resources on our heritage can be found there. For example, we continue to add memoirs to the online database each year.

A new project began in 2008 to digitize the New Orleans Christian Advocate (our conference paper for our first 100 years). Our 2008 budget allowed us to digitize the almost 5,000 issues that are on microfilm. We thank the archives for allowing us to borrow the microfilm for this purpose. The first issues began appearing online in March 2009 and more will be added as I have the time to convert and post them. That project, once completed, will allow the entire conference (and beyond) access to thousands of documents vital for church research. Till now, it has only existed in microfilm form in the basement of the Centenary library and has been rarely used.

Other than the Advocate, the major source of historical material needed by churches to do research is the Annual Conference Journal. We plan on digitizing those documents (starting the first one in 1847) and posting relevant material online for our churches to access. We will begin as soon as the budget allows. We hope to first digitize the journals from the 1800s. Since later journals got progressively larger, the task will be more difficult (costly) as we move towards the present. We would like to go as far as our funding will allow.

A major concern is the lack of funding. We understand the hard times, but are sad that our budget for 2009 and 2010 were reduced to $1000 from the long-time budget of $3000. This will hinder the progression of our projects to make research materials more available to the local churches. We hope that our funding can be returned to the level that we have had for the past few decades.

We'd like to remind everyone that a petition was passed several years ago requiring churches to send copies of their records and vital documents/images to the archives for safekeeping. With the ever-present threat of hurricanes, fire, tornado, etc., we need to make sure we have our historical information available for our future.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS WE CELEBRATE

- "Full communion" with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA) was ratified at General Conference and will be ratified by the ELCA in August 2009. We developed information to distribute at Annual Conference about this historic agreement.
- We sent a representative to the National Workshop on Christian Unity in April, 2009 (this is the first year that there will be a specific United Methodist track).
- We participated in the Louisiana Interchurch Conference (among other things, LIC helped organize the interfaith response to the 2008 KKK intimidation in Metairie).

- Support was given to the following ecumenical ministries: Kairos Prison Ministry, Prison Chapel Project, Ulster Project.

GOALS

We plan to initiate a pair of annual awards for outstanding work toward the goal of Christian unity and interreligious cooperation. One award will be for an individual and one award will be for a church. Similar award programs have been used successfully in other annual conferences. This will replace the “Ecumenical Breakfast” as a way to highlight ecumenical and interfaith work in our conference, develop leadership, and encourage participation.

VISION

- Promoting ecumenical and interfaith cooperation among the diverse faith communities in Louisiana.
- Informing and educating members of the Louisiana Annual Conference about mutual agreements and cooperative work being done among the diverse faith communities in Louisiana.
- Representing the Louisiana Annual Conference in ecumenical and interfaith gatherings.

GENERAL COMMENTS

The work of the CCUIC is involved in all four major focus areas of our denomination:

1. Developing Principled Christian Leaders for the Church and the World

We help develop Christian leaders who can effectively work with leaders of other denominations or faith traditions.

2. New Places for New People and Renewing Existing Congregations

We help develop new places for new people through cooperative campus ministries, cooperative youth ministries, cooperative prison ministries, and even cooperative congregational worship. The CCUIC helps form the culture of cooperation that makes this possible.

3. Engaging in Ministry with the Poor

Many significant ministries with the poor have ecumenical funding and leadership. We help members of the Louisiana Annual Conference understand, celebrate and participate in this work.

4. Stamping out Killer Diseases of Poverty by Improving Health Globally

Many significant global health ministries have ecumenical funding and leadership. We help members of the Louisiana Annual Conference understand, celebrate and participate in this work.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The 2008-2012 Commission on Religion and Race gathered for the first time on February 27, 2008. Provost Don Cottrill met with the Commission and provided valuable information from a conference-wide perspective. Out of the 15 members, there were seven present. Those present were: Rev. Lys Cockrell, Chair, Mr. Troy Brouillette, Rev.

Katie McKay, Ms. Carolyn Jones, Rev. Peggy Foreman, Rev. Charles Hill, and Mr. Leon Holts. Rev. Charles Hill was chosen as Vice Chair and Rev. Peggy Foreman as Secretary/Treasurer.

After examining the multicultural aspects of our individual churches, we focused on the purpose and goals of the General CORR. The overriding concern to be addressed is the lack of unity among all ethnic groups to do the work of God. The hope is to establish a common ground with a variety of ethnic groups in our own communities, uniting them to work alongside each other in a community project. There were seven specific issues brought before the Commission:

- (1) What is the common ground in your communities? We referred to the “Chipping Away” article in Interpreter, which provided examples of how groups have moved forward with this.
- (2) What are the racial issues that still exist in your communities? What are the areas of discord? We all agreed that our communities have truly not come together in worship or service of the Lord’s work.
- (3) What inclusiveness resources do we have and how are we utilizing them?
- (4) How are we reaching out to immigrants?
- (5) Are we directly involved in anti-racism training in our communities? If so, how? The response by those in attendance was that nothing specific was being done in the representative communities.
- (6) What are the specific advocacy issues in our conference?
- (7) How can we give Louisiana Conference a new identity which will say that we are inclusive?

The discussion on these issues yielded these decisions:

- (1) Considering the following statement made by one of our members, “The highest level of hospitality toward someone is to invite them into your own home,” those present from the Commission decided to become more assertive in this area.
- (2) We decided to directly address the fears that still exist by hosting small discussion groups in our own homes back in our communities. We all committed to invite representatives from various ethnic groups into our homes for a meal and casual conversation just to get to know each other. We also agreed we need to follow up on this with further informal meetings.
- (3) We decided to invite representatives from different ethnic groups to come to our churches for a potluck meal. At that time we would discuss the common ground concerns of our communities (i.e. tutoring sessions, environmental issues, housing concerns, transportation needs, etc). The goal here is to work together on one specific project.
- (4) Invite other ethnic groups to participate on our athletic teams. Many of us have church leagues in a variety of sports which could draw others in and lead to establishing relationships.

- (5) We decided that there is a need to offer training on a conference level to enable us to move forward evangelistically toward other cultures.
- (6) A contact will be made after Easter with all Commission members to follow up on the progress made toward these decisions.

Rev. Lys Cockrell will attend the three-day training conference hosted by the General CORR and relay information to all members of the Commission. The Commission also decided to set up an accountability measure for all decisions made by establishing either conference calls or internet conversations. The only expense incurred in the current budget is the cost of the airline ticket to Nashville for the training conference and that is $327.90.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN WE CELEBRATE

- ◆ The adoption of the safe sanctuaries policy requirement by the 2008 Annual Conference session and its implementation in all churches by January 2009.
- ◆ The continued work of the Early Response team and we recommend annual or biannual training for clergy and lay leaders.
- ◆ A successful Luncheon last year. The luncheon was attended by approximately 120 persons. Our speaker was Rev. Grace Imathiu from Brown Deer, Wisconsin. At the luncheon we recognized 8 ordinands, (5 elders and 3 deacons), 4 newly commissioned women (2 elder track and 2 deacon track), and one local pastor who completed the course of study.
- ◆ The Sojourner Truth award for 2008 was presented to Cheryl Edney of First UMC, Lafayette.
- ◆ Monitoring continues at annual conference. All sessions are monitored for inclusiveness as per men/women, lay/clergy, racial/ethnic persons, and young adults (18-30). The results are distributed each day as a method of increasing awareness.
- ◆ The COSROW chairperson attended the General COSROW training for annual conference leaders.
- ◆ The general church conducted a survey of clergy spouses and a clergy spouse retreat was held in the Louisiana Annual Conference.

OUR GOALS FOR THE COMING YEAR

In light of COSROW's mission and the general church's quadrennial focus areas, especially on developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world and engaging in ministry with the poor, the following goals were adopted:

- ◆ Lifting up the leadership of clergy and encouraging and supporting new church leaders by honoring them at the COSROW luncheon and in other ways
- ◆ Helping persons, especially women, ethnic persons, and young adults, to find ways to identify and respond to the call to lay and representative ministry, educating them about scholarship opportunities available for preparation for that ministry.
- ◆ Encouraging lay women to church leadership, helping them and all persons find their vocation and call.
- ◆ Educating persons about the reality of the status and role of women in the Louisiana annual conference through monitoring annual conference sessions as well as board, and committee/commission leadership as per participation of women, racial and Ethnic persons, laity, young adults, etc. in the leadership of the annual conference.

OUR CHALLENGES AND CONCERNS

- ◆ Finding ways to encourage laywomen and young adults to discover their spiritual gifts and use them in ministry, as well as encourage pastors to support the ministry of the laity.
- ◆ Addressing the needs of clergy families as a whole.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS

For another consecutive year, the Louisiana Annual Conference received grant funding from United Methodist Communications for an Igniting Ministry statewide television campaign. The campaign aired in the Lenten season. We have been blessed to receive Igniting Ministry funding each year since the program's inception, and Jackie Vaughn (IM director) indicated that our conference is one of the initiative's strongest supporters and participants. Due to this strong relationship, Louisiana has been chosen as a test market for Igniting Ministry for the next quadrennium. An increasing number of local churches are seeking and receiving IM funding for local church media efforts, some for more than one of the three in a year (Back to School, Advent, Lent).

At the 2008 annual conference, the test market relationship with Igniting Ministry was announced, and Bishop Hutchinson issued a challenge to local churches to take the necessary steps to become certified as Welcoming Congregations. District Superintendents have distributed the information at charge conferences, and our department is following through with Igniting Ministry to be sure that churches are complying with the Bishop's request.

The Communications Director worked collaboratively with the Communications Department of the Mississippi Annual Conference to produce a video promoting the Katrina Church Recovery Appeal. The video was played during the 2008 General Conference held in April. The video received a Best of Division Award at the 2008 United Methodist Association of Communicators annual meeting.

Stories written by the Communications Director about ministry in the Louisiana Conference have appeared as United Methodist News Services stories and in national United Methodist publications.

Special editions of the Louisiana Now! have included editions focusing on Louisiana UM Disaster Response, youth ministry, Louisiana Volunteers in Mission and United Methodist Women, now running quarterly inserts. Regular ads from the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana have been running, and Centenary College is now a regular advertiser.

With input from a newly formed Conference Communications Committee, the Communications Director and the Conference Webmaster are working on a complete rebuild of the conference website. It is anticipated that the site will be unveiled at annual conference, or shortly after conference. The new Communications Committee is focusing on the website, welcoming certification, and the development of a church communicator's network.

A conference-wide Igniting Ministry training was held March 13-14, 2009 at The Wesley Center. Organized through the Communications office, national representatives presented a "train the trainer" component and a component for churches that wish to send individuals or teams to learn more about Igniting Ministry and the new Rethink Church aspect that focuses on reaching 18-34 year olds.

Betty Backstrom, Communications Director

CHURCH EXTENSION AND TRANSFORMATION

Our Vision is:

- for the Louisiana Annual Conference to aggressively close the gap between what Christ calls us to be and what is now;
- to revitalize ministries of local congregations;
- to begin ten vital, new congregations, including two ethnic congregations, between 2001 and 2011;
- to develop a comprehensive system of support for pastors and leaders of new congregations;
- to engage every lay and clergy person in our Annual Conference in Christ's mandate to make disciples.

1. REVITALIZING MINISTRIES OF LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

Through the ministry of our Conference Transformation Consultants, we are currently:

- Developing, in consultation with TAG Consulting, a new transformation process for mid-sized congregations.
- Completing the training of consultants and coaches to guide small congregations through a new Town and Country Leaders Academy.
- Continuing to lead fifteen congregations through our church new transformation process.
- Training pastors to better understand their communities through MissionInsite demographics research.
- Celebrating the successful completion of the church new process by Ingelside UMC and Blackwater UMC.

2. BEGINNING VITAL NEW CONGREGATIONS

We celebrate the vital ministries of our youngest congregations:

- Faith Community UMC Youngsville (started 2002)
- NorthPoint UMC Blanchard (started 2004)
- Fairfield UMC Shreveport (started at new site 2005)
- Faith Crossing UMC Denham Springs (started 2007)
- NewSong UMC Prairieville (started 2007)
- The Well UMC Ponchatoula (started 2007)

We look forward to:

- Continued participation in Path1 - a national strategy for planting new United Methodist churches in the USA. Path1's objective for 2008-2012 is: To equip 1,000 church planters who, will start 650 churches that average 350 in worship, who start a new congregation within their first 10 years beginning a process that forms 2,500,000 new disciples of Jesus Christ within 30 years.
- Identifying four healthy mother churches committed to planting new congregations or creating satellite congregations by 2012.

3. DEVELOPING A COMPREHENSIVE SYSTEM OF SUPPORT FOR PASTORS AND LEADERS OF NEW CONGREGATIONS

Working with church planting strategist, Don Smith, the Office of Church Extension and Transformation continues its church planting initiative - a comprehensive process of identifying, assessing, training, and coaching new church planters. Prospective planters continue to be identified and trained in an 18 month training process to prepare them to plant vital, fast growing churches in Louisiana and to reach new people for Christ.

- Seven pastors have completed training and assessment
- Five pastors are currently being coached by Don Smith
- Five pastors are currently enrolled in training through the New Church Leaders' Institute
- Two pastors are currently enrolled in training through the Young Pastors' Network

4. ENGAGING EVERYONE IN CHRIST'S MANDATE TO MAKE DISCIPLES

We celebrate:

- The ministry of the Bob Lay 1000 Club to raise money and awareness for new church starts.
- The ministry of the Board of Discipleship to train persons in "Five Practices for Faithful Congregations" and "Faith Sharing".

5. CONCERNS AND CHALLENGES

We are concerned about reaching a new generation for Christ.

- Almost 50% of Louisiana citizens have no church involvement.
- The average Louisiana United Methodist church sees 1 adult conversion per year for every 108 persons in attendance.
- The average new church, from zero to three years old, sees 1 adult conversion per year for every 3 persons in attendance.
- New churches are thirty times more effective than existing churches at reaching people for Jesus Christ, yet we are not committing adequate resources to starting new churches in Louisiana.

We challenge every United Methodist in Louisiana to:

- Pray daily for all of our churches to become more committed to reaching new people for Jesus Christ.
- Make friends with un-churched and de-churched persons in your neighborhood and workplace and offer them Christ.
- Join the Bob Lay 1000 Club and help finance the building of new churches.
- Encourage your church and/or Sunday school class to include in its budget regular, monthly support for our current new church starts.

MULTICULTURAL MINISTRIES

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

During Annual Conference 2008, the Office of Multicultural Ministries/Africa University Committee presented the Africa University: Shelter for the Future Campaign Proposal to build a Dormitory at Africa University. The Africa University Committee was reorganized and District Ambassadors identified to help raise $900,000.00 for the dormitory.

From June to October 2008, the New Director of Multicultural Ministries visited 56 Racial Ethnic Churches, met with 43 individual pastors, held 4 Clergy/Laity Group Meetings (average 16 persons) and met with the District Superintendents in the 7 districts in the Conference. Also, a new group interested in Multicultural Congregational Ministries was created.

The Office sponsored a Fact Finding Mission Experience to Senegal, West Africa November 5-17, 2008. Four persons participated in the Medical Mission. A follow-up National Consultation on Senegal will be held in Milwaukee, WI in April 2009 to determine how the Louisiana Africa Initiative can work cooperatively with other Conferences to support ministries in Senegal

For the first time the W.T. Handy Convocation (2008) was held at the Wesley Center. Over 200 persons were in attendance. The W.T. Handy Convocation will be offered alternate years in New Orleans and Woodworth to respond to all the participants. The 2009 event is scheduled in New Orleans at Dillard University and the speaker will be Rev. Melvin Amerson of the Texas United Methodist Foundation.

The Office offered the 2009 Pastors of African American Churches Retreat at the Wesley Center, Feb 15-16th. Sixty-five pastors participated in the Retreat with the theme: Congregational Stewardship and Personal Finances. The Retreat was partially sponsored by the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation.

The 2009 W. T. Handy Annual Conference Luncheon will be held on Wednesday, June 10th with guest speaker, Rev. Dr. Fred Allen, National Coordinator for Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century

Hispanic Ministries in Greater New Orleans continue to expand with the addition of 2 new Hispanic Missionaries, the start of a Spanish Speaking Worship Service at Covenant Church in Chalmette, and the Multicultural Congregation at First Grace UMC.

The Dulac Community providing Native American Ministry experienced damage from yet another hurricane in 2008. In the midst of recovery and rebuilding, once again the Native American Ministry is responding to meet the needs of the people. Two Native American Young Adults attended the National Native American Summit in California. These young women are developing leadership skills they are using in their community.

Vietnamese Ministry continues to grow in the Conference. One Vietnamese Young Adult was assisted in participating in the National Asian Leadership Conference in California

GOALS AND PRIORITY FOR 2010

The Goals and Priority for 2010 are grounded in the Four Integrated Focus Areas of the Annual Conference: Leadership Development, New Congregations and strengthening existing congregations, Global Health and Eliminating Killer Disease and Working with the Poor.

1. To strengthen existing congregations, The Office of Multicultural Ministries and the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation are jointly sponsoring a 12 month "Stewardship Consulting Pilot Group" of 6 Baton Rouge District Churches – Camphor, Jordan, Neely, Roberts, St. Mark and Wesley. The pilot will conclude March 2010. Upon the completion of the pilot, arrangements will be made for other churches to receive stewardship consultation.

2. To create space for more people, more faces, more diverse people, The Office of Multicultural Ministries will offer trainings in Multicultural Ministries for Congregations.
3. To be in Ministry with the Poor, The Office will work with congregations seeking to engage persons living in poverty and those becoming the “New Poor” in the U.S. as well as persons in Russia, India and other parts of the world.
4. To help eliminate killer diseases and work for Global Health, The Office’s work with the Mission Initiatives in Cambodia, Mexico, and Africa. Africa University is testing the Malaria Blanket which would help eliminate Malaria with the Malaria Nets purchased with funds from our United Methodist “Nothing But Nets” Campaign. For example, Mission Opportunities to Africa through The Office will continue in collaboration with VIM.
5. To develop Christian Leaders, The Office will increase the number of persons participating in Conference sponsored, as well as General Church sponsored, Leadership Development events. Upon completion of trainings a person will be offered opportunities to offer their gifts to the Church.

CONCERNS AND CHALLENGES:

The economic climate of 2009-2010 and beyond greatly concerns the Office. Funding for supporting the ministries in the Conference has been reduced. The churches and communities are challenged with identifying even more creative ways to support ministries. We are grateful for the support to the ministries of the Office of Multicultural Ministries.

Martha M. Orphe, Director

HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRIES

Under the umbrella of the 4 foci adopted by the General Conference, the Hispanic/Latino Ministries Task Force continues emphasizing three main areas: 1) Expansion of the community ministries, 2) Leadership development, and 3) Congregational development.

Expansion of Community Ministries

The 3 Hispanic/Latino community centers established in the New Orleans District continue addressing the needs of the Hispanic/Latino community and developing strong relationships with the immigrants. The community centers are located in existing UMC churches (First Grace, Covenant and El Mesias). The 3 centers are offering many programs, including English as a Second Language (ESL), Spanish classes, General Equivalency Diploma (GED) classes at El Mesias (20 students are currently enrolled in this program), Bible Studies, job referrals, health care, child care, translations, etc.

We are continually expanding and upgrading the programs/services offered at El Mesias UMC in order to better serve more Hispanics and Latinos. El Mesias UMC in Kenner is the only Hispanic/Latino church in the Louisiana Conference. It holds two worship services on Sundays. Attendance is about 60-65 people and would likely be higher if not for space constraints in the sanctuary.

El Mesias' members are active United Methodists, with 9 certified lay speakers in the congregation. Three members were also certified from the Module I (National Plan for Hispanic/Latinos Ministries) training seminars in 2008. Two members serve in committees for the general boards of the church and the Louisiana Conference. Missionary Maribel Calvo is now a certified candidate in the Charge Conference to continue pursuing a Seminary education.

Other community outreach services are also offered by the 3 Community Centers, including weekly radio programs, health fairs, semi-annual health surveys, College fairs and Motivational conferences. Translation services are also available on an as-needed basis. In 2009, Rev. Samuel Calvo and our three missionaries for Hispanic/Latino ministries will share the hosting duties of the radio program. Individual and family counseling are available at the church and centers. Food and clothing are provided to anyone in need.

The Louisiana Conference continued providing financial support for an ecumenical Immigration Services Center in Alexandria. Louisiana Immigration Services Center will serve the Central Louisiana area. This office is an interfaith and ecumenical ministry of faith communities (Christian, Jewish, and Muslim).

Our Hispanic/Latino Ministries Task Force is developing strategies to educate others in our Annual Conference about the need to recognize and develop Hispanic/Latino ministries. To overcome the language barrier, Spanish classes are already being conducted at the 3 Community Centers to help clergy and lay persons learn Spanish. Plans are to offer Spanish classes in every district in the next 3-5 years, targeting clergy and laypersons.

Leadership Development

A Module I seminar was offered last fall at the center in First Grace UMC. People from the 3 centers attended the seminar. Rev. Oscar Ramos and Rev. Juanita Ramos are the certified instructors for the Module I and II (National Plan for Hispanic Ministries). These seminars train and enlist the leadership of laypersons who are interested in working with Hispanic/Latino ministries. These leaders will be critical to the growth of Hispanic/Latino ministries in the Annual Conference. Nine Spanish-speaking laypersons graduated from the Module I seminar in 2008. Plans are to provide a Module II Seminar in 2009.

Congregational Development

In the New Orleans District, another significant development in multicultural ministries is the continuance of bilingual worship services at First Grace and Covenant UM Churches. The Hispanic/Latino Ministries Task Force continues to forge opportunities to offer bilingual worship services at other UMC churches.

The missionaries of the centers in Covenant UMC and First Grace formed faith communities. The missionary and some members of El Mesias are exploring the possibilities of developing new faith communities in Gretna, Gonzales and Baton Rouge.

Pete Aguila, Chair

NATIVE AMERICAN TASK FORCE

The Ministry of the Louisiana Conference Native American Task Force celebrates the Recovery Effort due to damage caused by Katrina and Rita in 2005, and the recent disaster caused by Gustav and Ike. The leadership of Darrel Guy and the Dulac Station has touched many lives in the Dulac area due to the outpouring of help provided by VIM groups, and Nomads who have come to Dulac and Terrebonne Parish. The Native American Task Force celebrates the on-going support of Clanton Chapel, Clanton Chapel Preschool, and the Dulac Community Center through many churches and UMW groups who continue to support these Ministries to the people of Dulac. We celebrate the churches who donated to have the three mobile homes lifted so that more housing can be provided for VIM groups. The mobile homes were finally lifted in March, 2009! We celebrate the repair and opening of Clanton Chapel's Bayou Self R/V Park and all the volunteers who have used these facilities. We celebrate the repairs on the Dulac Community Center done by many VIM groups. We celebrate the repairs on Clanton Chapel sanctuary and the Clanton Chapel Preschool by many groups. We celebrate the United Methodist Native American Women's Gathering in Albuquerque that trained two of our Task Force members in September, 2008.

Goals that are a priority for next year of the Native American Task Force include improving the unique identity of Clanton Chapel, Clanton Chapel Preschool and the Dulac Community Center to help churches and individuals know that each of these ministries are unique and autonomous and any support should be directed to that specific Ministry. The Native American Task Force requests that each church in the Louisiana Conference provide one contact person for the Native American Task Force, and that the Task Force also welcomes more members for the Louisiana Native American Task Force. The Task Force will work to develop more speakers to share the stories of the Native American Ministries in Dulac.

Concerns and challenges: The Native American Task Force seeks to help more of the local Native American United Methodists to be empowered to work within the Ministries of the United Methodist Church in Louisiana due to the low numbers of Native American United Methodists in the Ministries of the United Methodist Church by advocating the involvement of the local Native American United Methodists on the Native American Task Force. The Native American Task Force also welcomes more members of all colors onto the Native American Task Force to share the importance of the Task Force to all churches in Louisiana.

Items for action by the Louisiana Annual Conference:

The Native American Task Force would like to request the continued support of the Louisiana Native American Task Force, the Multicultural Ministries and Dr. Martha Orphe, who has been our link to the Louisiana Conference, and to other Native American Ministries throughout the country so that help can be provided for Clanton Chapel, Clanton Chapel Preschool, Dulac Community Center, and the Disaster Recovery Ministry by our Bishop William Hutchinson, the Cabinet, Laity and Pastors. The Native American Task Force would like to ask for continued support of the United Houma Nation for Federal Recognition. The Native American Task Force also requests the continued support for the Morganza to the Gulf Hurricane Levee Protection System so that our People and Ministries are not destroyed by the Gulf of Mexico.

LOUISIANA VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

At the beginning of 2009, LAVIM embarked on two major construction projects. Largely financed by our team members as well as their work in outside fund raising, we will begin construction on the Warne Baby Fold Chapel, Clara Swain Hospital in Bareilly, India and the New Betania School at Iglesia Metodista Piedra Angular (Cornerstone Methodist Church) in Reynosas, Mexico.

After several medical and construction teams to the Baby Fold and Clara Swain in India, our teams have longed for the opportunity to complete the Baby Fold compound with its projected third phase - a chapel. Warne Baby Fold was established by the UMW of the USUMC many years ago as an orphanage for unwanted children and a pre-natal and child care training school for young mothers. It stands today as one of the finest and most successful examples of our UM mission work in India. Beginning with a grant of $10,000 secured by LAVIM from the Women's Division of the UMC, at this writing over $34,000 has been raised of the $50,000 total needed and construction began on November 1, 2008. LAVIM teams have participated in the construction on two different missions in 2009. The chapel will be completed in August and already a beautiful 7' X 8" stain glass window given by LAVIM teams of Jesus gathering his Indian children, has been installed.

The New Betania School has been a dream and in the planning for our Mexican partners in the San Paulo District of the Mexican Methodist Church for about seven years. LAVIM teams of past years have caught the fever and are excited to begin work on this innovative new school. Teams will contribute to construction costs at $100 per member. This will be matched by funding from a Mexico construction grant given by the Louisiana UM Foundation several years ago. All total, we expect that LAVIM will contribute over $65,000 to this project in gifts and matching funds. The Valle Hermosa Church was completed in late 2008 through the original use of the Foundation grant.

Over thirty-five teams are calendared for the Mexico/US border area in 2009 and many of these will offer medical clinics as well as construction on New Betania School as part of its hands on ministry. In 2008, 29 teams were completed with over 300 volunteers. Presently we have 31 teams scheduled for Mexico in 2010. We expect this number to grow.

LAVIM continues their efforts to assist in the rebuilding of our state through co-sponsorship with Louisiana Disaster Recovery's the "Makin' A Difference" events. These events suffered their own rebuilding efforts in 2008 as other Conference wide events and meetings were scheduled over them, but both Disaster and LAVIM are hopeful for great turnouts of volunteers and unaffected event dates in 2009.

In 2008 a major project honoring Mount Sequoyah's and the SCJ's role in Louisiana Disaster Recovery was begun, constructed and dedicated at the Jurisdiction's Conference and Retreat facility – Louisiana Friendship Plaza. At a cost of over $25,000, the plaza was constructed with professional and volunteer help in a three month time period. It was dedicated at Bishop's Week in June and remains a reminder of what has happened here and our appreciation of those who came to our rescue.

In 2008, LAVIM teams have served in Cambodia (2), Cuba (2), Honduras, India (2), Mexico (33), Russia (2), South Africa (1), Senegal (1), Alaska (2), Arkansas (3), Kentucky (1), Sager Brown (2), Dulac (1), and Mississippi (1). There have been three Early Response Trainings (ERT) with just over seventy certified as responders. Work in this area is being held up as we search for a new ERT Training person to replace Tony Fontenot. Many additional missions have been enabled by LAVIM as local churches, youth groups and Districts have sought information about projects, insurance and arrangements through the Conference office. We are presently in conversation with two proposed Co-Leaders for this area of service.

There were 64 missions completed in 2008 of 69 planned. Twenty- one were medical and forty-three were construction. Five hundred and ninety-nine volunteers participated in those missions and worked over 4,333 scheduled hours. LAVIM worked in ten countries during 2008 and seven different US locations. There were forty international projects and eleven US projects. $78,255.00 was collected from volunteers for all mission expenses, of which $59,820.00 was provided for project materials and $18,435.00 for medical supplies. An additional reported $89,311.00 was given by volunteers, teams and Conference agencies to the missions where teams participated. This represents a total collection and expenditure of $614,347.00 on behalf of our teams.

For 2009, there are missions planned for Cambodia (2), Chile (1), Cuba (2), Honduras (1), India (2), Russia (1), Alaska (2), Mount Sequoyah (2), Choctaw UM Mission (1), New Mexico (1), and a Family Mission to Christian Alliance for International Mission as well as the Mexico mission previously mentioned.

LAVIM Team Leader Training was held in January 2009 and over 75 leaders were trained in eight course divisions:

Recruitment and Team Preparation – Ann Sutton and Jerry Hilbun

Paperwork, Budget and Deadlines – Brenda Coppit, Pat Mauras, and Larry Norman

On the Road, Caring for the Team – Jack O'Dell\

LAVIM Covenant, Policies and Safe Sanctuaries – Dawn Young

Why We Go? and Spiritual Formation – Larry Norman

Cultural Issues – Dr. Betty Whitehurst

Getting Home and Follow-UP Issues – Walt Whitehurst

Where Do We Go From Here? Mission for the Future – Dr. Robert Hunt

for which they qualified for 2 CEU's, including assigned reading of Jonah's Whale: Reconnecting the Congregation with Mission. Approximately 40 of these leaders were new to LAVIM. After each training team leaders are certified by LAVIM and UMVIM for two years during which time they may lead LAVIM missions. Recertification is achieved by attending team leader training every other year.

At this writing 19 persons have just returned from Cambodia where this group of medical volunteers saw over 1000 patients. Another 19 volunteers representing McNeese Wesley Foundation returned in January from India, having worked on the Baby Fold Chapel and providing VBS for over 80 of its children. The second week of this mission gathered our LAVIM team and a matching team of Indian young adults at the famed Sat Tal Ashram established by E. Stanley Jones. This international gathering of young adults (Ecuador, Peru, Jamaica, US and India!) discussed their faith, the issues of being Christian, young and in cultures that do not necessarily value their faith or the expression of that faith as well as painted and repaired portions of the over 100 year old Ashram. Another team to India returned in early March celebrating its work among the children of the Baby Fold and joyous at the near completion of the new chapel. Teams are leaving every day for Mexico to do medial and construction work and 17 volunteers are completing their plans for South Africa in May to help with the building of a school and working with learning disadvantaged children. They return just a few days before our Annual Conference gathering.

As LAVIM begins its 12th year our Bishops have challenged our ministries to four focus areas:

Developing Principled Christian Leaders for the Church and the World

New Places for New People and Renewing Existing Congregations

Engaging in Ministry with the Poor

Stamping Out Killer Diseases of Poverty by Improving Health Globally

I believe that Louisiana Volunteers in Mission and its volunteers are not only doing that but is the definition of that challenge.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

With a new building, new faculty and staff, new curriculum, newly expanded financial aid initiatives---and even new art!---Candler School of Theology is moving with enthusiasm and grace through changes that enhance its ability to fulfill its mission: to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world. To this end, Candler is constantly working to deepen its already vital relationship with The United Methodist Church.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of nine graduate level, professional schools of United Methodist-related Emory University, Candler provides a context for learning and formation that engages the most complex and difficult issues of our day. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Georgia, Candler offers students the opportunity for practice in a highly diverse community, a global crossroads where church growth is expected, cultivated, and actually happening! There is no better place for preparation that resonates with and addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

On September 25, 2008, and with abundant joy, we dedicated Phase I of the new Candler School of Theology Building. A LEEDS silver certificate building, the "CST" includes offices and classrooms that provide the opportunity for technologically sophisticated work and community in an environmentally sound setting. Phase II, to be built in due time, will house the Pitts Theology Library, the Wesley Teaching Chapel, and additional offices and classrooms.

This year we welcomed the arrival of six new faculty and senior staff, five of whom are United Methodists. Forty two percent of the faculty and senior staff is United Methodist, and all but five are ordained. Two new staff positions were created, the Director of Lifelong Learning, filled by Dr. Bob Winstead, a member of the North Georgia Annual Conference and the Associate Dean of Methodist Studies, filled by Dr. Anne Burkholder, a member of the Florida Annual Conference. Both of these new positions serve the larger church as they connect clergy with new opportunities for learning; connect conferences and students who are ultimately seeking ordination; engage with denominational organizations at a variety of levels; oversee denominational certifications and the Course of Study; advise students; and teach courses. In addition, Bishop Ruediger Minor is with us for two years as the inaugural holder of the Hankey Chair in World Evangelism and Bishop Walter Klaiber is with us as Bishop-in-Residence during the spring semester.

Candler is in the second year of its new curriculum, designed to assist students in aligning their course selection with their call to ministry and integrating the classroom with their contextual education settings. This emphasis is accomplished through the selection of a concentration, the opportunity for special certifications, and joint programs and initiatives with three other Emory graduate schools: Goizueta Business School, Emory Law School, and Rollins School of Public Health.

We are delighted to report that in spite of the difficult economic realities that have had a serious impact on us all, Candler School of Theology and Emory University are faring well, due to sound fiscal stewardship and excellent donor support. The Emory Capital Campaign has achieved $881 million of its $1.7 billion goal. Candler's goal of $60 million will enable us to achieve strategic priorities regarding facilities, student support, lifelong learning, endowed professorships, programs and curriculum development, and international initiatives.

Candler has always been deeply committed to assisting students with generous financial aid, but in light of the current economic climate, we have deepened our commitment to significant student support in two very important ways. This academic year, 80 percent of eligible students received scholarships or grants, with an average award covering 79 percent of tuition. Through these awards, more than $2.5 million was provided to 196 United Methodist students. In addition, we created "Leadership Candler," an all-expenses-paid discernment experience that draws together distinguished prospective MDiv students from across the country and the world to explore the richness of life and study at Candler.

As a part of its contribution to the new building, Emory University provided Candler with a major grant for the purchase of new artwork. As a result, Candler is now home to the world's largest collection of original works by John August Swanson. Comprising both serigraphs and paintings, the collection focuses on biblical narratives and reflects the storytelling traditions of Swanson's Mexican-Swedish heritage as well as the influence of mosaics and stained glass from the Byzantine and medieval eras.

Candler's student body truly reflects the denominational emphasis on the importance of attracting younger and more diverse people. Our enrollment stands at 493, with 401 seeking the Master of Divinity, 50 the Master of Theological Studies, 18 the Master of Theology, 13 the Doctor of Theology, and 11 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. Eighty-three percent are enrolled full-time. The total student population is 24% US ethnic minority, 12% international, and 51% women. More than 50 denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist from 40 Annual Conferences, including Bulgaria, East Angola, Mozambique, and Korea. Other Methodist denominations include African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Church of the Nazarene, Free Methodist, Wesleyan Methodist, and the Methodist Church of Korea. The average age of our students is 32, with 56% under thirty. The median age of our MDiv students is 27.

Candler is deeply committed to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the development of persons for Christian ministry, especially in the United Methodist Church. We are grateful for your support of Candler through the Methodist Education Fund, visits, prayers, nurture of our students, and direct donor support. Come and see us! We would love to welcome you on campus to share your interest, your concerns, and your ideas!

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The mission of Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University is to prepare women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry. As an official school of theology within The United Methodist Church, it is part of our goal to continue to prepare leaders for ministry in the church by focusing on four key areas – formation, faculty, finances, and facilities.

One essential step in forming faithful leadership for the church of Jesus Christ is to partner with the annual conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction and beyond to identify those called to ministry, both the ordained and the lay ministry. One outstanding expression of this partnership is Exploration 2009, meeting in Dallas in November of this year. Sponsored by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Exploration is a three-day event for committed youth and young adults (high school seniors through age 24) to hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ministry and to explore their gifts for ordained ministry as deacon or elder in The United Methodist Church. Perkins is pleased to be involved in planning as well as assisting to host that fall gathering. Our own Tracy Anne Allred, Director of Student Services, is chair of the Exploration 2009 Design Team, and Herbert Coleman, Director of Recruitment, is a member of that team as well. The work of forming our youth and young adults in faith and vocation is a high calling of its own and Perkins is honored to share that task with the clergy and laity of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

Formation for faithful leadership not only requires attention to identifying those called to the ministries of deacons and elders, along with other pastoral ministries, but to preparing the next generation of Biblical scholars, theologians, ethicists, church historians, and practical theologians, such as teachers of preaching and pastoral care. Perkins has taken steps to increase financial and faculty support for its Graduate Program in Religious Studies, and has partnered with other schools of theology to support the Hispanic Theological Initiative to fund Latino and Latina students, both at the Ph.D. and master's level.

Regarding the Perkins faculty, graduates tell us that the quality and diversity of our 35-plus member faculty is one of the most valuable assets which students encounter here at Perkins. Every time we conduct a search for a new faculty member, our goal is to enhance the quality of teaching and research for the good of the church and its mission. This year we welcomed assistant professor of Old Testament, Dr. Susanne Scholz, to the Perkins faculty. We appointed Dr. Richard D. Nelson, W.J.A. Power Professor of Biblical Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation, to the office of Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. We are fortunate to have Dr. David Maldonado, Jr. among us for his second tenure at Perkins. He serves as the director of the newly established Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions at Perkins. In January, Dr. Joerg Rieger was appointed by the Provost of Southern Methodist University to the newly endowed Wendland-Cook Professorship in Constructive Theology. We were also pleased to welcome Rev. Susan Buchanan as Director of Recruitment and Student Services for the Houston-Galveston Extension Program. And we have named as associate director of Public Affairs and Adjunct Professor of Preaching, Dr. Paul Escamilla, who brings both pastoral and administrative experience to his work at Perkins. We said farewell to Dr. Edwin E. Sylvest, Jr., who retired as Professor Emeritus of Church History after 38 years at Perkins. On a personal note, last year SMU President R. Gerald Turner appointed me to the position of Director of Church Relations for the Office of the President. Additionally, I was elected by the General Conference in May 2008 to a position on the Judicial Council, a responsibility I feel deeply privileged to hold.

Rev. Todd Rasberry, Director of Development, continues working to raise funds necessary for the scholarship support of our students and the endowment of our programs. Only 50 percent of our needed revenue is generated by tuition. The other half is derived from our endowment earnings and support from congregations across the connection through the United Methodist Ministerial Education Fund.

On September 11 of this year, Perkins will dedicate three buildings for its work, including the new LEED Certified Elizabeth Perkins Prothro Hall and the renovated Kirby and Selecman Halls. (LEED certification is the recognized standard for measuring building sustainability in terms of environmental responsibility.) We are pleased that one of the inaugural public events in our new Prothro Hall will be the Hispanic Summer Program. Scheduled for mid-June, the program will bring together an international group of students and scholars for theological study and discourse across their disciplines within a Hispanic context. Dr. James T. Laney, the former President of Emory University and former U.S. Ambassador to South Korea, once said that “every new building is a declaration.” At Perkins, these new and renewed buildings are our declaration that God is leading us into the new millennium with boldness and vision for leading the wider church toward its mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, as our campus at Oklahoma City University welcomed its first class in fall 2008.

This academic year, 267 students from 17 states and 5 continents were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology. Twenty-two Master of Divinity students enrolled at the Saint Paul campus at Oklahoma City University. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 277 students from 23 annual conferences.

The seminary gathered in September to celebrate its 50th Opening Convocation in Kansas City. One week later Bishop Robert Hayes, President Tom McDaniel, and President Myron McCoy signed a unity document during the inaugural Opening Convocation ceremony for the Oklahoma City University campus of Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University. Dr. Elaine Robinson was installed in April as Academic Dean for the SPST at OCU campus.

It was the fifth year for the Saint Paul youTheology program. Twenty high school youth from the Midwest were selected to form a group that explored their faith through worship, service, study, travel, and a mentoring relationship. The program culminated with a Pan Methodist Pilgrimage in historic East Coast locations fundamental to the roots of Methodism.

The Saint Paul Institute began a weekend program to enrich the learnings of laity in the area. Each Laity School of Theology Saturday Session was taught by Saint Paul faculty and presented in an accessible manner for persons with a variety of educational backgrounds. Topics included worship, Bible, ethics, church history, and theology. In fall 2009, the Laity School will begin to offer sessions in Oklahoma City.

Saint Paul announced two new Doctor of Ministry degree tracks in Children and Poverty (2010) and Global Health and Wholeness (2011). Both tracks relate directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops initiatives (the "Four Foci") for the Church.

Dr. Israel Kumudzandu, Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies and Dr. Patricia Beattie Jung, Professor of Christian Ethics and the Oubri A. Poppele Professor of Health and Welfare Ministries, were new faculty hires, along with Dr. Elaine Robinson at our Oklahoma City University campus. She is the Academic Dean and Associate Professor of United Methodist Studies and Theology.

The seminary received a $248,771 grant from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church for technology and focused recruitment activities targeting Native Americans, individuals of various ethnic groups and young adults.

The Kansas City campus will celebrate its 50th Anniversary September 28-29, 2009. The festivities will be a time to celebrate the seminary's tradition and history, reunite graduates and friends of the seminary, look toward the seminary's future, and share the seminary's story with the larger Kansas City Community.

Like all educational institutions Saint Paul finds itself navigating through the economic recession, making the necessary adjustments but continuing to plan for a strong future.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

Dr. Myron F. McCoy, President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

As SMU approaches the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the University continues to rise in national prominence. Some highlights of the past year follow:

- SMU's total fall 2008 enrollment was 10,965, including 6,240 undergraduates, 3,521 graduate students and 1,204 professional (theology and law) students. Minority students make up 20.6 percent of the student body. Applications for the first-year class have more than doubled in just eight years, and the average SAT score of the first-year class has risen 97 points in the past 10 years. International student enrollment is at an all-time high, with 958 students from 97 countries.
- In September 2008 SMU launched "SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign", the largest fund-raising effort in SMU history, with a goal of $750 million. Additional goals are 25 percent alumni participation each year and 50 percent alumni participation during the campaign years. Gifts during the two-year quiet phase provided $317 million for uses including a newly endowed school (the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development); an endowed academic department (the Roy M. Huffington Department of Earth Sciences); five new academic institutes, centers and initiatives (such as the Embrey Human Rights Education Pilot Program); nine endowed faculty positions; 175 endowed scholarships; and seven new or renovated facilities.
- At its quadrennial meeting in July, the South Central Jurisdiction elected a slate of academic, business, civic and church leaders to the SMU Board of Trustees. New church leaders elected to four-year terms are Bishop Earl Bledsoe, Dallas Area; and the Rev. Sheron Patterson, Highland Hills United Methodist Church, Dallas. Those re-elected to an additional term include the Rev. Kirbyjon Caldwell, Windsor Village United Methodist Church, Houston; the Rev. W. Mark Craig, Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas; Bishop Scott J. Jones, Kansas Area; and Bishop Ann B. Sherer, Nebraska Area.
- A national search is currently in progress for a successor to SMU Chaplain Will Finnin, who retired in December. The search committee, headed by SMU Vice President for Student Affairs Lori White, hopes to name a chaplain this spring.
- SMU broke ground in May for a new Caruth Hall for the School of Engineering. In October the school was named in honor of Dallas leader Bobby B. Lyle.
- A new low-cost Center for Family Counseling opened in October at SMU-in-Legacy, the University's campus in Plano, and in central Dallas.
- SMU-in-Taos broke ground in July for facilities and improvements that will allow fall semester classes to be added to the summer programs offered since 1973.

- In February 2008 the George W. Bush Foundation announced that SMU had been chosen as the site of the George W. Bush Presidential Center, which will be a rich source of research materials for scholars and others.

News of Perkins School of Theology:

- Construction of the new Elizabeth Perkins Prothro Hall and renovation of Kirby Hall and Selecman Hall are scheduled for completion in June 2009.
- Barbara Cook Wendland and Erroll Wendland established the Wendland-Cook Professorship in Constructive Theology at Perkins.
- Perkins Dean William B. Lawrence was elected to the nine-member Judicial Council of The United Methodist Church during the quadrennial meeting of the General Conference.
- David Maldonado Jr. received the 2009 Perkins Distinguished Alumnus/a Award. He is current director of Perkins' Center for Latino/a Christianity and Religions.
- As part of Perkins' Global Theological Education Program, students took cross-cultural immersion courses taught by Perkins faculty and others on-site in South Africa, the Palestinian Territories, Israel and Mexico. The two-week courses include interaction with local pastors, laypeople and theology students.

News of the Wesley Foundation:

- Under the leadership of Rev. Andy Roberts, the SMU Wesley Foundation continues its active campus ministry. New programs include "The Well," a weekly worship service in Perkins Chapel featuring music, teaching, prayer and Holy Communion; and weekly sessions of fellowship, Bible study and prayer for first-year students. SMU Wesley sent a student team to New Orleans in May 2008 to assist with continued disaster relief.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage and maintains a particularly close relationship with Highland Park United Methodist Church and its senior minister, the Rev. Mark Craig. I enjoy serving as guest preacher at that church each fall. We ask your continued prayers and support as SMU moves forward in the coming year.

R. Gerald Turner, President

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is my pleasure and honor to submit this report to the Bishop and members of the conference with a profound sense of gratitude for your support of our ministry. Foremost, I wish to extend my sincere appreciation for the gracious welcome of our students to jurisdictional conference. It was the intent of the "mariachi" band to express its gratitude, on behalf of all the students, with their lively music. I believe it is fair to say that they brought love and joy to the floor of the conference.

Our ministry continues to be vibrant and energetic, in spite of the serious challenges that we face with an economy crisis and the violence on the border. The optimism and faithful enthusiasm of the students is a daily reminder of the reason for the existence of “La Lydia”. We are currently serving 459 students whose hopes and dreams have been placed in our hands. Our work is crucial, as we look into the future and recognize the increasing need for educated leaders with strong principles and Christian values. On the other hand is the need to break the cycle of poverty so common among our students.

The result of our efforts is seen in the number of students attending college. In the past 10 years, we have sent approximately 630 students to college. United Methodist colleges and universities have provided opportunities to at least 240 of these students. We presently have 48 students attending UM colleges and universities throughout the country. As a part of our Student Lay Ministry Program, many are serving as interns in local churches in preparation for a lifetime of service.

The present school year has been a challenge in many ways. The increasing violence across the border has turned Lydia Patterson into a safe haven for many students. In my daily encounter with parents, I can see the anguish in their teary eyes as they seek financial assistance to keep their children in school. Many have lost their jobs and are in constant threat for the safety of their families. We have experienced an increased need for scholarships to meet their needs. We are grateful to the number of people and local churches who have come forward to assist us with this pressing need.

In the midst of all, we thrive to provide the best education possible. We have added new classes. Seniors are being trained for the SAT and the results are visible in their improved scores. College courses are being taught and computer labs have been added to enhance their performance. The outcome is evident in students like Rebecca, a freshman attending Nebraska Wesleyan University, who made the Dean’s list in her first semester.

The economy cannot be a deterrent for our ministry. We will soon enter into the feasibility study for a capital campaign to restore our campus and change more lives. Lydia Patterson has endured many depressions and recessions in its 95 years of ministry, and it has survived. I feel certain that, just like our United Methodist friends pulled us through some very tough times in the past, they will see us through once more. On my daily drive to work, I could always see the lives of our neighbors across the border. This was a constant reminder of the ministry of “La Lydia”. The view has recently been blocked by a fence built along the border to restrain undocumented immigrants. I can no longer see the tiny sheds where people live, so now it is a reminder that Lydia Patterson builds bridges and not fences.

Thank you for being a part of a ministry that is touching lives every day. Your love and commitment is our source of strength. Together with you and with your continued support and prayers, Lydia Patterson Institute will always answer God's call to service.

Socorro Brito de Anda, President

LOUISIANA UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

I am pleased to report that 2008 was a very successful year in terms of services provided to children, youth, and families by the Louisiana United Methodist Children and Family Services. Our direct care services at the Methodist Children's Home in Ruston remained populated at operational capacity throughout the year. A total of 1,058 individual children were referred for residential services. We were able to care for 259 or 24% of the requests. A total of 128 beds are available on a daily basis for all levels of care, 106 in Ruston and 22 in Mandeville.

During this past year a total of 2,830 individuals were served through the Family Counseling Center on the campus of the Children's Home.

The Family Plus Program continues to grow. During the year a total of 1,474 individuals were provided some level of direct care ranging from crisis intervention and counseling to parental education training. A total of 631 families received services.

A unit total of 18,939 activities occurred at the Outdoor Wilderness Learning (OWL) Center with 10,007 individuals participating. This is an 11% increase from the previous year. These activities included the Challenge Course (Ropes), camping, fishing, hiking, biking, sport field, hothouse plants, equine therapy, the maze, and the Karen A. Vining Memorial Arbor Walk.

We received a total operating income of $11,576,980 and had expenditures of $11,621,469. A total amount of $45,389 reserve revenue from prior years was utilized to balance the budget. Direct Annual giving from individuals and groups for the second time in our history exceeded one million dollars. Detailed reports will be published once our Annual Audit is completed.

The increased support from our donors was truly a blessing, and that support is what kept us solvent this year. Our Board of Directors, our staff, and I on behalf of the Children are given new hope in life by experiencing God's Love through our ministry. Thank you for being on our team during 2008. MACDONELL UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S SERVICES, INC.

PURPOSE: The purpose of MacDonell United Methodist Children's Services is to provide and maintain a benevolent, charitable, non-profit organization for the care, custody, heritage, education and welfare of children, youth and families without regard to sex, race, color, creed, national origin or handicapping condition that can be addressed within the scope of the program, services and financial resources of the agency.

WE CELEBRATE: During the last fiscal year, we were able to render therapeutic residential treatment to 40 children and adolescents. These children have been provided with a stable, nurturing, Christian environment so they may begin to heal and grow into productive citizens. We have remained near full capacity for the majority of the year.

We are pleased to report that the beauty of our property continues to be maintained after several weeks of clearing debris from the recent Hurricanes. Hurricane Gustav made a direct hit on Terrebonne parish. It was without a doubt the most powerful and destructive storm to impact us in the last 60 years. As with any storm and especially with this one, the trees take the brunt of the wind force. We lost 3 very large Pecan trees, 1 enormous Hackberry, 4 big Pine trees, 1 Cypress and 1 Magnolia and though none of the Oak trees were totally destroyed many limbs were lost, some as big as an average size tree. On the day after the storm, EFCA, a Covington based church with a crisis response ministry, showed up with a group of volunteers. The volunteers were a diverse group of individuals from all over the United States. They came with chain saws, heavy equipment, a spirit of Christian fellowship, and a determination to help those in need. They started immediately helping clear the large Pecan tree blocking the rear driveway and spent several days gathering and transporting debris out to the curve. We in turn provided them with a place to sleep for several weeks while they were out helping the poor and elderly of the parish remove limbs and trees and covering damaged roofs with blue tarps. When they departed we still had plenty of trees and limbs to be removed but their immediate and gracious help was greatly appreciated.

In light of recent State budget cuts, our goal has become to meet the daily expenses and needs of the facility in order to maintain our current level of operations.

METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM FOUNDATION, INC.

This year again has been a very rewarding year for Methodist Health System Foundation, Inc. We have successfully pulled together as a system to respond to many of the challenges of the rapidly changing environment. We continue to be committed to the Mission and Values of MHSFI and have made considerable progress working together with other agencies and institutions in an effort to optimize our shared strength to improve health care in East New Orleans and beyond. The spirit of collaboration that is demonstrated in these efforts underscores the fact that we can accomplish far more together than we can individually.

We continue to work hard to expand our network of school-based centers offering no cost medical services, affiliations for mobile vans to provide immunizations, counseling services, prevention and wellness education. We have also entered into arrangements with educational institutions for major scholarship programs to fill the much needed healthcare staffing deficit that we have long experienced in our community. In addition, we awarded a grant to the Louisiana Conference for health related activities sponsored by the conference. We continue to reach for optimal balance for supporting needs while drawing on the strengths of being part of a larger system. This balance is directly related to developing and sustaining communication among leaders as we work together in support of common goals.

As a faith-based healthcare system we are challenged to create a strategic vision that would be inspiring, transformative and enables us to have a more positive impact on the lives of those whom we serve. In response to that challenge, we have continued to retool our efforts on programs and services in a manner that will hopefully cause a reduction in health disparities as we embrace both illness and wellness models to address the lack of access to care by the most vulnerable in East New Orleans and beyond.

A commitment to responsible stewardship enables MHSF to fulfill all aspects of our Mission and includes a strong financial performance, which is essential. We are pleased to say that we continue to operate in a positive financial environment.

As the Board and Management of MHSF consider all of the needs of the community and the increasing changes in the landscape, we are reminded that the tools and methods may change, when they must, but our Mission will not change, nor our dedication to it. We are grateful and inspired by your prayers, so together we can preserve the Legacy of Methodist Health System Foundation for future generations.

NORTH RAMPART COMMUNITY CENTER

Greetings!

“For we walk by faith and not by sight:”—2 Corinthians 5:7

2008 was one of the most challenging and trying times for the ministry at the North Rampart Community Center (NRCC). Through it all, however, there were many rewarding moments in the lives of the staff, board of directors, children, youth and their families here at the Center. There were times when we did not know how we were going to pay the bills or even the staff. But God made a way and we will continue to make a way for us here at the Center. We are blessed to have had volunteers from around the world come and mentor to the children as well as encourage the staff.

The question, “How do we respond to God’s presence in the world?” was asked of me by the Mission Personnel Office of the General Board of Global Ministries. I thought it was appropriate to share with the Conference how NRCC is responding. We responded to God’s presence in the world in 2008 by focusing on the children and their needs and many issues that their parents/guardians and they are facing daily in their lives. Even though we were short staffed (including teachers, tutors, mentors, instructors and other administered staff members) and underfunded, we continued to press on to the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:14). We trusted that everything would work out according to God’s purpose and plan for the Center and it did. The children come to the Center to have fun and seek help in their studies as well as their personal lives. As I looked closely I could see God presence. As I watched them running, laughing, studying and engaging in the many activities of the Center, there was a sense of God's grace all around them. Even on "Fun Friday" when we invited different professionals and Christian educators to the Center to mentor, the children responded to them with such gratitude. Without prompting they thanked them for coming and spending time with them. They expressed appreciation for their sharing a part of their lives with them. To watch each child be on their best behavior brought joy to my heart. I thank God when volunteers and visitors come and say how well mannered the children are. I am so grateful that we did not have any major incidents concerning these children.

I am happy to announce that we finished our afterschool program with over 250 children enrolled. We provided them with the very best assistance that we could, in spite of the shortage of funding and staff. We served over 31 different schools in the Greater New Orleans area. For one of the schools we served, 50% of the children belong to a KIPP (Knowledge is Power Program) school. The children that go to this school are classified as the children from underserved communities. These schools (KIPP) are designed to prepare them for success in college and life. I am grateful that the Center plays a part in preparing the children for success in life because this is where my heart is, and that is also the mission of this Center - to bring the family to wholeness. Our Summer Camp was just as rewarding as the after-school program. We had 75 youth enrolled who learned how to swim, make jewelry, type, and how to create Power Point presentations. They also learned about famous authors, business owners, sports and inventors.

Our goals for the upcoming year are: to continue establishing relationships with local community leaders, establishing partnerships with business and other nonprofit organizations and mentoring the children and developing leaders.

The concerns and challenges facing the board or agency are funding and staff. I would like to say even though we saw God move mighty and he will continue to move as long as we are faithful to him; we still closed out 2008 in the red. We had to use some of the reserve money to make payroll.

We are looking for two instructors in each of the areas to take the strain off the other instructors when one of them is absent. I am happy that we are classified as an AARP Workers site. We have three workers in the morning that clean and answer the phone, and two in the evening who work with the nutritionist and open the computer lab so that the children can have access to the computers. I would prefer to have an instructor to teach them for at least 30 minutes of computer skills.

As I close, I would like to say we are so grateful to be a part of such a loving Conference who cares about what we are doing at North Rampart Community Center. I cannot express how we feel about how you showered us during 2008, with all of the phone calls, visits, cards, emails, letters with your concerns of how we are doing and yes, funding. Thank you!

UNITED METHODIST HOPE MINISTRIES, INC.

The mission of United Methodist HOPE Ministries, located in impoverished north Baton Rouge, is to coordinate ministries, provide resources and establish relationships that help the people we serve move toward self-sufficiency with dignity. HOPE Ministries serves individuals and families living in poverty in East Baton Rouge Parish and surrounding communities. According to U.S. Census Bureau’s 2007 data, Louisiana ranked second highest in the nation in the overall poverty rate and the rate of children in poverty. The data also indicates that 24.9 percent of Baton Rouge residents live in poverty. Others estimate these figures to be as high as 35 percent in inner-city neighborhoods like the north Baton Rouge area surrounding HOPE. Since our inception in 2003, we've done this through two core programs: an innovative Client Choice Food Pantry, the only one of its kind in East Baton Rouge Parish that invites clients inside a grocery-store setting to shop for their own food, and a Family Mentoring Program that matches a recently homeless family in transitional housing or a family at-risk for homelessness with a team of mentors to help guide the family on its path to self-sufficiency by teaching them life skills and creative problem-solving and connecting them to community resources. HOPE's programs provide the knowledge, life-skills education, and compassionate support necessary to ensure that families living in poverty have an opportunity to become independent and in turn have a positive and productive impact on our community.

2008 Accomplishments and Celebrations:

- Program Accomplishment – Client Choice Food Pantry: HOPE served over 1,200 people each month.
- Program Accomplishment – An average of 18,586 pounds of food was distributed to over 1,200 people each month through the Client Choice Food Pantry.
- Program Accomplishment – More than 2,300 people received emergency food immediately after Hurricane Gustav.
- Program Accomplishment – Family Mentoring Program: HOPE provided in-depth case management and support services to 226 persons from 54 families at-risk for homelessness. About 81% of our clients successfully completed the program in 2007.
- Program Accomplishment – Getting Ahead in a Just-Getting-By World: HOPE conducted four Getting Ahead series and completed the last series with a 100% graduate rate.
- Volunteer Accomplishment – 350 Client Choice Food Pantry volunteers gave 4,000 hours of volunteer service.
- Volunteer Accomplishment – 30 volunteer Family Mentors helped these families reach their goals.
- Volunteer Accomplishment – 34 Neighboring volunteers gave over 800 hours of volunteer service.
- Holidays for HOPE – HOPE raised about $20,000 to serve 525 households during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and 444 children received gifts for Christmas through The Christmas Place, HOPE's holiday toy distribution program.
- Long Term Recovery – Though it's been three years since the devastating hurricanes of 2005 and another year since Hurricanes Gustav and Ike, the recovery effort continues in East Baton Rouge Parish and HOPE continues to be a major player in that effort. With support from UMCOR, we were able to help assess cases of families that come before the EBR Long Term Recovery Committee for assistance to regain self-sufficiency and, for some, to rebuild their lives in a new community.

- Fund Development Accomplishment – Our first fundraising event called The Power of HOPE, featured Ron Hall and Denver Moore, authors of Same Kind of Different As Me, raised much needed funds for our programs and increased awareness of HOPE.
- Fund Development Accomplishment – New donor management software was purchased and implemented.
- Fund Development Accomplishment – Individual donations more than doubled.
- Social Enterprise Accomplishment – HOPE representatives participated in the national Social Enterprise Alliance conference and The Grantsmanship Center Earned Income Strategies Training.
- Social Enterprise Accomplishment – HOPE was selected to participate in the Pennington Family Foundation’s Social Enterprise Pilot Project through the Louisiana Association of Nonprofit Organizations (LANO).
- Social Enterprise Accomplishment – HOPE Board of Directors participated in a day-long retreat to select three possible earned income ventures to pursue.
- Public Relations Accomplishment – HOPE developed a professional video about the agency thanks to a grant from the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana.

Goals for Upcoming Year:

- Programs/Services – Increase services to meet the needs of impoverished families trying to gain self-sufficiency
- Social Enterprise – Research and develop one to three social enterprise business ventures with a “double bottom line” that will provide job training and employment for the impoverished while introducing another revenue stream to HOPE
- Administrative – Develop a new strategic plan and grow funding base of support to secure additional support from more United Methodist Churches
- Fund Development – Continue to grow Doors of HOPE Annual Giving Campaign and implement seasonal appeals
- Public Relations – Publish quarterly newsletter and Annual Report

Challenges:

- Fund development
- Additional sources of revenue
- Capital improvements to facilities
- Growth of ministries to include additional programs and outreach
- Ongoing public relations and public awareness of the plight of homeless and impoverished in our communities, and the role of United Methodist HOPE Ministries in addressing these issues

Items for Action/Vote by Annual Conference:

- We request Conference endorsement of the listed membership of our Board of Directors.

GULFSIDE ASSOCIATION, INC.

Gulfside Association, Inc. is continuing on its journey to rebuild on the historic site in Waveland, Mississippi. Strategic planning and implementation of major fund raising efforts are underway as the Association looks toward the future of having a new Ministry Center as the centerpiece of the new Gulfside. The center will be the focal point of conferences, training events, workshops and special events. It will have sweeping views of the gulf and state-of-the-art media equipment and an auditorium to seat 300 people. Also in the plans is a retirement villa development facing the Gulf, which will provide a revenue stream to support the Ministry Center and programming for missional outreach.

Currently the property is housing the Mississippi Conference UMCOR group and the CARE group, which are providing post-Katrina relief work in the area. The Association has also purchased an off-site house, which will be the home for the President/CEO as well as offices while rebuilding is ongoing.

One program that has continued without interruption for 13 years is the Mission Education Travel Study Seminar in which students are exposed to new missional opportunities and leadership development. In 2008 the students visited several Mississippi and Arkansas colleges and universities and engaged in mission work at Bethlehem Center in Jackson, MS, Teresa Hoover UMC in Little Rock, AK, and the Heifer International Ranch. The students also participate in the Southeast Jurisdiction BMCR Youth Harambee, a yearly conference that serves around 500 students.

We offer many thanks to Bishop Hutchinson and the Louisiana Conference for your continued support.

Deferred Candidates—Mentoring deferred candidates for ordination of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry

Comments from SoulJourney Participants –

The SoulJourney experience is a valuable tool in my journey as a probationary elder. Time with my colleagues is extremely valuable and the group time is rewarding. I am very glad that SoulJourney is a part of the process of ordination. I believe that I have received support in my journey. This is an opportunity, leading to my growth as a pastor.

Clergy Peer Group—

Parker Palmer comments, "Can we help each other deal with the inner issues inherent in leadership? We can, and I believe we must." Clergy Peer Groups are designed as a healthy group experience providing a model and an opportunity for clergy to be involved in healthy, safe, small groups that offer support, insight, and group processing of unresolved issues. The intent is to help leadership deal with both inner and outer issues we face. Its focus is on strengths and emerging strengths.

Clergy Peer Groups are beginning across the Conference for those under appointment for 5 years or longer. The development of these groups is moving at the pace of guidance. At this point, the Center has pilot programs underway. This is an experiment from which we are adapting and learning.

Model: The model offers a didactic component, while allowing for relationships and trust to build among participants. Confidentiality is paramount, and trust in the wisdom of the group is observed. Whoever shows up are the right people.

We have five groups underway. Each year, we are beginning new groups in different Districts.

Comment from a participant –

Prior to my involvement, I had begun to experience feelings of isolation. Though I frequently spoke with a few close clergy friends, those conversations rarely hit upon the deep fears, concerns, hopes, doubts, etc. that can be shared in the "safety" of the Clergy Peer Group. The Group has provided me with a place to connect with other clergy on a deeper level. I have experienced a new sense of organic community that has naturally arisen through the process of the meetings and the emphasis on a systems approach. I appreciate that it's not a prayer-and-share group or a fix-it group but, rather, a moment of listening to one another and to the silent Spirit of Life.

Workshop for Clergy: Developing the Art of Dancing with Conflict

(Two three-day sessions)

Purpose—To assist clergy in learning to deal with conflict in constructive ways.

Goals for Participants—

- to learn about congregations as emotional systems
- to develop an understanding of the dynamics of anxiety and conflict in congregations
- to understand our unskilled reactions to conflict
- to develop and foster skilled responses, techniques and strategies to conflict
- to be a partner in creating systemic change

Primary Text: Where Angels Dare to Dance: Anxiety and Conflict in Congregational Life, by Dr. W. Craig Gilliam

Comment from a participant-

Dancing with Conflict is not so much about finding solutions, but about finding God in each person in the midst of the sacred struggle. And in the silence, in the re-framing, in the question....God will be found.

The Art of Intervention on Congregations (One three-day seminar)Purpose—

To move this type of ministry from being an anxious dread of survival and passing along the anxiety to a ministry of excellence, art and creative challenge for transformation.

Goals for Participants—

To develop an understanding of systemic/congregational dynamics during time of high anxiety and conflict

To identify principles, values, and insights on which to base healthy interventions

To understand the role and position of the intervener during times of impasse and conflict

To develop skilled strategies and techniques those intervening can use to help congregations find their way through tense times

To cultivate a culture that lends itself to second level, systemic change—one that assists congregations in moving through tense times artfully, responsibly, and creatively with GRACE.

Primary Text: Where Angels Dare to Dance: Anxiety and Conflict in Congregational Life, by Dr. W. Craig Gilliam

Comment from a participant—

Something mysterious happens when persons gather together to explore the possibilities that exist in conflicted relationships and congregations. We are reminded of grace, and grace's infinite hospitality.

Nurturing the Inner Life: Contemplative Practice for Clergy –

This experience, offered to clergy, introduces participants to contemplative practices that can be continued in their lives and ministry. The method is experiential and conversational.

Facilitator: Dr. Ruben Habito, Perkins School of Theology, SMU

Comment from a participant –

I went to the contemplative retreat seeking a deeper practice of meditation to escape the daily grind; but I found a way of seeing God's presence even in the daily grind!

Comment from participants –

This seminar, devised and led by Dr. Craig Gilliam, provides an abundance of information and insight through exercises, discussions and reflection time on the choices we make in our interaction with others. It offers a way to view our own way of being, without prejudice or judgment from without. This is a helpful tool that will provide growth opportunities as one has time to reflect on and practice its message.

In the clamor of numerous demands, distractions, and frustrations in the life of a pastor/leader, it is invaluable to have this framework of understanding that reminds me how to be and stay spiritually grounded, what to do when I get off track, and how to basically operate with a mindset of vision and grace.

Rekindling an Old Flame: Reclaiming Your Creativity in Preaching

This Pilot Program explores alternative ways to do ministry that honors time, limited resources, the cost of gas, etc. The course will be taught through teleconference and computers. Participants do not even have to leave their offices to enter this conversation of learning via their computers and telephones.

Facilitator: Dr. Alyce McKenzie, Perkins School of Theology, SMU

Comments from participants-

The use of teleconversations in learning allows effective learning on topics of interest to small groups of pastors. This is one of the most effective uses of time and resources in obtaining additional skills and CEU credits that I have seen.

I loved being a part of this pilot project. My goal was to move my preaching to the next level and to learn some new ways of working with the text. This course did not disappoint! The side benefit for me was the weekly contact with my colleagues in the course.

Clergy Transition Seminar – This one-day seminar is available for Louisiana Conference clergy persons who receive new appointments each year. A day provides venues to communicate concerns about the transition, an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers and enter into fellowship with colleagues in ministry.

Comment from a participant –

The Clergy Transition Seminar is a great reminder of how important it is to be part of a connectional system. Support and resources are so valuable. The Conference cares about the clergy and their families to the extent that they make room for sharing our fears, concerns and expectations.

Additional Ministries Offered through
 The Center for Pastoral Effectiveness:

Clergy/Leadership Coaching—Through coaching, The Center provides an outside resource for clergy to help them think through, reflect on, and process issues in their lives and ministries.

Leadership Through a Different Lens—The Center works with clergy, staff, and other church leadership to help them explore a different lens through which to see and understand mature congregational life and the importance of the functioning of leadership in the health of the body.

The only real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.

Congregational Conflict Transformation and moving through Impasse—

The Center offers guidance to help congregations respond to anxiety and conflict in a healthy way that can lead to growth and transformation.

Comments from Participants:

Dr. Gilliam was exquisitely sensitive to the people gathered, and he very carefully nudged people along in the process of discerning and visioning so critical to the future of congregations. Craig enabled leaders and members of congregations to do their own homework and thinking without being obtrusive or paternalistic. Craig was very intuitive and helped leaders and church members wade through the mire to the place where they could go forward with confidence.

Thank you for honesty and a caring spirit. Your expertise and experience were of great benefit to us, helping our congregation move through a difficult time in a positive way.

Deep Conversations for Systemic Change—

Real change often begins with the simple act of people talking to others about what they care about and listening to what holds meaning for others. When this happens, not only are words communicated, but souls are touched and changed. Part of our work involves helping communities have these deep conversations in a manner that is safe, reflective, helpful, and can assist the community in moving forward. Part of the Center's ministry is designing processes and helping develop a safe container for these conversations to happen.

Approach to Discernment and Decision Making: How do we make healthy, responsible decisions that are attentive to God?

How do groups make healthy decisions? What are ways to help the collective wisdom to emerge? What are ways to explore, constructively, the direction emerging in the group and listen for and discern God's voice?

Spring Retreat for Clergy and Deacons—

The dream of my life is to lie down by a slow river and stare at the light in the trees—to learn something by being nothing a little while but the rich lens of attention.

--Mary Oliver

Each spring, The Center offers an opportunity for each of us to “lie down by a slow river and stare at the light of the trees. .and be the rich lens of attention,” through a spiritual transformation retreat at St. Joseph Abbey, a Benedictine Monastery in Covington. The Abbey Retreat is included as part of SoulJourney; however, it is also open to probationary deacons and elders in their second and third post-academic years, past alumnae of The Center, those in the Clergy Peer Groups, and as space allows, any minister in the Conference who feels a need for a time apart for rest and renewal. The Abbey Retreat is a time to rest, renew and restore.

Comment from participant –

Thank you for organizing our retreat. I enjoyed the flow of the retreat, especially the ample free time to rest, read, meditate, journal and be in quiet solitude. The balance between solitude and fellowship was nice.

An Interactive Ministry Offered by the Center for More Connection –

We have a blog for an ongoing conversation with clergy on clergy care, leadership, and systems thinking. On web page, we have: 1) upcoming event dates listed, 2) an article on clergy care, 3) a “blog” offering an interactive page, 4) any good books review (The review can be one to two paragraphs—maximum—150 words. This is to offer a brief summary of the issues/topics the book addresses and why you recommend it). This is not to replace the reading of the book, but to entice interest in reading it, and 5) a link for people to express their creative selves—a page for poetry or quotes.

Imagination is more important than knowledge.
Albert Einstein

Collaborative Ministries –

3 M Network (Maintaining Ministers in Ministry) –

This event is done jointly between The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, UMC, The Center for Ministry of the Mississippi Conference, and The Center for Pastoral Effectiveness of the Louisiana Annual Conference. Across jurisdictional lines, 3M is a networking experience that allows an opportunity for Conferences to explore and share ideas about what each is doing in this area of Sustaining Pastoral Excellence. The 3M experience has included representation from every jurisdiction in the U.S.

Consulting with Other Annual Conferences –

Dr. Gilliam continues to consult with other Annual Conferences that are creating their own Centers for Pastoral Effectiveness.

Each year, The Center is in dialogue with Conference leadership asking, “How can we help you as leadership to be more effective? What resources do we have available to assist our Annual Conference in maintaining ministers in ministry.”

Agency Administration

The Center’s Administrative Assistant, Linda Gregg, assists in planning, administrating, and organizing events.

Advisory Committee

Our Advisory Committee voluntarily covers its own expenses for meetings. It is made up of two members from the Board of Ordained Ministry, The Conference Ministry Team, and The Center and Academy participants. Ex-officio members are Larry Miller and Don Cottrill by virtue of their offices. Present members are Chairperson Ernest Scott, Fred Wideman, Wybra Price, Andy Goff, Joyce Robinson, Sandi Huber and Ellen Alston.

General Comments

Over our eighteen years of ministry, The Center for Pastoral Effectiveness continues to offer a significant ministry for the Louisiana Annual Conference and the larger United Methodist Church across Conference lines. The Center has become a nationally recognized model consulting with other Conferences as they attempt to develop their own similar ministry for sustaining pastoral excellence. As the Director, we continue to adapt to the changing challenges and possibilities our ministers and congregations face.

The Wesley Center Woodworth, LA

Registration Fee: $400, includes double occupancy room and all meals for all retreats

This is the heart and soul of The Academy. Through a series of four retreats a course is offered that deals with:

Retreat 1- Connecting to our Calling

September 24-26, 2009

Retreat 2 - Connecting to our Souls

November 19-21

Retreat Leader: Rev. Jane Vennard, Iliff School of Theology

Retreat 3 – Connecting the Church and Community

January 28-31, 2010

Retreat Leader: Dr. Luther Smith, Candler School of Theology

Retreat 4 - Connecting to our Faith Journey

April 22-24, 2010

Retreat Leader: Rev. Howard Hanger, JUBILEE! Community, Ashville, SC

We begin each retreat on Thursday at 5pm with registration and close with lunch on Saturday.

The retreats offer sojourners opportunities to hear from retreat leaders who are uniquely qualified in their respective fields. The covenant groups allow a safe place to share their stories and explore where God is leading them. Each retreat includes a time of Sabbath Rest, two hours after lunch to provide space to pray and ponder all they have experienced. For many, these retreats become a time of discernment and a defining moment as they search for direction in their lives from God.

They are each designed to be different in focus, but holding the same rhythm of time in community and time apart. Coming four times gives time for persons to listen for the Spirit's direction and be open to the transformation of their life journey. These retreats combine to create a setting where persons can discern God's will for their lives and how they will be faithful disciples in their congregation and work place. For many, it becomes a time of discernment and a defining moment as they search for ways to become Christian Leaders for the church and the world. All retreats are held at The Wesley Center in Woodworth.

Comments from some of our sojourners

The Academy helped me to feel confirmed that I am sailing my boat in the direction God wants. I have received peace and comfort in my soul from the Retreat Leaders. It has been a call to be to be a better disciple for Christ, a better spouse, better parent and grandparent, and a better member of my church.

I teach Sunday School, lead a prayer group, help design worship, and lead Bible Study Classes in my church. This has been a chance to 'fill my spiritual cup'. Hearing the stories and suggestions from the leaders has breathed new life in me.

What I take from the Academy is the remarks of one leader who said, "Can you trust God with your life? We need to break through the shallow waters of human effort and launch our lives into the great depths of God's grace." These words have caused me to search my being and find my path.

Being able to get away from the hectic routine and stuff of life and commune with nature in the beauty of creation during Sabbath Rest has been life giving for me. Having two marvelous hours in the outdoors of the Wesley Center each retreat has helped me to get in touch with my soul again.

Path of Contemplative Retreat

July 14-17, 2009

Tuesday - Friday

St. Joseph Abbey Covington, LA

Registration Fee: $200, includes single occupancy room and meals

This retreat, in the setting of a Benedictine Monastery, offers sojourners a time of quiet and silence in which to come apart and listen for the guidance of God.

It is amazing to see how persons who have never experienced a contemplative retreat are renewed and refreshed as they leave. Most of them leave asking, "When will you have this again?" We had forty-five persons join us last July for the retreat. Persons who have completed the Spiritual Direction Training become the staff and offer times for those on retreat to have spiritual direction. It becomes on Tuesday, with registration at 4pm and concludes with lunch on Friday.

Comments from some of our sojourners

I left the Abbey with a better, more prayerful attitude and approach to my work; a sense that I only need to do the next thing or take the next step – I don't have to be so goal or deadline oriented. I have a deep gratitude for this time apart from my world.

I hope that I, too, can become a Contemplative Methodist!

I feel a sense of "level" contentment and confidence, having worshipped God in so many ways. I feel very, very loved.

The Path of Spiritual Direction

Course Registration Fee: $1,800, includes single occupancy room and all meals for all sessions (Can be paid in two years)

Spiritual Direction Training is a two-year course that happens in a series of six retreats. It is led by Rev. Wendy Miller, who is on the faculty at Eastern Mennonite Seminary, Harrisonburg, Virginia. In October 2009, we started our fifth cycle of training persons to be Spiritual Directors in the Louisiana Conference. We now have a cadre of over 100 who are trained to guide others in their quest to follow Christ as Christian Leaders in both their church and community. Another unique aspect of this training is that we have partnered with Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary to give 6 Academy credit hours for this course. Those hours will apply to persons who are seeking to become Deacons or Elders in the Louisiana Conference or to receive Certification in Spiritual Formation from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. This is another way the LA Conference is giving advanced training to laity and clergy in the arena of developing Christian Leaders for the Church and the World.

The Reunion Retreat

March 4-6, 2010

Thursday evening – Saturday lunch

The Wesley Center Woodworth, LA

Registration Fee: $126, double occupancy, includes meals

$160 single occupancy, includes meals

We offer this time of retreat to those who have been involved in the various offerings of the Academy. It has a similar rhythm of faculty talks, Sabbath rest, small groups, as well as morning and evening prayers. This gives sojourners opportunities to renew their contacts with one another as well as find rest and renewal. It also gives an opportunity for a time to look at where your journey has led you, and to be still as you listen for new directions.

Comments from sojourners

Being in the Academy community was balm for my soul; an invitation to continue on the journey with a new understanding of silence, and new confidence to live the disciplines of discipleship.

This was a time of deep fellowship and being with friends again. From the prayers, songs, and talks I received peace and spiritual renewal.

I received a renewed sense of God's presence. The acceptance and unconditional love was so affirming and encouraging. I felt a sense of freedom – with no 'should' or 'guilt'.

The Discerners Academy

March 12-14, 2010

Friday evening – Sunday noon

The Wesley Center Woodworth, LA

Registration Fee: $27, college students $77, adults

Includes double occupancy room and meals

Our process offers a way to sustain discerners in the time of Candidacy and as they enter seminary. They are invited to attend a Discerners Academy in order to be among peers who are asking the same questions and living with similar yearnings. We give them a glimpse into a class at a United Methodist School of Theology by inviting a faculty person to be with us as the retreat leader and teacher. Perhaps most importantly, through the small groups they find a safe place to bring their tentative questions and unresolved issues. With the support of the Board of Ordained Ministry, they learn more about the path to conference membership and how they can be supported financially in seminary.

Throughout the weekend, the staff persons give a witness to their own call to ministry, and to how they selected a school of theology to attend. In addition, there is time to hear from Admission Personnel from our various UM seminaries.

By bringing discerners into this experience we have also created an informal network among the persons who are now in candidacy, as well as those attending schools of theology. This means that as they return to the Louisiana Conference, there is a built in community of colleagues in which they are already connected. The Discerners Academy has become a model for other conferences seeking ways to recruit and nurture persons into ordained ministry.

Comments from discerners

At the Discerners Academy I received affirmation of my call. In addition I also gained an expanded awareness that I am surrounded by others who are willing to listen with concern, direct with compassion, and care without limitations.

This was a useful process of discernment that I can take with me, as well as inspiration to continue the unfolding of discernment in my life. Hearing how others have experienced God's many calls was very helpful to me.

I received clarity about the confirmation of my call and a desire to continue to listen for the direction God is leading me. Most important, there was a feeling of tremendous support by the Louisiana United Methodist Conference as I go through the process.

General Comments

It began with a grant from the Mission Funding Team and has continued to evolve into a ministry that is vital and deeply interwoven into the life of the Louisiana Conference. It has touched the lives of hundreds of clergy and laity throughout these years. Persons have come with an empty heart and found rest by still waters and renewed spirit for the journey. We are now a doorway by which persons received academic credit for courses in seminary.

We have launched persons into their path of ministry which has led to seminary and ordination. It has also been a turning point for lay persons seeking their own ways to deepen their relationship with God and bring a renewed spirit back to their local churches.

Each year, we throw out a net to invite persons to the various paths of spiritual leadership. Like the net, which Jesus instructed to be thrown on the 'other side of the boat', it has come up laden with those who are eager to be a part of a venture such as this.

Our focus and vision is to develop Christian Leaders for the Church and the World. This single-minded purpose offers an avenue for our people to find their paths for ministry and to be empowered to live as disciples for Christ.

COORDINATOR OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Rev. John Edd Harper continues to serve as the Coordinator for the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (CBOM). Gertrude Knight continues as the part-time Administrative Assistant to the Coordinator of the CBOM. All of the registrar files for the CBOM have been updated and maintained in a systematic manner. The CBOM members are being trained with regard to their responsibilities in working with candidates (elders and deacons) going through the provisional membership process or local pastors going through the course of study. The CBOM is developing written policies and guidelines to be used in a CBOM handbook. The CBOM has helped provisional candidates for ordained ministry move from readiness to effectiveness in ministry. Young adults (ages 16-25) are being targeted for identification and enlistment into ordained ministry as a vocation. A task force within the CBOM is studying the various aspects of effectiveness in ministry. Professional certification (Christian education, spiritual formation, music ministry, youth ministry, evangelism, older adult ministry, and camping and retreat ministry) within The United Methodist Church has been promoted throughout the Conference. All Louisiana seminary students are being contacted on a regular basis and all seminary student loans are being processed in a timely manner.

The responsibilities of the Coordinator of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) Meet with the CBOM in all its functions to facilitate the Board's process in dealing with candidates for ministry (CBOM Executive Committee member without vote).
- 2) Attend Division of Elders retreats, Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers retreats, and Local Pastor Interviews around the Conference to have files available on persons being interviewed.

- 3) Contact each District Committee on Ordained Ministry to keep track of all the candidates within that district.
- 4) Serve as a resource person to work with and to answer questions related to candidacy and where candidates are in the process to:
 - the Louisiana Foundation for grants/loans.
 - the District Committees on Ordained Ministry.
 - the License to Preach School.
 - the Division of Elders.
 - the Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers.
 - the Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members.
 - the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness.
 - the Academy for Spiritual Leadership.
- 5) Interface with our conference psychological consultant.
- 6) Track and communicate with the Course of Study schools for each student attending COSS.
- 7) Work with the CBOM financial officer to facilitate payment of all CBOM bills.
- 8) Serve as a resource person for the annual meeting with cabinet and executive committee of the CBOM.
- 9) Assist the officers and leadership team of the CBOM.
- 10) Maintain official permanent records and tracking documents of all persons in the candidacy process, certified candidates, provisional members progressing toward elder's or deacon's orders, associate members, part-time and full-time local pastors, diaconal ministers, and certified professionals (clergy and laity).
- 11) Request and receive annual reports from full connection deacons, provisional deacons, and diaconal ministers.
- 12) Request and receive biennial review and renewal forms for professional certification from certified persons (clergy and laity) and forward copies to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
- 13) Send out all correspondences of official forms, requirements (written work), and interview schedules to all provisional members in regard to Division of Elders and Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers retreats (spring and fall) for those participating in our provisional membership process (at least 3 years).
- 14) Prepare the Clergy Session report for Annual Conference and submit the most accurate information for the Conference Journal.
- 15) Offer annual training for District Committee of Ordained Ministry members.
- 16) Provide annual candidacy mentor training.
- 17) Create informational displays during Annual Conference for the CBOM and professional certification.
- 18) Support the Certified Lay Minister process as it relates to the District Committee on Ordained Ministry.

Clergy Renewal Leave

Donald C. Cottrill, Director

The Clergy Renewal Leave was established by the Louisiana Conference through the original Lilly Grant in 2003. These Leaves are available to any full time clergy member of the Conference. The Leaves were established and continue to be available as a way of providing opportunity for clergy to take “Sabbath time,” to refresh themselves and their call to ministry through reflection, study, prayer, recreation, and rest. This time is not structured by specific, defined activities. Those who participate are required to present a logical and thoughtful program for the leave that they themselves construct around a theme for their leave.

The Clergy Renewal Leaves are contracted with the clergy person and family, the local congregation or local ministry setting, and the District and Conference. It has been our experience that the local setting receives great benefit from the Clergy Renewal Leave as does the pastor and their family.

There were six Clergy Renewal Grants awarded in 2008. Each of these persons received a six to eight week leave, with a stipend of $750 per week for their use. The local church or ministry setting was responsible for caring for the pastoral needs in the absence of the pastor. In a few instances additional time and financial resources were added to the Conference grants by the local church or the district.

Following the leave time, each participant prepares a summary report of their time away, including a description of their activities, a financial report, and comments on the impact of the Renewal Leave on their life (spiritually, emotionally, and physically) and on their ministry.

The following comments are taken from these 2008 summary reports:

Reflection 1

I appreciate very much the opportunities the Renewal leave gave me. My own spiritual life grew as I participated in retreats at Taize, monastery, and a spiritual life seminar. The spiritual direction I gained was invaluable. The feedback I have received from the congregation is that my preaching has become more personal and directed to the needs of the people. I am more relaxed and less up-tight in my contacts with people. I am enjoying my ministry more than I have in a long time. The congregation is appreciating my leadership more after the absence, and intent on the mission of making new disciples for Jesus Christ. The congregation is now having more adult professions of faith than it has in a long time.

Reflection 2

The eight week renewal leave came at probably the most opportune time in my ministry. I had been working many long, physically and mentally taxing hours with few days off since Hurricane Katrina completely destroyed our community, and the recovery effort was taking a tremendous toll on my spiritual and physical health. From the moment we left home and headed for the Smokey Mountains I could sense healing taking place simply because I knew I was leaving behind much of the great responsibilities I had taken on during the past three years. Cool morning walks with the Lord in prayer, meditating on His Word, and the complete distraction from the ministerial duties provided by the time I spent writing my novel all contributed a great deal of strength to my life and service in God's Name. A renewal such as the one I experienced comes highly recommended for any and all pastors needing a fresh start in their ministry.

Reflection 3

The Clergy Renewal Leave afforded me the opportunity to re-discover the call to ministry. After 18 years in full-time ministry and six different appointments I had lost the passion for ministry, and was seriously questioning my call to ministry...In June of 2008 I approached my District Superintendent and SPR Chair with the possibility of pursuing a Clergy Renewal Leave. Arrangements were made through the Center for Pastoral Excellence and the Provost's Office, and I planned and began the leave on September 1, 2008. I firmly believe the time away saved the ministry to which I have been called. The time away consisted of rest and relaxation, worship, and study.

Theological Reflections

A full time clergy person answers a call to this form of ministry. In the busyness of the profession it is easy to give up personal spiritual needs and instead respond to Bible study and other means of grace in a corporate and leadership style. The leader requires personal spiritual nourishment in order to lead the congregation. The life and ministry of Jesus is a prime example of this need. Jesus shows time and time again that time apart with God is a requirement and a discipline of a spiritual leader. The Clergy Renewal Leave provides such a time apart and offers the clergy leader a time to establish personal daily habits for constant renewal.

Next Year

The Clergy Renewal Leaves continue to be offered to all Louisiana Conference full time clergy. Those who have participated in the past have become the best advocates and advertisements for others within the clergy fellowship.

WESLEY CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The mission of the Wesley Center is to provide a place for spiritual holiness, healing, and wholeness under the guidance of the Lord Jesus Christ.

For the last year we have continued our development plan and have made great progress:

1. The Oden Pavilion has been completed, dedicated and is in use.
2. The Wesley Center Meeting building which has been named the De Colores Center, has been completed except for minor punch list items and is in use.
3. The Lamar & Wally White Sports Field is ready for use with warmer weather.
4. The first phase of the trails system, while not completed, is useable. The hard paved path and bridges are all completed giving a 1.8 mile trail running from the Sports Field area to the cross. The benches and signage describing trees, animals, birds and donors are still in the process of being completed.

Financially, the total cost of Phase I of the Development Plan will be $1,596,057.49 of which $964,935.00 has been raised via gifts, timber sales, lot sales, and contributions from the Louisiana Cursillo Community. We fully anticipate paying the remainder of the cost by next years Conference via continuing pledges from individuals and churches across the conference, the Cursillo community and future lot sales.

The Board is considering what projects will be part of Phase II, but only after we have paid for Phase I, and have funding to finance the additional projects.

Our new Executive Director, Roseanne Gillespie, has overseen a very busy and active year. The Wesley Center has been used by numerous church groups as well as lots of outside groups.

While we did suffer some damage from Hurricane Gustav, all of that damage has been repaired and thanks to insurance we have a brand new roof on the main building.

We also ended 2008 in the black, thanks to the many groups utilizing our facility. These groups have included many non-Methodist groups. We hope to continue our utilization by both Methodist and non-Methodist groups. Our current proposed utilization for the rest of 2009 holds the promise of a good year again this year.

One challenge we are facing is the issue of taxes on our food service. Due to a vague provision of the Louisiana Revenue Code, the Parish of Rapides (and following their lead the State Department of Revenue) has taken the position that our Food Service is taxable. We are appealing these rulings which have the potential to adversely impact other church facilities of both the Louisiana Conference and other denominations.

Our goals for the upcoming year include:

- Complete payment of Phase I of the Development Plan
- Continue to increase our utilization of the facility
- Resolve the tax question

- Outline Phase II and begin financing of our next development

In closing we invite you to join us at the Wesley Center for your next event.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

We are pleased to report that the 2008 Jurisdictional Conference was a great success. Two bishops retired, and one re-entered retirement, and three new bishops were elected and assigned to their places of ministry.

Apportionments paid out at 90% for 2008, for which we are grateful to the Annual Conferences for their faithfulness. The Since most of the agencies, and the Jurisdiction office budget on anticipation of a 90% payout, everyone did well for the year. We pray that 2009 will be as good.

The new Mission Council for the quadrennium met and organized with new officers. Their one meeting this year will be at Lydia Patterson Institute in the fall.

Thanks to every local church that supported the work of the Jurisdiction.

David Severe, Executive Director

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CONFERENCE AND RETREAT CENTER

Dozens of recent events, planned and hosted by Mount Sequoyah occurred during the past 12 months. These conference, training, and retreat sessions provide young and seasoned clergy the tools, models, and experiences to effectively lead their congregations. In 2009, Mount Sequoyah provided a second successful jurisdictional faith-based environmental conference to “Care for our Creation”; coordinated a partnership with national and regional Methodist agencies to initiate jurisdiction-wide training for addiction issues within local congregations and communities for congregational, district, and conference teams; and hosted the charter conference for the Small Church Leadership Institute for laity and clergy. Dozens more laity and clergy workshops, seminars, and meetings were hosted for effective leadership and discipleship training addressing specific ministry needs for congregations, districts, and conferences. A new initiative is to offer hospitality to returning soldiers, and their family members, in partnership with Veterans Health Care System of the Ozarks, the local VA medical center in Fayetteville.

Mount Sequoyah hosted disaster training through UMCOR just days after being a recipient of early response chainsaw and debris ministry teams from six states. In the 87 years of ministry and service to generations of Methodist clergy and laity, Mount Sequoyah has never experienced such physical devastation as happened during the January 27-28, 2009 Ice Storm. Described as an “arctic tornado” at the end of four days, the physical beauty of Mount Sequoyah lay in a pile of tree rubble which will cause clean up and building repair efforts to continue through the first and second quarters of this year. The rubble is temporary; however, the purpose is not interrupted for this unique and significant ministry of sacred service to Methodist clergy and laity from 6,400 congregations across 15 conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction.

In a critical year for balancing budgets, end of year revenue income for Mount Sequoyah facility use was the highest ever at $750k, following a challenging year with significant loss in contracted revenue, due to group cancellations. Total revenue, as compared with previous years, has also increased from private contributions. Apportionment assistance given by the Louisiana Conference and financial and volunteer support, from members of Louisiana congregations for special projects and our ice storm recovery, are vital to the continued transition for this connectional ministry.

Mount Sequoyah continues to be a leading and active partner for laity and clergy throughout the South Central Jurisdiction by providing initiatives to develop effective leadership for our church; training for starting new faith communities and for renewing existing congregations; best practices for establishing “ministries in hard places” with the poor, the homeless, those in prison; and, leadership for developing ministry strategies for addressing global health issues. Mount Sequoyah joins our collective UMC mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our world.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry began the new quadrennium, adjusting to the new legislation adopted by the 2008 General Conference. There have been significant changes in Chapter 2, The Ministry of the Ordained, in the 2008 Book of Discipline. This defines and guides the responsibilities of the Board and its various divisions, as they are related to the procedures and requirements for ministerial candidates; accountability of all clergy; and changes in conference relationship, just to name a few. General conference also reemphasized clergy effectiveness, mandating that every annual conference adopt guidelines and procedures addressing this critical issue.

Several members of the Board attended training events made available by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, to help us interpret these changes and put them to use. As you can surmise, the Board faces a number of challenges during the next few years. Achieving our tasks requires a close working relationship with the Bishop and his cabinet. We are most appreciative of their response and have begun a great working relationship that will be most beneficial to our clergy and churches in the Louisiana Conference.

The work of the Board is both time consuming and stressful. Much depends on each member’s commitment to the tasks that are before us. While I am most appreciative of the dedication of every member, we are all deeply indebted to the work of Rev. John Edd Harper, Coordinator of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. John Edd's caring spirit and attention to detail has made a tremendous difference in the effectiveness of the Board.

We look forward to a great year.

Ed Boyd, Chair

DIVISION OF ELDERS

It is an honor and great privilege to serve on the Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and on the Division of Elders. This Division is given the responsibility of working with Residents in Ministry (RIM's) from the time they apply for Conference Membership until they complete that process either, by reaching ordination or exiting from the process.

Each person who serves on the Division gives countless hours in preparation for Spring and Fall Interviews by reading and listening to sermons, evaluating Bible Study lesson plans, and thinking through the answers given to Doctrinal Questions. The interview process itself is intense, time consuming and incredibly enriching to both Division members and Candidates. In addition, Division members make In-parish visits to the ministry settings, serve as Mentors and pray for the Candidates. It is an enormous task and an awesome responsibility. We are all committed to being advocates and encouragers for those in the process.

The Division also oversees the work that the Candidates do through the Soul Journey program in the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness which is implemented by Dr. Craig Gilliam. Beginning in the Fall of 2009, we plan to implement a financial component (personal and church finances) as part of the process that the candidates journey through. This component will be woven throughout the three-year RIM process during Soul Journey gatherings and Fall and Spring Interview times, and will be led by persons from our Louisiana Conference Foundation.

God continues to bless the Louisiana Conference by calling gifted women and men into the ministry of Elder. On behalf of the entire Division, we thank you for this opportunity to serve.

Marie Palmer Williams, Chair

DIVISION OF DEACONS, DIACONAL MINISTERS, AND CERTIFIED LAY PROFESSIONALS

Deacons are persons called by God, authorized by the church, and ordained by a Bishop to a lifetime of Word and Service to both the community and the congregation in a ministry that connects the two. Deacons exemplify Christian discipleship, create opportunities for others to enter into discipleship, and connect the needs and hurts of the people with the church.

Currently, eight candidates are in the resident in ministry (RIM) process of becoming Ordained Deacons. The RIM is a three-year process when excellence in ministry is modeled by clergy mentors, teachers, and supervisors, as well as nurtured in the candidate. During the 2008 General Conference, it was determined that each annual conference would have the option of allowing this portion of the process to remain at three years or be changed to two years. The (RIM) process addresses clergy's need for continuing integration of formal studies, life experiences, and the evolving challenges of leadership in a church that is at once local and global. After much discernment, the Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers voted to continue with the three-year RIM process.

Within the nation, there is a growing concern regarding debt incurred while attending Seminary. This is due to the rising cost of tuition as well as economic concerns. To help with this issue, the Division is seeking ways to assist candidates in financial management.

Diaconal Ministers are commissioned to a lifetime of service extending the witness of Christ's love and justice in the world. Although becoming a Diaconal Minister is no longer a current option, the Diaconate is still active in our conference. They are called to serve, equip and lead the laity in ministries of service in the world. Currently, three Diaconal Ministers are serving in this conference. Diaconal Ministers will be required to interview before this Division each quadrennial to determine their effectiveness in service to the world.

Lay Professionals have a long history in The United Methodist Church. Certification is the church's recognition that an individual has met the required standards for academic training, experience, and continuing study necessary to achieve and maintain professional excellence. The certification of Christian educators, youth workers, musicians, evangelists, camp/retreat ministry, older adult ministry, and spiritual formation by The United Methodist Church resulted from a desire of persons in these fields to serve the church with excellence. Persons with certification credentials will be required to interview before this Division each quadrennial to determine their effectiveness as a Lay Professional.

Our conference is blessed to have Deacons, Diaconals, and Lay Professionals that are responding faithfully to the emerging needs of the future. Whether in a local church or in a secular setting (appointment beyond the local church), they are finding new ways to connect the needs and hurts of the people with the church.

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

The Louisiana Conference Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members assesses, fosters, and cultivates those who are called to pastor in leading local congregations and making disciples for Christ. In addition, it also insures that Local Pastors, Associate Members, Other Fellowship Members, and Other Elders are fit, prepared, and effective as spiritual leaders in The United Methodist Church. The Division fulfills its responsibilities by organizing and leading the annual spring interviews in three locations around Louisiana, conducting fall interviews at the Wesley Center, and interpreting policies and guidelines related to Local Pastors and Associate Members. The Division continues to be grateful at the level of devotion and commitment shown by these persons who serve among us.

The Louisiana Annual Conference continues to celebrate the active and faithful service of the Associate Members, Full- and Part-time Local Pastors, as well as those Pastors from Other Fellowship, and Elders from other Annual Conferences or other Methodist denominations. The Louisiana Annual Conference, and particularly, the Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members, commends and celebrates each pastor for his or her ministry with the many lives that are touched by service and commitment to the ministry of Jesus Christ.

This year as the new Division Chair, it is my vision to continue the capable and fine service of my predecessor, Rev. Ricky Willis. In doing so, I believe we are called to define and articulate the policies and procedures that will foster the kind of understanding that clarifies the journey for Local Pastors, as well as esteem their ministry in the life of the Louisiana Conference. We continued the much applauded, five-day, intensive License to Preach School that was attended by 11 persons seeking to serve churches within our conference. We celebrate several pastors who continue to move toward completion of their Course of Study work, as well as those who have completed their requirements.

The Louisiana Conference continues to need the service of Local Pastors in many of our districts that are experiencing the shortage of this ministry to many of our churches. Our Annual Conference is very dependent upon Local Pastors, and all research indicates that this will continue to be so in years ahead. We need to be intentional about recruiting, encouraging, assessing, and nurturing those who have the gifts and call of pastoral ministry to consider the invaluable role of serving as a Local Pastor.

The Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members wishes to express its gratitude to all of our Local Pastors and Associate Members of the Louisiana Annual Conference for their faithful and effective ministry.

ORDER OF ELDERS

The Order of Elders leadership team (selected in conversation with Bishop Hutchinson) for the 2008-2012 quadrennium is Doug Cain, Andy Goff, Juan Huertas, Katie McKay, and Donnie Wilkinson.

As an Order we are continuing to develop and strengthen a sense of covenant community among elders. To that end, the Order will host a retreat October 20-21, 2009, at the Wesley Center. The purpose of the retreat will be to continue to connect on a deeper level - to share our hearts and ideas - with colleagues in ministry. Information about the retreat will be available at the Clergy Session and at www.la-elders.org.

In addition to our Website, the Order also now has a Facebook group which provides an easy and meaningful way to distribute information, share ideas, and maintain a sense of connection across the miles. It's free and easy, so why not join in?

In a recent study of the spiritual lives of pastors, “seventeen of the 200 respondents decided to leave the ministry in the three-and-a-half years since the study was initially conducted — and all of them share a similar profile:

- no regular prayer life apart from professional responsibilities
- no regular engagement with scripture or devotional reading apart from professional responsibilities
- no worship life apart from professional responsibilities
- poor self-care: physical, emotional and intellectual
- lack of strong, close relationships with friends and colleagues.^{1”}

Does this describe anyone you know? This sobering study shows that we need to be intentional about encouraging one another to draw deeply from the well of spiritual practice and community. We need to get serious about asking ourselves and one another that great Wesleyan question, “How is it with your soul,” not your church, or your budget, or your average attendance, but your soul? “If we are not being fed on a regular basis, what makes us think we have anything of value with which to nourish others?”^{2”}

ORDER OF DEACONS

Our Conference has 21 full connection deacons on active status, six who are retired, and one who is on incapacity leave. There are eight provisional status deacons, and one who is in transition to the order of elders. We also have three diaconal ministers in active service.

On October 2, 2008, we enjoyed our first Deacons Day Apart with the Bishop. Bishop Hutchinson led us in discussion of the four focus areas adopted by the 2008 General Conference, and specifically how deacons can lead the church in ministry with the poor. The Bishop also led us in reflecting on “The Three Simple Rules,” by Bishop Reuben Job. Our second Deacons Day Apart with the Bishop is scheduled for October 20, 2009. The Bishop’s schedule permitting, we hope to make this an annual event.

The 2008 General Conference added this sentence to the Book of Discipline: "For the sake of extending the mission and ministry of the church, a pastor-in-charge or district superintendent may request that the Bishop grant local sacramental authority to the deacon to administer the sacraments in the absence of an elder, within a deacon's primary appointment." The Council of Bishops has adopted guidelines that will be followed in granting local sacramental authority to the Deacon.

We now have a Deacons' Page on the Louisiana Conference web site under Board of Ordained Ministry. (<http://www.la-umc.org/deacon.php>)

On Tuesday, June 6, 2009, the Order will have its Annual Breakfast Meeting at the Pontchartrain Center. This is a time of celebration: retirements, ordinations, and commissioning.

FELLOWSHIP OF LOCAL PASTORS AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

The Louisiana Chapter of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members had 3 members present at the National Conference of Associate Members and Local Pastors that was held at the Simpsonwood Retreat Center of the North Georgia Conference in Norcross, Georgia from September 9-12, 2008. Louisiana attendees were Rev. Bill and Letty Strawbridge and Rev. and Mrs. Ross Ford. The newly assigned Bishop of the North Georgia Conference, Bishop Mike Watson, welcomed us and joined us for dinner on the first night of the gathering. At various times during the gathering, Rev. Charles Hicks, President of the NFAM&LP and Rev. Tom Herring, Vice President of NFAM&LP shared their experiences and observations as well as bringing to those who attended, information from the 2008 General Conference as it pertained to the Local Pastors and Associate Members. During some of our informal sessions we were encouraged to seek ways to care for all our Local Pastors and Associate Members, in particular, those who are struggling with family and financial issues.

As to the Louisiana Conference, I know we have many Full-Time Local Pastors, Part-Time Local Pastors and Associate Members who are joyfully serving in churches all over our state. I was privileged to participate in the annual Spring Interviews of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. In my role, I had the opportunity to visit with those who came for their interview. During those three days I had the opportunity to hear some of their trials but mostly their joy in serving in their churches. I discovered that most of our Part-Time Local Pastors are serving while holding full-time jobs in the secular world, are attending Course of Study Classes, and are seeking ways to participate in workshops that will enhance their ministries. One of those opportunities for learning and enhancing ministries, the LA Fellowship hosted a Workshop on "Evangelism in the Small Membership Church" at the Wesley Center on September 20, 2008. The leader was Rev. Ramonalynn Bethley, District Superintendent of the New Orleans District. Twenty-four persons were in attendance and earned .5 Continuing Education Unit.

During the 2009 LA Annual Conference in Kenner, the Louisiana Fellowship will host a breakfast on Tuesday of Conference that will be addressed by Rev. Dr. Pat Day, Sr., Pastor of First United Methodist Church, Shreveport. We are looking forward to his presentation.

The Louisiana Fellowship is working with the National Officers to host a National Gathering of Local Pastors and Associate Members at the Wesley Center. That event will possibly be in 2010.

RETIRED MINISTERS' HOMES BOARD

The purpose of our report to the Annual Conference each year is to keep our Ministry before the local Churches of the Louisiana Conference, which are represented here by their Clergy and Lay Delegates. There are new delegates to the Conference each year that may not know about the Ministry that is performed by our Board.

When Methodist Ministers retire, there is no longer a congregation to provide a parsonage for them and they have not been able to build up any equity in a home. Some cannot afford to purchase a home and make monthly house notes from their limited pension income. At the present time, the Board has thirty-six homes throughout the state with at least one home in each District. Our residents pay a monthly maintenance and insurance fee of nine cents per square foot. For a 1,200 square foot residence, the fee is $108.00 per month. There are homes available in Bossier City, Ruston, Homer, Slidell and Ponchatoula.

Our greatest financial help from Methodist people comes when we receive the donation of a home that we can either use for one of our retirees or sell and invest the proceeds in a new home. The last home we purchased with such funds was in Hammond. We are also open to partnering with a Church or an individual in providing a home for a particular retiree. When funds are available the Board will provide up to fifty thousand dollars in matching funds.

On Sunday, September 13th, 2009, the Annual Conference will observe Retired Ministers' Homes Board Sunday and the Churches are to present this Ministry and receive an offering for this work. Our goal is to be able to fund our entire annual administrative cost from the contributions from this offering. This goal could be reached if every Church in the Conference contributed only 60 cents per member. That's just pocket change.

The Board would like to recognize the long and faithful service of two of our members who are retiring this year. They have not only been faithful in attending and contributing at Board meetings but have served as Contact Persons for the Residents in the Homes in their geographical areas. George Gladney of Rayville has served for 23 years. Rev. James Poole of Natchitoches has served for 6 years.

LOUISIANA INTERCHURCH CONFERENCE

To Live the Faith We Hold in Common

The Reverend Dr. Frederick J. Schmidt of Perkins School of Theology at SMU was the keynote speaker at this year's Annual Assembly LIC held March 2-3, 2009, in Shreveport. The keynote addresses on Triage Theology: Crafting a Personal Spirituality in the Middle of Life's Losses provided helpful insights to delegates from around the state in assisting church members and others recover from the recent Hurricanes and other calamities. The Rev. John Deschner, Chair of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, represented the Conference along with the Rev. Larry Miller who is Treasurer of the LIC. Others representing the Louisiana Annual Conference included Rev. Hulen Warren, also a board member, and Mrs. Barbara Thomas, Coordinator of Region II (Monroe).

The Task Force on Ecumenical Formation reported four successful conferences held in the past year as part of the Conference goal to recruit and form the next generation of ecumenical leaders. The membership task force has set goals of enlarging the table of membership and strengthening the ties between existing member churches. The task force on Social Justice and Advocacy is partnering with other faith based groups to conduct an educational seminar on Advocacy in the spring of 2009 and a legislative day at the capital.

The Commission on Stewardship of the Environment continues to conduct workshops on Green Churches. The Commission on Criminal Justice is working closely with state agencies on the implementation of the Juvenile Justice Reform Act and conducted a conference in March that was attended by nearly 150 participants to assess implementation efforts and to offer suggestions for progress. Mrs. Betty Puckett, our field staff member in addition to personal assistance to farm families, represents farmers during meetings, mediation, and appeals with USDA, Farm Service Agency. With funding provided by Farm Aid, she provides a hotline/referral service for distressed farmers.

The Board of Directors met in Lafayette in September and heard reports on relief, recovery and rebuilding from the member churches and their disaster recovery agencies. In the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita and other storms the LIC, in partnership with Church World Service, engaged in the formation of a statewide organization to coordinate efforts of the Churches and other communities of faith in the long term recovery. The Louisiana Interfaith Disaster Recovery Network is now registered as a federal 501 (c)3 nonprofit corporation. Staff recruitment is underway.

The Louisiana Interchurch Conference is funded by the member churches and we are grateful for the generous support of the United Methodist Church in Louisiana and its commitment to ecumenical relationships. The Conference also provides office space for the LIC at a very modest cost. There is a continuing challenge to keep before the churches Christ's vision of unity for His Church and the impact of that vision on the churches' witness.

LOUISIANA MORAL & CIVIC FOUNDATION

Introduction - In 2008, LMCF reviewed and celebrated its founding in order to closely adhere to the guidelines and goals established over sixty-five years ago, and the programs and ways these goals are to be reached.

Methodist Bishop Dana Dawson issued (August 27, 1942) an official call for a mass meeting of Moral Forces. In response to that historic call, approximately 100 people of all faiths and no faith gathered in Alexandria to begin a work that continues today through the Louisiana Moral & Civic Foundation. The Louisiana Legislature and other state leaders continue to recognize LMCF as an organization without peer in their efforts to make Louisiana a better place in which to live. One of the leaders in LMCF's organizational meeting that took place in Alexandria on September 25, 1942, was Dr. Henry Bowden, Sr. from Lake Charles. Bowden stressed the importance of funding the new organization through an "asking" in the budgets of local churches and from people of means, who would feel led to help. During all of this time, LMCF has continued to focus on helping citizens of Louisiana address moral and social concerns. It continues to depend upon the promise made in that historic organizational meeting, if LMCF would do the work for which it was established; churches would place LMCF in their annual budgets. In addition, as originally envisioned, God has raise up individuals of means who financially support this ministry.

Administration - United Methodist Churches gave approximately $ 176.00 to LMCF in 2008, down from approximately $422.00 in 2007. Total budget contributions LMCF received in 2008 from all sources were $140,735.00. Our asking from the churches of $1.00 per member per year remains the same in 2009. LMCF appreciates each United Methodist Church and member who by their contributions, invest in this ministry of morality.

Ministry - LMCF in 2009 ministered through four major programs: Awards, Educational, Legal and Legislative Conclusion - Louisiana Methodists in 2009 continue to exercise their influence upon LMCF through past president Rev. Jimmie Pyles, and other United Methodist members of the State Advisory Council. Thank you for the opportunity to serve the people in Louisiana called United Methodists.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Having celebrated the unexpected turn of events at General Conference which provided Bishop Hutchinson the option of extending his Episcopal ministry for an additional quadrennium, the Committee on Episcopacy rejoiced with our entire conference to learn that Bishop and Mrs. Hutchinson had decided after prayerful deliberation to continue to serve for an additional four years – if the Jurisdictional Conference would return them to Louisiana. Rev. Bob Burgess and Dr. Anita Crump, members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, attended the South Central Jurisdictional Conference in Dallas in July, 2008, and presented a resolution passed by the conference requesting the Hutchinson's reassignment to Louisiana. By unanimous vote of the Jurisdictional Conference, Bishop Hutchinson was reassigned to the Louisiana Annual Conference for this quadrennium. We express our sincere gratitude to Rev. Burgess and Dr. Crump for their diligent efforts on behalf of the conference and our committee in securing the return of Bishop and Mrs. Hutchinson to Louisiana.

The Committee on Episcopacy was pleased to meet at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Hutchinson on October 1, 2008, and to hear his vision for ministry for the next four years, which will include an emphasis on the four areas of focus adopted at the 2008 General Conference to guide our church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world:

- Combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally.
- Creating new places for new people and revitalizing existing congregations.
- Developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world.
- Engaging in ministry with the poor.

The Committee further committed to work with the Conference Board of Trustees toward the establishment of a jointly constituted property committee, to ensure proper upkeep and maintenance of the Episcopal residence and Shreveport condominium donated for Episcopal use.

We look forward to supporting and assisting Bishop Hutchinson as he oversees the spiritual and temporal affairs of our conference and our Church for the next four years.

PETITION TO THE 2009 LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission Recognition and Awareness Day

WHEREAS, the 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church (UMC) officially sanctioned the United Methodist Volunteers In Mission (UMVIM) and directed the General Board of Global Ministries to "affirm VIM as an authentic form of personal missionary involvement and devise appropriate structure to interpret and implement opportunities for volunteers in the global community" (p1302.14 Discipline). The 1988 GC suggested that "each annual conference name a VIM coordinator to work cooperatively with GBGM and the Jurisdictional UMVIM offices." The 1996 GC created the Mission Volunteers office within GBGM to "assist in the guidance and placement of volunteers; in short term mission assignments ". (P1312 (5)). The 2000 GC recognized UMVIM as a "one of the most dynamic mission outreach programs of the denomination today" (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church; 2000page 165). The 2004 GC authorized the establishment of a Volunteer in Mission Awareness Sunday in the Annual conferences. These actions clearly recognize the UMVIM program as a growing force in promoting the church in general, Christianity in particular, and personal Christian service; and

WHEREAS, the UMVIM program is truly a grassroots movement in allowing all persons of faith, laity and clergy alike, the opportunity to have a "hands on" experience and involvement in mission endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is generally accepted that all persons cannot do everything but, that everyone can do something. The UMVIM program allows persons to offer physical support, prayer support, and/or financial support to the wide variety of programs that are designed to promote the many opportunities to utilize their many varied talents in direct service to the Kingdom of God; and

WHEREAS, Scripture requires us all to be active participants in the faith, to wit, "... and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth" (Acts I: 8b, RSV) and "What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works.....So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead" (James 2: 14, 17 RSV); and

WHEREAS, there are opportunities to serve locally, nationally, or even internationally, and the "hands on" opportunity truly changes a missionaries perspective towards persons or cultures with different economic, ethnic, or political backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, the UMVIM program is one essential tool in helping to promote tolerance and understanding throughout all of God's Kingdom, a tool that helps to bring a measure of relief to those in unfortunate circumstances wherever they are, and a tool that can help Christians to fulfill the mandate of Jesus as expressed in Matthew 25: 34 – 46.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, the Volunteers in Mission Annual Conference coordinator (Larry D. Norman) and the Jurisdictional UMVIM Coordinator of the United Methodist Church (Debbie Vest) requests that the Louisiana Annual Conference recommend to all local churches in the Conference:

1. That the 3rd Sunday in September is recommended to be set aside and declared Volunteers In Mission Awareness Day; and
2. That each local church with assistance of the conference UMVIM leadership, provide for UMVIM displays, information resources, solicit individual or group testimonies and/or develop other ways to celebrate the UMVIM movement in whatever fashion that best suits the local congregation; and
3. That local churches draw upon the available resources of the Conference UMVIM Coordinator to help make the day memorable, one of faith in action.
4. That an offering be taken on the designated UMVIM Awareness Sunday to support the Conference and Jurisdictional UMVIM offices and programs. (It is recommended that 70% of funds collected go to the Conference UMVIM and a tithe of 30% to the Jurisdictional UMVIM programming efforts.)

PETITION TO THE 2009 LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

RE-EVALUATION OF MEDICAL INSURANCE ASSESSMENTS FOR CHURCHES SERVED BY FULL-TIME PASTORS

WHEREAS, the 2008 Book of Discipline says each annual conference shall have a commission on equitable compensation (§ 625.1) for the purpose of recommending minimum salary standards for full-time clergy and administering the funds needed for this support, and

WHEREAS, the annual report of the Louisiana Commission on Equitable Compensation states “the Annual Conference provides a program of support for the ministers to assure them a livable level of financial support ...”(2008 LAC Journal, p. 412), and

WHEREAS, there is a huge discrepancy between the percent of salary required to provide medical insurance for our highest paid pastors and our lowest paid pastors (see the table below), and

	(A) Average Income	(B) Current Insurance	Insurance as a % of Salary (B/A)	Fixed-rate example (A x 15%)
Top 10 Pastors (per 2009 Workbook)	112,425	9,180	8.2	16,864
District Superintendents (per 2009 Workbook)	88,116	9,180	10.4	13,217
Conference Avg. Comp (per 2008 E.C. Report)	55,585	9,180	15.7	8,788
E.C. Base for Full Member (per 2008 E.C. Report)	36,909	9,180	24.9	5,536

WHEREAS, this discrepancy appears to be in direct contradiction to the very idea of providing equitable compensation,

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the manner in which medical insurance is assessed on churches served by full-time pastors be re-evaluated, with the goal of finding a more equitable basis for funding our insurance needs.
